Private Authority And International Affairs Suny Series In Global Politics:

Private Authority and International Affairs A. Claire Cutler, Virginia Haufler, Tony Porter, 1999-04-01 Governments today are too often unwilling to intervene in global commerce and international organizations are too often unable to govern effectively In their place firms increasingly cooperate internationally to establish the rules and standards of behavior for themselves and for others taking on the mantle of authority to govern specific issue areas Are they stepping into the breach to supply needed collective goods Or are they organizing themselves in order to prevent governments from interfering in their business This book explores the meaning of this private international authority both for theory and policy through case studies of specific industries associations and issue areas in both contemporary and historical perspective Contributors include Pamela Burke Lynn Mytelka and Michel Delapierre Liora Salter Susan Sell Timothy Sinclair Deborah Spar and Michael Webb

Private Authority and International Affairs A. Claire Cutler, Virginia Haufler, Tony Porter, 1999-01-01 Explores in detail the degree to which private sector firms are beginning to replace governments in governing some areas of international relations

International Relations--Still an American Social Science? Robert M.A. Crawford, Darryl S.L. Jarvis, 2000-11-30 This book is a valuable evaluation of the propensity toward parochialism in international thought It analyzes the implications in terms of how the problems of international relations the theoretical tools constructed to deal with them and the direction of theoretical debate often reflect the unconscious bias of the national domains in which these intellectual activities are conducted It scans the breadth of the contemporary discipline broadly attempting to take its pulse and assess the contours of its new diversity Contributors include Pal Ahluwalia Chris Brown Molly Cochran Robert M A Crawford Roger Epp Martin Griffiths A J R Groom Teresa Healey John M Hobson K J Holsti Darryl S L Jarvis Peter Mandaville Mark Neufeld Kim R Nossal Terry O Callaghan Jan Pettman Tony Porter James Richardson Roger Spegele and Michael Sullivan

Imperialism and Internationalism in the Discipline of International Relations David Long, Brian C.

Schmidt, 2006-01-01 What were the guiding themes of the discipline of International Relations before World War II The traditional disciplinary history has long viewed this time period as one guided by idealism and then challenged by realism This book reconstructs in detail some of the formative episodes of the field s early development and arrives at the conclusion that in actuality the early years of International Relations were preoccupied not with idealism and realism but with the dual themes of imperialism and internationalism Thus the beginnings of the discipline have resonance with the recently revived discourse of empire and the global status and policies of the United States as the world s sole superpower

Rethinking Global Land Use in an Urban Era Karen C. Seto, Anette Reenberg, 2014-03-14 International experts examine the effects of urbanization and economic globalization on land use and offer new insights to advance understanding and sustainable practice Today global land use is affected by a variety of factors including urbanization and the growing interconnectedness of economies and markets This book examines the challenges and opportunities we face in achieving sustainable land use in the twenty first century While land resources remain finite the global population is projected to reach ten billion by the end of the century bringing issues of ethics and fairness to center stage Who should decide how land is used Where does competition for land occur and why Moreover accelerating globalization increasing demand for animal protein in our diets the need for new sources of energy and the global scarcity of land have led to a decoupling of land use and local control which raises issues of governance The contributors from a range of disciplines and countries present new analytical perspectives and tools for understanding key issues in global land use The chapters consider such topics as food production and land use case studies of urbanization and agriculture in Brazil and China telecoupling and connections to distant places emerging institutions of land use governance public and private regulation of land use uniquely urban issues of land use and future steps to sustainability Contributors Graeme Auld Anthony J Bebbington Tor A Benjaminsen Hilda Blanco Christopher G Boone Saturnino M Borrás Jr Wang Chunyu Ruth DeFries Xiangzheng Deng Hallie Eakin Jennifer C Franco Bradford S Gentry Peter J Gregory Dagmar Haase Helmut Haberl Vanessa Hull Carol A Hunsberger John S I Ingram Elena G Irwin Anne Marie Izac Suzi Kerr Jennifer Koch Tobias Kuemmerle Eric F Lambin Yingzhi Lin Jianguo Liu Shuaib Lwasa Peter J Marcotullio Matias E Margulis Cheikh Mbow Ole Mertz Peter Messerli Patrick Meyfroidt Emilio Moran Harini Nagendra Stephan Pauleit Steward T A Pickett Tobias Plieninger Charles L Redman Anette Reenberg Ximena Rueda Heike Schroeder Karen C Seto Thomas Sikor Simon R Swaffield Billie Lee Turner II Caroline Upton Birka Wicke Makoto Yokohari Karl Zimmerer Who Gets What? Aslaug Asgeirsdottir, 2009-07-01 Examines the domestic constraints negotiators operate under when nations seek to cooperate The Oxford Handbook of Business and Government David Coen, Wyn Grant, Graham Wilson, 2010-02-25 Business is one of the major power centres in modern society The state seeks to check and channel that power so as to serve broader public policy objectives However if the way in which business is governed is ineffective or over burdensome it may become more difficult to achieve desired goals such as economic growth or higher levels of employment In a period of international economic crisis the study of how business and government relate to each other in different countries is of more central importance than ever These relationships have been studied from a number of different disciplinary perspectives business studies economics economic history law and political science and all of these are represented in this handbook The first part of the book provides an introduction to the ways in which five different disciplines have approached the study of business and government The second section on the firm and the state looks at how these entities interact in different settings emphasising such phenomena as the global firm and varieties of capitalism The third section examines how business interacts with government in different parts of the world including the United States the EU China Japan and South America The fourth section reviews changing patterns of market governance through a unifying theme of the role of regulation Business government relations can play out in divergent ways in different policy and the fifth section examines the contrasts between different key arenas such as competition policy trade policy training policy and environmental policy The volume provides an authoritative overview with chapters by leading authorities on the current state of knowledge of business government relations but also points to ways in which this work might be developed in the future e g through a political theory of the firm

International Regimes for the Final Frontier M. J. Peterson, 2012-02-01 Neither rational choice theory with its emphasis on interest calculation nor sociological institutionalist theory with its emphasis on identity defined rule following indicates how governments determine which of their multiple interests or identities are at stake in a particular situation or how they develop mutual comprehension of each other's goals International Regimes for the Final Frontier addresses these gaps by tracing how governments approach an unfamiliar issue in this case international agreements regulating human activity in outer space between 1958 and 1988 and examines three ways situation definitions channel governments approaches to issues or problems

Beyond Boundaries? Rudra Sil, Eileen M. Doherty, 2000-06-08 This book represents a critical yet constructive reappraisal of the role and the limits of the boundaries that define and separate disciplines and subfields in the social sciences as well as the boundaries that divide distinct research traditions or paradigms in the analysis of international life It provides an integrative and eclectic examination of the virtues of a more flexible division of labor a division that facilitates more meaningful communication among scholars of different methodological persuasions investigating similar problems in international life Part One addresses concrete issues in international studies ranging from international bargaining and interdependence to conceptions of collective identity The essays therein serve as creative models for integrating concepts and analytic logics from different theoretical frameworks rooted in different disciplines Part Two shifts the focus to more wide ranging questions in the philosophy of the social sciences and the organization of social science research in order to shed new light on the value and validity of boundaries currently drawn between different schools sects disciplines and subfields Contributors include Tadashi Anno Jean Marc F Blanchard Anne L Clunan Eileen M Doherty Wade L Huntley Timothy W Luke Norrin M Ripsman and Rudra Sil

Debating the Global Financial Architecture Leslie Elliott Armijo, 2012-02-01 Debating the Global Financial Architecture opens up the contemporary debate surrounding the reform of the global financial architecture Economists and political scientists explore the economic and technical content of alternative global financial regimes as well as the political processes through which such changes are negotiated The contributors though diverse jointly fear that rapid removal of the remaining controls on private international financial transactions risks systematic crisis By initiating a cross disciplinary discussion they hope to see the politics of global financial design examined more honestly yet without discarding or devaluing a solid economic analysis of global money and investment flows
