Raf Today:

The Royal Air Force at Home Ian Watson, 2010-06-19 Military public relations endeavors ultimately seek to build a sense of common interests and aims and so generally foster good relations with the people they defend and there in ensure a stable society The armed forces when engaging on any public relations exercise have traditionally sought to provide an entertaining spectacle For years this has been typified by parades bands mock battles drill displays and other relevant feats of military prowess which have captured the imagination of the public and inspired potential recruits The 20th Century brought a new dimension to the field of warfare and subsequently added a new strand to the fabric of public ceremony and displays by the armed forces That new dimension was the arrival of powered flight Display flying began within five years of the Wright Brothers making their milestone first flight The first events staged in Britain which centered on demonstrations by flying machines were organized by the town councils of Blackpool and Doncaster and were held within days of each other in October 1909 1920 was the year that the first of the famed and legendary Hendon Air Pageants was staged and this is where military air shows traditionally began The Hendon Displays were organized and staged by the still fledgling Royal Air Force and it was probably due in no small part to the prestige and spectacle of this fresh new dimension of military pageantry together with other like events held at RAF airfields through the next two decades that the very existence of the RAF was saved from the threat of abolition The history of the RAF's commitment one that compares almost uniquely with other air forces toward display flying through the years after World War II has now come of age This account of their record in this often overlooked but then again traditional field of military customs describes and illustrates the major public RAF events since 1920

The RAF's Armourers Tony Lamsdale, Phil Appleby, 2023-11-23 It is said that one of the earliest trades in the world is that of the armorer Historically it is a profession dated slightly after prostitution but well before banking Since the birth of the Royal Flying Corps in 1912 through to the modern Royal Air Force the role of the armorer has been pivotal Not for nothing did the founder of the RAF Lord Trenchard once declare The armorer without him there is no need for an air force In the years since the need for RAF armorers was first recognized it has been a role that has evolved with the times What has remained constant however is the fact that it is still a fascinating and potentially dangerous trade with many different branches and specialisms In this book the authors one of whom Tony Lamsdale is himself a former RAF armorer reveal the previously untold story of how the trade has adapted to the most modern of military machines the aircraft The authors look at the shared history of the armorer and the RAF through the eyes of those who served These veterans stories span decades and their first hand accounts and insights into conflict and peace time operations demonstrate the qualities and characteristics that make armorers unique The book starts with a brief history of the armorer then before capturing the adventures and exploits of RAF armorers from the Second World War and on into the Cold War The dangerous duties of the armorers on deployment in such places as the Falklands Iran Iraq or Afghanistan are all explored There is also the question of having to learn of bomb dumps the use of small arms and the unique world of the armorer with its own peculiar language and the camaraderie of the crew room With each chapter brought to life through personal anecdotes and shared experiences this book provides an insight into an utterly essential role which has remained largely hidden until now RAF in Camera Keith Wilson, 2022-09-15 In July 2018 the nation looked skyward over Buckingham Palace in awe as the Royal Air Force celebrated its first 100 years with a spectacular parade and flypast over London This event demonstrated a very different perspective of the RAF well away from its operational commitments The expertise and precision of those RAF pilots flying in some of the most famous aircraft in the world has been displayed since the very first days of military aviation The Inter War period was dominated by the Hendon Air Pageants where many aircraft made their public appearance Post war it was the turn of the jet display teams with the Black Arrows and Firebirds laying the foundations for the aerial mastery that is today's Red Arrows The various anniversaries have seen a growth in special artwork being applied to aircraft flown by squadrons celebrating key anniversaries This is covered in considerable detail within this volume On the ground the RAF is represented at major celebrations and key public events by the Queen's Colour Squadron which demonstrates its world famous continuity drill routine while providing a guard of honor for visiting Heads of States They are frequently accompanied with the Service's own bands which have grown from those created by its squadrons over a century ago From the Berlin Airlift in 1948 to flood relief in Kenya and the international relief effort in the Caribbean following Hurricane Irma in 2017 the RAF has been deployed overseas in response to numerous international crises But aid operations have also been mounted at home Under the banner of Military Aid to the Civil Powers helicopters and aircraft have airlifted food and supplies to areas cut off by severe weather Sea King helicopters have rescued villagers stranded by flash flooding in Boscastle while Chinook helicopters have assisted with the rebuilding of flood defenses breached by severe floods across the country The golden age of record breaking also features in this book From long range flights to South Africa and Australia the Schneider Trophy triumph speed records in the jet age along with altitude records with pilots in special pressure suits the RAF has demonstrated its reputation as a truly pioneering Air Arm Keith Wilson takes us on a journey through the Royal Air Force's public persona during their 100 year history All landmark events are referenced in this thorough well researched and image packed publication As with the three previous releases this new addition to the In Camera series is sure to be regarded as something of a collector's edition and a real enthusiast's favorite Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1978

RAF West Malling Anthony J. Moor, 2019-12-19 Inspiring history of the first designated night fighter base an important piece of social and military history a must read Books Monthly Anthony J Moor's exhaustively researched and highly illustrated book is the first to tell the full story of the part West Malling played in the defense of the United Kingdom and how it served the RAF for twenty eight action packed years Opened as a private landing ground after the First World War the airfield at West Malling became home to the Maidstone School of Flying in 1930 The airfield's RAF role came to the fore in June 1940 by then the station had been fitted with a concrete runway The first aircraft arrived on 8 June 1940 As the UK's first designated night fighter base over the years that followed RAF West Malling was home to many famous pilots men such as John Cunningham Peter Townsend Bob Braham and even Guy Gibson later of Dambusters fame During the summer of 1944 Mosquitoes Spitfires and Mustang Mk 3s successfully destroyed many V 1s as well as played their part in the D Day landings West Malling's strategic night fighter role continued into the Cold War when No 500 Kent's Own Squadron adopted it as its home in this period A US Navy Facility Flight was also based at the airfield in the 1960s After closure as an operational air station in 1969 West Malling re-acquired its civilian guise hosting a Gliding School Short Brothers and several major Great Warbirds Air Displays during the 1970s and 1980s until eventually closing completely as an airfield for re-development Air University Quarterly Review, 1954 How Strategic Airpower has Changed the World Order

Nigel David MacCartan-Ward, Anthony Wells, 2024-06-30 This work demonstrates how maritime deterrence strategy in a challenging world is critically underpinned by strategic air power at sea and on land In this book the history and utility of land and carrier based strategic airpower is brought to life by the gallant exploits and photographs of B 17 aircraft Quittin

Time and of its Navigator Fred Julian in the Second World War and by the unforgiving and unswerving dedication of Sharkey Ward and his Sea Harrier team in the Falklands war The overarching message is that the strategic airpower lessons of the past eight decades underpin the urgent need for the UK government to invest more wisely in its Fleet so that the latter may work effectively in conjunction with the US Navy on the global mission to deter those that would harm us and to maintain the freedom of passage of all shipping throughout the global commons The authors show how a maritime deterrence strategy in a challenging world is critically underpinned by strategic air power at sea and on land HRH The Duke of Kent Celia Lee, 2015-10-19 His Royal Highness Prince Edward The Duke of Kent KG GCMG GCVO ADC P first cousin to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has devoted his life to the service of his country Even before he served twenty one years as a regular soldier in the British Army he was introduced to this life of service by his widowed mother HRH Princess Marina The Duchess of Kent during an extensive tour of the Far East at the time of his seventeenth birthday His interest in modern technology especially computing and engineering in issues of health fitness and social welfare and in the development of the intellect has seen him become the patron president or active member of more than one hundred charities and social organisations His military service and deep interest in military history sees him making a particularly important contribution to many military related organisations the chief of which must be the Commonwealth War Graves Commission At the time of his eightieth birthday on October 9 2015 Prince Edward remains one of the busiest members of the royal family This book is offered as a tribute to his life of service and to the myriad organisations large and small local national and international that make up the fabric of the United Kingdom in the twenty first century RAF Wings over Florida Will Largent, 2020-08-01 From 1941 through 1945 British cadets in the Royal Air Force trained in the United States through the Lend Lease Act President Roosevelt's ingenious plan to help beleaguered Great Britain while maintaining the semblance of neutrality This book tells the saga of two Florida training fields during this turbulent time In their own words British pilots tell of their Florida experiences Many of them still in their late teens away from home for the first time pale and thin from years of rationing these young men encountered immense challenges and overwhelming generosity during their training in Florida Now retired these former pilots still smell the scent of orange blossoms when they glance through the log books they kept while flying their Stearmans and Harvards over Florida citrus groves They fondly remember the times when they buzzed over the homes of their Florida families to let them know to expect them for Sunday dinner More than fifty years later their stories still resonate with universal emotions fear of failure love of country camaraderie romantic love and the pain of tragic deaths Their stories also remind the American reader of a unique time in our history when poised on the brink of war the United States reached out to help a country in distress Tornado Over the Tigris Michael Napier, 2015-07-31 A Royal Air Force pilot recounts his service flying Tornados over Cold War era Germany and post Gulf War Iraq in this thrilling military memoir After achieving a boyhood ambition to qualify as an RAF pilot Michael Napier was posted to RAF Bruggen in Germany where he spent five years flying Tornado GR1s at the height of the Cold War Always exhilarating and often dangerous Michael Napier's Tornado flying ranged from routine low flying in continental Europe and the UK to air combat maneuvering in Sardinia and the ultra realistic Red Flag exercises in the United States From a struggling first tourist to a respected four ship leader Napier became an instructor at the Tactical Weapons Unit at RAF Chivenor He later returned to flying the Tornado at Bruggen as a Flight Commander shortly after the Gulf War flying a number of operational sorties over Iraq which included leading air strikes against Iraqi air defense installations as part of major Coalition operations With candor and vivid detail Napier offers an insider's look at one of the RAF's legendary now retired Tornado aircraft Air Corps News Letter, 1944

Bennett, 2011-04-28 This book examines and analyses the relationship between the RAF the Free French Movement and the French fighter pilots in WWII A highly significant subject this has been ignored by academics on both sides of the Channel This ground breaking study will fill a significant gap in the historiography of the War Bennett's painstaking research has unearthed primary source material in both Britain and France including Squadron records diaries oral histories and memoirs In the post war period the idea of French pilots serving with the RAF seemed anachronistic to both sides For the French nation the desire to draw a veil over the war years helped to obscure many aspects of the past and for the British the idea of French pilots did not accord with the myths of the Few to whom so much was owed Those French pilots who served had to make daring escapes Classed as deserters they risked court martial and execution if caught They would play a vital role on D Day and the battle for control of the skies which followed An Incurable Past Mériam N. World War II and explore how the tense Cold War political climate influenced the creation curriculum and results of various programs They also consider how educational programs are adapting to soldiers needs and the demands of modern warfare Featuring contributions from eminent scholars in the field this volume surveys the learning approaches globally employed by air forces in the past century and evaluates their effectiveness Educating Air Forces reveals how experiential learning and formal education are not only inextricably intertwined but also necessary to cope with advances in modern warfare

German Cinema - Terror and Trauma Thomas Elsaesser,2013-10-30 In German Cinema Terror and Trauma Since 1945 Thomas Elsaesser reevaluates the meaning of the Holocaust for postwar German films and culture while offering a reconsideration of trauma theory today Elsaesser argues that Germany s attempts at mastering the past can be seen as both a failure and an achievement making it appropriate to speak of an ongoing guilt management that includes not only Germany but Europe as a whole In a series of case studies which consider the work of Konrad Wolf Alexander Kluge Rainer Werner Fassbinder Herbert Achterbusch and Harun Farocki as well as films made in the new century Elsaesser tracks the different ways the Holocaust is present in German cinema from the 1950s onwards even when it is absent or referenced in oblique and hyperbolic ways Its most emphatically absent presence might turn out to be the compulsive afterlife of the Red Army Faction whose acts of terror in the 1970s were a response to as well as a reminder of Nazism s hold on the national imaginary Since the end of the Cold War and 9 11 the terms of the debate around terror and trauma have shifted also in Germany where generational memory now distributes the roles of historical agency and accountability differently Against the background of universalized victimhood a cinema of commemoration has if anything confirmed the violence that the past continues to exert on the present in the form of missed encounters retroactive incidents unintended slippages and uncanny parallels which Elsaesser reviving the full meaning of Freud s Fehlleistung calls the parapractic performativity of cultural memory Air Force Magazine ,2007-07
