Kagawa,2025-06-27 This unique collection provides critical analyses of Japanese educational history by bringing together gender transnational and transcultural perspectives It illustrates how Japanese European and American women educators transcended national borders in seeking to reform and re shape Japanese education and society in the midst of social and political change from the Meiji era 1868 1912 to 1948 and beyond including during the American Occupation of Japan It demonstrates how educational practice from Europe and the United States not only flowed into Japan before and after the First and Second World Wars but also became entangled with Japanese perspectives as well as with nationalism colonialism imperialism and regionalism as some Japanese educators sought to reform education for Asian women beyond Japan s
