Preludes Christine Downing,2005-05 These essays are clearly not about play as unseriousness not about fun and games a point that should be abundantly demonstrated by the reference to the death camps of the Holocaust They are about the space the Spielraum necessary for the wheel of life to turn soulfully Christine Downing s essays may be felt to function as a possible prelude to the play of a truly ludic imagination which like Buber s slow medicine quietly enters the soul working into the heart awakening a secret melody to be noticed only later

Preludes indeed David L Miller Author of Three Faces of God and Hells and Holy Ghosts

Kings of Disaster Simon Simonse,2023-11-27 This study of the rainmakers of the Nilotic Sudan means a breakthrough in anthropological thinking on African political systems Taking his inspiration from Rene Girard s theory of consensual scapegoating the author shows that the long standing distinction of states and stateless societies as two fundamentally different political types does not hold Centralized and segmentary systems only differ in the relative emphasis put on the victimary role of the king as compared with that of enemy victims Kings of Disaster so proposes an uninvolved solution to the vexed problem of regicide Recent cases occurring during the great drought of the mid 1980 s are described and analyzed Making simultaneous use of first hand field data and archival sources the book offers the first presentation of five Nilotic communities on the East Bank of the Nile This study offers a new perspective on the role of violence in the structuring of society

Dr. Oliver Akamnonu,Professor Ndu Eke,2009-11-30 A distinction is drawn between two very similarities based on the two types of characters that the same type of society produced Orie Puzo and Nmaku who hail from Angwa and the adjoining Ocha remained back in the village and made their lives almost permanently there rarely knowing what was going on in the outside world but being nonetheless greatly influenced by the latter Their daily chores are dictated by the daily basic necessities of the moment and they have little to worry perpetually about A lot of their life is controlled by the dictations and predictions of the traditional medicine man who occasionally misfires in his predictions which have no scientific basis supporting them His situation is often taken advantage of by the political class who have little or nothing to lose even if the polity collapses But Livinus on the other end of the spectrum emerges from the civil war and through a dint of luck and hard work studies hard and becomes a doctor He even proceeds overseas despite a close shave by arsonists He specializes and returns home to Akunwanta town from where he is again catapulted by fate and focus to become the governor of his state after a battle between titans eliminates the principal contestants He at first meant well and had the intention of helping to reform society Post election litigation and his lack of the economic leverage almost cost him his mandate But again fate plays a hard one on him and because of his lack of cash he gets tied up to the economic vampires of his society He is bailed out by a coalition of these vampires and narrowly reclaims his mandate only after colossal bribing of umpires who were least expected to soil their hands He decides never to go begging ever again and hence he delves headlong into the rot and decay not by his will but by the circumstances prevailing around him Heimatkunde Mairéad Nic Craith,Katerina

Strani,Alastair Mackie,2023-01-01 An integrative Heimatkunde defined as the holistic study of localities and regions has been a core interest in Ullrich aka Ulli Kockel's research since he first graduated with a double primary in 1984. Frequently described as an interdisciplinary and sometimes undisciplined academic, his research draws liberally on art, geography, human ecology, philosophical anthropology, political economy, and social anthropology, with its primary focus located in the field of Empirical Cultural Science. European ethnology. The contributions to this collection celebrate Ulli's explorations of place and belonging at different junctures on his quest for Heimatkunde. Laid out in four thematic sections: Borders, Regions, and Frontiers, Human Ecology, Creative Ethnology, and Memories, they feature creative work along with research essays. Given Ulli's love of cooking and food, we describe our offering as a feast script.

The Boundless Sea Gary Y. Okihiro, 2019-09-24. The last book in a trilogy of explorations on space and time from a preeminent scholar. The Boundless Sea is Gary Y. Okihiro's most innovative yet. Whereas Okihiro's previous books, Island World and Pineapple Culture, sought to deconstruct islands and continents, tropical and temperate zones, this book interrogates the assumed divides between space and time, memoir and history, and the historian and the writing of history. Okihiro uses himself, from Okinawan roots growing up on a sugar plantation in Hawai'i, researching in Botswana, and teaching in California, to reveal the historian's craft involving diverse methodologies and subject matters. Okihiro's imaginative narrative weaves back and forth through decades and across vast spatial and societal differences, theorized as historical formations, to critique history's conventions. Taking its title from a translation of the author's surname, The Boundless Sea is a deeply personal and reflective volume that challenges how we think about time and space, notions of history.

Nation, power and dissidence in third generation Nigerian poetry in English E. Egya, 2019-04-12. Nation Power and Dissidence in Third Generation Nigerian Poetry in English is a theoretical and analytical survey of the poetry that emerged in Nigeria in the 1980s. Hurt into poetry, the poets collectively raise aesthetics of resistance that dramatises the nationalist imagination, bridging the gap between poetry and politics in Nigeria. The emerging generation of poetic voices raises an outcry against the repressive military regimes of the 1980s and 1990s. Ingrained in the tradition of protest literature in Africa, the third generation poetry is presented here as part of the cultural struggles that unseat military despotism and envisage a democratic society.

Jungian Reflections on September 11 Luigi Zoja, Donald Williams. Seldom has an event in the world had such a pervasive and all-encompassing effect as the brutal terrorist attacks on New York and Washington in September 2001. Has our world become a different place as a result? If so, in what ways? Along with the tragic aspects, what might this global nightmare have to give us, the human inhabitants of this world? What is there for us to acknowledge, and what old and new wounds have been opened? Beyond the obvious scars, what sort of a legacy has it left behind? These big questions and many more face us now in the aftermath. In this book, the highly complex incident of 9/11 is circled and examined from many angles by a variety of writers who all share a training in depth psychology. What might a psychotherapist or depth psychologist perceive in this eruption of shocking contents? Contents: September 11, Transatlantic Reflections by Luigi Zoja, Islamic Terrorism by Wolfgang Giegerich, The Motivation of Terrorists by Adolf Guggenbuhl Craig.
