Rock My Soul Black People And Self Esteem:

Rock My Soul bell hooks, 2003-01-01 From the late feminist icon and New York Times bestselling author of All About Love an in depth look at one of the most critical issues facing Black Americans a collective wounded self esteem that has prevailed from slavery to the present day with a new introduction by Tressie McMillan Cottom author of Thick Why do so many Black Americans whether privileged or poor urban or suburban young or old live in a state of chronic anxiety fear and shame Rock My Soul Black People and Self Esteem breaks through collective denial and dares to imagine a more liberatory framework for understanding self and identity in a world where loss is commonplace With visionary insight hooks exposes the underlying reality that it has been difficult if not impossible for our nation to create a culture that promotes and sustains healthy self esteem Without self esteem people begin to lose their sense of agency They feel powerless But it is never too late for any of us to acquire the healthy self esteem that is needed for a fulfilling life While originally written in 2002 hooks insights into the heart and soul of the Black American identity crisis continue to ring true Through history pop culture criticism and hard won wisdom hooks writes about what it takes to heal the scars of the past promote and maintain self esteem and lay down the roots for a truly grounded sense of community and collectivity Moving beyond the ways historical racial justice movements have failed hooks also identifies diverse psychological barriers and collective traumas keeping us from well being In highlighting the roles of desegregation education the absence of progressive parenting spiritual crisis or fundamental breakdowns in communication between Black women and men bell hooks identifies mental health as a revolutionary frontier and provides guidance for healing within the Black community Rock My Soul Turnaround Publisher Services Limited, 2003-05-01 In her most challenging and provocative book to date esteemed feminist theorist and activist bell hooks offers a passionate examination of the role self esteem plays in the lives of black people determining the fine line between success and self sabotage Brilliantly identifying the shortcomings of historical movements for racial uplift hooks looks at parenting and how we make and sustain community and discusses the revolutionary role preventative mental health care can play in promoting and maintaining self esteem a major event Maya Angelou Rock My Soul bell hooks, 2004-01-06 Examines the endemic problem of low self esteem among African Americans and includes discussions on how this decreases their sense of meaning purpose and power and examines the barriers in society that prevent appropriate self esteem Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology James T. Murphy, Jr., 2012-08 An initial introduction to the study of Christian theology is both exciting and invigorating for students of its discipline One can become enameled in the classic perspectives of theology without any consideration of a possible alternative Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology is an exit from the classic conviction that trumpets the doctrine of soteriology attributing its substance to the posture of eternity while ignoring the importance of salvation in the existential Careful not to reject the question of eternal life but examining the nuances of the term salvation empowers this work to present the like manner essential that having salvation is just as much about now than it is in the here after      Guyana Diaries Kimberly D Nettles,2016-07-01 Guyana Diaries narrates the life histories of members of the Red Thread Development Corporation a group of women activists in the Caribbean Kimberly Nettles an African American researcher explores the impact of their work on these women s lives and in the process discovers differences of class and nation that overshadow the gender and race she shares with her subjects Blending feminist ethnography critical autobiography and literary narratives Nettles examines both the collective and her own experiences in studying its members producing an illuminating evocative work of self and other It should be of interest to those in race and ethnic studies gender studies Caribbean studies development studies and qualitative research

Shotgun Seamstress Osa Atoe,2022-11-29 A cut paste celebration of Black punk and outsider identity this is the only complete collection of the fanzine Shotgun Seamstress a legendary DIY project that centered the scope of Blackness outside of mainstream corporate consumerist identity In 2006 Osa Atoe was inspired to create an expression out of the experience of being the only Black kid at the punk show and Shotgun Seamstress was born Like a great mixtape where radical politics are never sidelined for an easier ride Shotgun Seamstress was a fanzine by and for Black punks that expressed represented and documented the fullest range of being and collectively and individually explored all of our possibilities instead of allowing the dominant culture to tell us what it means to be Black Laid out by hand and photocopied and distributed in small batches each issue featured essays interviews historical portraits of important artists and scenes reviews and more all paying tribute to musicians and artists that typify free Black expression and interrupt notions of Black culture as a monolith Featuring figures such as Vaginal Cream Davis the seminal Black punk band Death Poly Styrene Bay Area rocker Brontez Purnell British post punker Rachel Aggs New York photographer Alvin Baltrop Detroit garage rocker Mick Collins and so many others in the pages of this book rock n roll is reclaimed as Black music and a wide spectrum of gender and sexuality is represented Collecting and anthologizing the layouts as they were originally photocopied by hand this collection comprises all eight issues created between 2006 and 2015      Thriving in the Wake of Trauma Thema Bryant-Davis,2008-02-08 Thema Bryant Davis examines the cultural issues that health care professionals need to consider in caring for trauma survivors      The Handbook of Race and Adult Education Vanessa Sheared,Juanita Johnson-Bailey,Scipio A. J. Colin, III,Elizabeth Peterson,Stephen D. Brookfield,2010-05-24 The Handbook of Race and Adult Education While much attention has been given to inclusion diversity and multiculturalism within adult education The Handbook of Race and Adult Education is the first comprehensive work to engage in a dialogue specifically about race and racism and the effect these factors have on the marginalization or oppression of groups and individuals This landmark book provides the field of adult and continuing education with a model for the discussion of race and racism from social educational political and psychological perspectives and seeks to articulate a conceptual challenge to the ethnocentric focus of the discussion in the field It offers adult education scholars as well as those engaged in research and teaching about race an opportunity to engage in a discourse about race and racism including examinations of how these factors have been seen through multiple theoretical frameworks how they have affected many lived experiences at work home and within educational settings and how they have served to privilege some and not others The book offers an exploration into how these factors need to be centered in a discourse and perspective that can provide those in the margins as well as in the center with ways to think about creating changes in their classrooms communities and homes This volume is a timely addition to the intense racial debate occurring in this country today It is a long overdue medium through which those in higher education as well as the general adult education field can engage in a discussion that leads to critical understanding and moves us into meaningful change Doppelganger Naomi

Khan,2013-02-27 For most young people religion and religiosity is something latent or private activated by private events or the passing of years For Muslim young people it can be activated by an incessant Islamophobic discourse that requires fundamental questions of relationships and belonging to be addressed in the public gaze whilst being positioned as representatives and explainers of their religion and their communities Written by a leading practitioner and academic in the field of youth and community work this multidisciplinary book reflects the way theoretical the social and the religious impacts on the lives of Muslim young people      African American Girls and the Construction of Identity Sheila Walker,2020-07-07 In African American Girls and the Construction of Identity Sheila Walker closely examines socioeconomic class and explores the way it shapes how African American girls experience race and gender in the process of their identity formation While all the girls who participated in the two year study are African American their lives are racialized and gendered in significantly different ways in both public and private spaces Affluence is not a guaranteed protection against the identity damaging effects of racism and poverty is not necessarily a risk factor for an irresolute identity By examining identity through the lens of class Walker provides researchers educators and parents a more in depth appreciation of what is a very complex multi layered phenomenon      Depression in African American Clergy Wynnetta Wimberley,2016-10-31 In this book Wynnetta Wimberley addresses the often overlooked crisis of depression in African American clergy investigating the causes underlying this phenomenon while discussing possible productive paths forward Historically many African American pastors have had to assume multiple roles in order to meet the needs of congregants impacted by societal oppression Due to the monumental significance of the preacher in the African American religious tradition there exists a type of cultural sacramentalization of the Black preacher which sets clergy up for failure by fostering isolation highly internalized and external expectations and a loss of self awareness Utilizing Donald Winnicott s theory of the true and false self Wimberley examines how depression can emerge from this psycho socio theological conflict When pastors are depressed they are more prone to encounter difficulties in their personal and professional relationships Drawing from a communal contextual model of pastoral theology this text offers a therapeutically sensitive response to African American clergy suffering with depression      Battle Cries Hillary Potter,2008-11-01 Contrary to the stereotype of the strong Black woman African American women are more plagued by domestic violence than any other racial group in the United States In fact African American women experience intimate partner violence at a rate 35% higher than white women and about two and a half times more than women of other races and ethnicities This common portrayal can hinder black women seeking help and support simply because those on the outside don t think help is needed Yet as Hillary Potter argues in Battle Cries Black Women and Intimate Partner Abuse this stereotype often helps these African American women to resist and to verbally and physically retaliate against their abusers Thanks to this generalization Potter observes black women are less inclined to label themselves as victims and more inclined to fight back Battle Cries is an eye opening examination of African American women s experiences with intimate partner abuse the methods used to contend with abusive mates and the immediate and enduring consequences resulting from the maltreatment Based on intensive interviews with 40 African American women abused by their male partners Potter s analysis takes into account variations in their experiences based on socioeconomic class education level and age and discusses the common abuses and perceptions they share Combining her remarkable findings with black feminist thought and critical race theory Potter offers a unique and significant window through which we can better understand this understudied though rampant social problem

Voices of Feminist Liberation Emily Leah Silverman, Dirk von der Horst, Whitney Bauman, 2014-10-14 Voices of Feminist Liberation brings together a wide range of scholars to explore the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether one of the most influential feminist and liberation theologians of our time Ruether's extraordinary and ground breaking thinking has shaped debates across liberation theology feminism and eco feminism queer theology social justice and inter religious dialogue At the same time her commitment to practice and agency has influenced sites of local resistance around the world as well as on globalised strategies for ecological sustainability and justice Voices of Feminist Liberation examines the potential of Ruether's thinking to mobilize critical theology social theory and cultural practice The scholars gathered here present their personal engagements with Ruether's thinking and teaching The book will be invaluable to scholars policy makers and activists seeking to understand how colonial and patriarchal oppression in the name of religion can be confronted and defeated

Anti-Racist Teaching Robert P. Amico, 2015-12-03 Antiracist Teaching is about awakening students to their own humanity In order to teach about this awakening one must be in the process of awakening oneself The author shares personal anecdotes to illustrate the kinds of changes he experienced as a result of his antiracist teaching His book explores the questions Why is teaching about racism and white privilege to white students so difficult and What can educators do to become more effective antiracist teachers for all of their students Amico examines the cognitive and emotive obstacles that students experience in the classroom and argues that understanding these difficulties can lead to their resolution He considers a variety of different approaches to antiracist teaching and endorses a dialogic approach Dialogue is the centerpiece of students classroom experiences students engage in dialogue at nearly every class meeting The dialogic approach is effective in a variety of different learning settings from K 12 classrooms trainings retreats workshops and community organizations to the college classroom Further the book discusses how to bring antiracist teaching into the core of university curricula

Loving the Body D. Hopkins, 2004-12-09 In this book contributors argue that the Black Church must begin to address the significance of sexuality if it is to actually present liberation as a mode of existence that fully appreciates the body The contributors argue that we not only have to look at the Black Church in this discussion but also explore black Christianity in general

Being Human Dwight N. Hopkins, Dwight Hopkins whose important work in Black Theology has mediated class theological concerns through the prism of African American culture here offers a fresh take on theological anthropology Rather than defined the human as one eternal or inviolable essence however Hopkins looks to the multiple and conflicting notions of the human in contemporary thought and particularly three key variables culture self and race Hopkins critical reframing of these concepts firmly locates human endeavor development transcendence and liberation in the particular messiness of struggle and strife

as a social and political issue in the context of wider society critiquing the widely accepted pathologizing of trauma and violence in current discourse Rooted in critical social theory this insightful text reinvoles the critiques and analysis of the women s movement and the personal is political framing of trauma to unpack the mainstreaming of trauma discourse which has emerged today Accomplished contributors address the social construction of femininity and masculinity in relation to trauma and violence and advocate for a broader framing of trauma away from the constrained focus on pathologizing and diagnosing trauma individual psychologizing and therapy Instead the book offers a fresh and compelling look at how discursive resistance alternative feminist and narrative approaches to emotional distress and the mental health effects of violence can be developed alongside community based preventive political and policy based actions to create effective shifts in discourse practice policy and programming This is fascinating reading for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and academics in a broad range of fields of study including psychology social work gender and women s studies and sociology as well as for professionals including policy makers clinical psychologists and social workers

African Womanhood and Incontinent Bodies Kathomi Gatwiri, 2018-06-13 This book reveals the structures of poverty power patriarchy and imperialistic health policies that underpin what the World Health Organization calls the hidden disease of vaginal fistulas in Africa By employing critical feminist and post colonial perspectives it shows how leaking black female bodies are constructed ranked stratified and marginalised in global maternal health care and explains why women in Africa are at risk of developing vaginal fistulas and then having adequate treatment delayed or denied Drawing on face to face in depth interviews with 30 Kenyan women it paints a rare social portrait of the heartbreaking challenges for Kenyan women living with this most profound gender related health issue an experience of shame taboo and abjection with severe implications for women s wellbeing health and sexuality In absolutely groundbreaking depth this book shows why research on vaginal fistulas must incorporate feminist understandings of bodily experience to inform future practices and knowledge

Racism in Contemporary African American Children's and Young Adult Literature Suriyan Panlay, 2016-10-25 Applying critical race theory to contemporary African American children s and young adult literature this book explores one key racial issue that has been overlooked both in race studies and literary scholarship internalised racism By systematically examining the issue of internalised racism and its detrimental psychological effects particularly towards the young and vulnerable this book defamiliarises the very racial issue that otherwise has become normalised in American racial discourse reaffirming the relevance of race racism and racialisation in contemporary America Through readings of works by Jacqueline Woodson Sharon G Flake Tanita S Davis Sapphire Rosa Guy and Nikki Grimes Suriyan Panlay develops a new critical discourse on internalised racism by studying its effects on marginalised children its manifestations and the fictional narrative strategies that can be used to regain and reclaim a sense of self
