Private Jessica:

The Terror Dream Susan Faludi, 2024-05-01 From the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and bestselling author of Backlash an unflinching dissection of the mind of America after 9 11 In this most original examination of America s post 9 11 culture Susan Faludi shines a light on the country s psychological response to the attacks on that terrible day Turning her acute observational powers on the media popular culture and political life Faludi unearths a barely acknowledged but bedrock societal drama shot through with baffling contradictions Why she asks did our culture respond to an assault against American global dominance with a frenzied summons to restore traditional manhood marriage and maternity Why did we react as if the hijackers had targeted not a commercial and military edifice but the family home and nursery Why did an attack fueled by hatred of Western emancipation lead us to a regressive fixation on Doris Day womanhood and John Wayne masculinity with trembling security moms swaggering presidential gunslingers and the rescue of a female soldier cast as a helpless little girl The answer Faludi finds lies in a historical anomaly unique to the American experience the nation that in recent memory has been least vulnerable to domestic attack was forged in traumatizing assaults by nonwhite barbarians on town and village That humiliation lies concealed under a myth of cowboy bluster and feminine frailty which is reanimated whenever threat and shame looms In The Terror Dream Faludi provides stunning and depressing evidence of a concerted effort to silence women and roll back women s rights in the wake of 9 11 She brings in a Mack truck s worth of testimony and proof Amy Wilentz Los Angeles Times

Getting It Wrong W. Joseph Campbell, 2017 Many of American journalism s best known and most cherished stories are exaggerated dubious or apocryphal They are media driven myths and they attribute to the news media and their practitioners far more power and influence than they truly exert In Getting It Wrong writer and scholar W Joseph Campbell confronts and dismantles prominent media driven myths describing how they can feed stereotypes distort understanding about the news media and deflect blame from policymakers Campbell debunks the notions that the Washington Post s Watergate reporting brought down Richard M Nixon s corrupt presidency that Walter Cronkite s characterization of the Vietnam War in 1968 shifted public opinion against the conflict and that William Randolph Hearst vowed to furnish the war against Spain in 1898 This expanded second edition includes a new preface and new chapters about the first Kennedy Nixon debate in 1960 the haunting Napalm Girl photograph of the Vietnam War and bogus quotations driven by the Internet and social media

Jessica's Twisted Moments Whitney Jay, 2012-06 This work is the first of many to come It contains events in my life made of a little of this and a little of that and mostly me Also it is in part fictional It is derived from a true story I thank God for giving me an open heart to let in forgiveness Forgiveness is saying I will forgive you especially when I am asked to do so Not being able to forgive brings unnecessary grief upon others as well as on each other I no longer see you as an adversary or a rival I love you even if you cannot love me back So here s to love and a better life God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the

Riley, 2006-12-11 A collection of multiple perspectives on the war on terror and the new imperialism Looking at the imperialism and the war on terror through a lens focused on gender and race the contributors expose the limitations of the current popular discourse and help to uncover possibilities not yet apparent in that same discourse Iraq at a Distance Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2010-11-24 The Iraq War has cost innumerable lives caused vast material destruction and inflicted suffering on millions of people Iraq at a Distance What Anthropology Can Teach Us About the War focuses on the plight of the Iraqi people caught since 2003 in the carnage between U S and British troops on one side and on the other Iraqi insurgents militias and foreign al Qaeda operatives The volume is a bold attempt by six distinguished anthropologists to study a war zone too dangerous for fieldwork They break new ground by using their ethnographic imagination as a research tool to analyze the Iraq War through insightful comparisons with previous and current armed conflicts in Cambodia Israel Palestine Northern Ireland Afghanistan and Argentina This innovative approach extends the book s relevance beyond a critical understanding of the devastating war in Iraq More and more parts of the world of long standing ethnographic interest are becoming off limits to researchers because of the war on terror This book serves as a model for the study of other inaccessible regions and it shows that the impossibility of conducting ethnographic fieldwork does not condemn anthropologists to silence Essays analyze the good versus evil framework of the war on terror the deterioration of women s rights in Iraq under fundamentalist coercion the ethnic religious partitioning of Baghdad through the building of security walls the excessive use of force against Iraqi civilians by U S counterinsurgency units and the loss of popular support for U S and British forces in Iraq and Afghanistan after the brutal regimes of the Taliban and Saddam Hussein had been toppled
