Prisoner In Rio:

A Prisoner in Rio Steven Berkoff, 1989 When Prisoners Come Home Joan Petersilia, 2009-04-21 Drawing on dozens of interviews with inmates former prisoners and prison officials Joan Petersilia convincingly shows us how the current system is failing to help the enormous numbers of jailed Americans reenter society Unwilling merely to sound the alarm Petersilia explores the harsh realities of prisoner reentry and offers specific solutions to prepare inmates for release reduce recidivism and restore them to full citizenship while never losing sight of the demands of public safety Carceral Communities in Latin America Sacha Darke, Chris Garces, Luis Duno-Gottberg, Andrés Antillano, 2021-03-27 This book gathers the very best academic research to date on prison regimes in Latin America and the Caribbean Grounded in solid ethnographic work each chapter explores the informal dynamics of prisons in diverse territories and countries of the region Venezuela Brazil Bolivia Honduras Nicaragua Colombia Puerto Rico Dominican Republic while theorizing how day to day life for the incarcerated has been forged in tandem between prison facilities and the outside world The editors and contributors to this volume ask how have fastest rising incarceration rates in the world affected civilians lives in different national contexts How do groups of prisoners form broader and more integrated carceral communities across day to day relations of exchange and reciprocity with guards lawyers family associates and assorted neighbors What differences exist between carceral communities from one national context to another Last but not least how do carceral communities contrary to popular opinion necessarily become a productive force for the good and welfare of incarcerated subjects in addition to being a potential source of troubling violence and insecurity This edited collection represents the most rigorous scholarship to date on the prison regimes of Latin America and the Caribbean exploring the methodological value of ethnographic reflexivity inside prisons and theorizing how daily life for the incarcerated challenges preconceptions of prisoner subjectivity so called prison gangs and bio political order Sacha Darke is Senior Lecturer in Criminology at University of Westminster UK Visiting Lecturer in Law at University of S o Paulo Brazil and Affiliate of King s Brazil Institute King s College London UK Chris Garces is Research Professor of Anthropology at Universidad San Francisco de Quito Ecuador and Visiting Lecturer in Law at Universidad Andina Sim n Bolívar Ecuador Luis Duno Gottberg is Professor at Rice University USA He specializes in Caribbean culture with emphasis on race and ethnicity politics violence and visual culture Andr s Antillano is Professor in Criminology at Universidad Central de Venezuela Venezuela The Expanding Prison David Cayley, 1998 The Expanding Prison is a provocative cogent argument for prison reform David Cayley argues that our overpopulated prisons are more reflective of a society that is becoming increasingly polarized than of an actual surge in crime This book considers proven alternatives to imprisonment that emphasize settlement oriented techniques over punishment and move us towards a vision of justice as peace making rather than one of vengeance Prisons and Prison Systems Mitchel P. Roth, 2005-11-30 Prisons have undoubtedly changed over the years as have penal practices in general though more so in some countries than others Prisons and prison systems have long been an overlooked part of criminal justice research and as a result limited material is available on many institutions This comprehensive encyclopedia provides a historical overview of institutions and systems around the world as well as penal theories prisoner culture and life and notable prisoners and personnel Readers will find a plethora of information including material on such famous prisons as the Tower of London and Alcatraz as well as on such topics as boot camps and parole Other entries include Devil s Island supermaximum prisons Nelson Mandela Pennsylvania system and Amnesty International Numerous appendixes list famous prisoners prison museums prison slang and more

Transnational Penal Cultures Vivien Miller,James Campbell,2014-11-13 Focusing on three key stages of the criminal justice process discipline punishment and desistance and incorporating case studies from Asia the Americas Europe Africa and Australia the thirteen chapters in this collection are based on exciting new research that explores the evolution and adaptation of criminal justice and penal systems largely from the early nineteenth century to the present They range across the disciplinary boundaries of History Criminology Law and Penology Journeying into and unlocking different national and international penal archives and drawing on diverse analytical approaches the chapters forge new connections between historical and contemporary issues in crime prisons policing and penal cultures and challenge traditional Western democratic historiographies of crime and punishment and categorisations of offenders police and ex offenders The individual chapters provide new perspectives on race gender class urban space surveillance policing prisonisation and defiance and will be essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminal justice law police transportation slavery offenders and desistance from crime

Fred Vernon; Or, The Victim of Avarice John Frederick Smith,182? Conviviality and Survival Sacha Darke,2018-07-16 Brazilian authorities continuously fail to comply with international norms on minimal conditions of incarceration Brazil s prison population has risen ten fold since the country s return to democracy in the 1980s Its prisons typically operate at double official capacity and with 100 prisoners for each guard on duty At the same time however the average Brazilian prison is not as disorderly or its staff inmate relations so conflictual as our established theories on prison life might predict This monograph explores the means by which Brazilian prisons function in the absence of guards More specifically the means by which prison security and inmate discipline is negotiated between prison managers gangs and the wider inmate body While fragile and varied this historical tradition of co produced governance has for decades kept most prisons in better order and enabled most prisoners to better survive
