

The book cover features a light blue background with a faint map of the Middle East. A white rectangular label is centered on the right side, containing the title and author's name. The map shows the Mediterranean Sea, the Red Sea, and the Gulf of Persia, with various cities and regions labeled. The title 'PRISONERS OF GOD' is printed in large, bold, black capital letters. Below it, the subtitle 'The Modern-day Conflict of Arab and Jew' is printed in a smaller, black, serif font. The author's name 'DAVID SMITH' is printed in red capital letters at the bottom of the label. The book is set against a dark red background.

Prisoners Of God The Modern Day Conflict Of Arab And Jew:

Prisoners of God David Smith,1987 The Blood Of Abraham, "Intifada, Uprising & Lessons In Asymmetrical Warfare" Major David A. Brown,2015-11-06 A historical case study concerning the Israeli Army s response to the Palestinian Intifada or uprising in the late 1980 s and early 1990 s provides instructive planning considerations for likely future application of U S military force in an asymmetrical threat environment The monograph specifically analyzes the time period from the beginning of the uprising until the handshake of Rabin and Arafat on the White House lawn September 13th 1993 Although the theoretical application of the case study is speculative of future environments this paper attempts to link available historical data to anticipated trends in the international security environment and emerging concepts of operational art The argument surrounding asymmetrical types of warfare leads into a discussion of the application of IDF lessons learned that may be applied to future U S military scenarios Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith,2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community Plans for Peace Karen Feste,1991-11-30 Although much has been written about the Arab Israeli conflict and about general theories of negotiation this analysis and history is unique in linking major issues and peace plans to negotiation theory and strategy Feste studies the basic structures of conflict and negotiation offering no suggestions for radical solution but arguing for changes in approach that may bring about steps forward This overview of all major peace efforts since 1947 and of negotiating strategies is intended for undergraduate and graduate courses in conflict resolution Middle Eastern politics and international relations and for the use of political scientists sociologists students and teachers concerned with ethnoconflict The text analyzes the framework of the Arab Israeli conflict how it has built up and how it has been maintained The structure of the negotiation process is then viewed in the same way Key elements in the Arab Israeli conflict are considered historically and related directly to the process of negotiation and to theories about positional and principled bargaining and tactics needed in a pre negotiation period and during negotiation to produce more successful results Ibss: Political Science: 1987 British Library of Political and Economic Science,1991 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institutions whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Political Prisoners and Trials James R. Bennett,1995 Arranged by country this text includes articles from journals pamphlets organizational reports and books on political prisoners and their trials The Literary Review ,1987
