Rococo to Cubism in Art and Literature Wylie Sypher, 1960 Rococo to Cubism in Art and Literature Wylie Sypher, 1960 Rococo to Cubism in Art and Literature R. L. Oldfield, 1960 Rococo to Cubism in Art and Literature /by Wylie Sypher , 1960 The Visual Arts, Pictorialism, and the Novel Marianna Torgovnick, 2014-07-14 Marianna Torgovnick maintains that it is worthwhile to think about novels in terms of the visual arts in part because major novelists like James Lawrence and Woolf did so and did so fruitfully as they were influenced by their perceptions of artistic movements Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Imprint of the Picturesque on Nineteenth-Century British Fiction Alexander M. Ross, 2006-01-01 Despite the negative criticism directed at its sentiment its heartlessness its superficiality the picturesque remained in both art and fiction of Victorian England a mode of seeing that even the greatest of the artists and novelists relied upon from time to time so that their viewers and readers could rejoice in the instant recognition of place and character distinctly limned and sometimes subtly enough to elicit sympathy Preface After briefly tracing the development of the theory of the picturesque in the eighteenth century writings of William Gilpin Sir Uvedale Price and Richard Payne Knight and examining how nineteenth century novelists accommodated aesthetic theory to the practice of fiction Ross focuses on the use of the picturesque in the works of Sir Walter Scott Charlotte Bronte Charles Dickens George Eliot and Thomas Hardy The persistence of the picturesque through novels ranging from Waverley to Jude the Obscure and in writers like Dickens and Eliot who had little respect for its conventions attests to its strength and attraction in nineteenth century literature The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature

Teaching American Literature in Spanish Universities Carme Manuel Cuenca, 2002 Uno de los aspectos más valiosos de este libro es que comienza enlazando a través de los dos primeros artículos la educación universitaria con su nivel inmediatamente anterior la escuela de secundaria una conexión que a menudo se olvida con serios resultados para ambos En este sentido Benito Camacho Martín el autor de uno de los artículos realiza un análisis lúcido y en cierto modo dogmático sobre el declive de la enseñanza de literatura en las escuelas de secundaria tanto en horas dedicadas como en conocimientos adquiridos Los otros artículos algunos en inglés y otros en castellano tratan distintos aspectos de la enseñanza de literatura norteamericana con un énfasis manifiesto en materiales del siglo XX y sobre todo en la literatura afroamericana de hecho el libro resultará particularmente útil para los profesores de esto último

The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz, 2019-12-05 Décio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cinematic and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig's hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire

Wettlaufer, 2021-11-08 This comparative interdisciplinary study investigates the relationship between literature and the visual arts in France and Britain from 1750-1900 Through a close examination of the prose writings of Diderot Baudelaire and Ruskin read against the background of contemporary philosophy aesthetics and theories of language In the Mind's Eye proposes a new interpretation of the influence and rivalries underlying the development of art criticism as a genre during this period The visual impulse the desire to transcend the limitations of language and make the reader see is located within the historical traditions of ekphrasis enargeia and the paragone while in

explore the terra incognita of their own selves as to establish the identities of strange lands in the case of many English novelists between the great wars it was certainly true as Douglas Veitch remarks in the study I am introducing that their work even as it essayed the exotic cast an eye homeward and inward and that they roamed the world seeking surcease from a prevailing malaise which doubted the values of Western Civilization Mr Veitch has taken this vital element in the three novels The Plumed Serpent The Power and the Glory and Under The Volcano and has used it not merely to examine these works themselves but also to sketch out the ambivalent role which landscape plays in all fiction as omnipresent background but also as a rich source of symbols and images reflecting the human drama which a book develops He has as he more than once makes clear done more than read all the relevant literature he has himself travelled to Mexico in order to see and experience the extraordinary terrain and as I can vouch on the basis of my own knowledge of that infinitely attractive and repellent country he used his senses well while he was there from the Introduction by George Woodcock
