The Hidden Plot Edward Bond, 2014-01-03 An important urgent book of essays from Britain's most challenging dramatist a great playwright many particularly in continental Europe would say the greatest living English playwright The Independent This collection of passionate and polemical essays deals with drama from its origin in the human mind to its use in history and the present It explains the hidden working of drama behind the state religion family crime and war It is a revolutionary understanding of the human world with drama at its centre A ruthless critique of the theatre's present state and its trivialisation as entertainment by the media it reveals and sees a radical new theatre for the future Edward Bond is internationally recognised as a major playwright and a leading theoretician of drama He is the most performed British dramatist abroad This is his latest and most important account of the meaning and practice of theatre as we start a new millennium

Radical Innocence Ihab Hassan, 1973 Performing Noncitizenship Emma Cox, 2015-05-01 This exacting study examines the theatre film and activism engaged with the representation or participation of asylum seekers and refugees in the twenty first century Cox shows how this work has been informed by and indeed contributed to the consolidation of irregular noncitizenship as a cornerstone idea in contemporary Australian political and social life to the extent that it has become impossible to imagine what Australia means without it

The Limits of Imagination Helen Regueiro, 2019-06-30 This subtle tightly woven study treats the dialectical relation's hip of imagination and reality in three major poets and through them in the poetry of the past two centuries Professor Regueiro traces the modern poet's attempt to balance imagination and reality his withdrawal from the external and absorption in self consciousness and his ultimate recognition of the temporal and the natural as the only realms where the imagination may survive Through her study of Wordsworth Yeats and Stevens she envisions the modern poet as he comes to recognize the dangers and the limits of the imagination in his dealings with the real world and to accept and affirm the tensions that allow poetry to exist

1935-38 in which three historical novels were written. The second is the realistic phase 1938-52 in which most of his great works were written including the Cairo trilogy. The third phase began after a pause of six years in 1958 and is distinguished by symbolic writings and a deep concern for the individual in a changing society.
