Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature, c. 1400-1750 Natasha Seaman, Joanna Woodall, 2025-10-01 Money Matters in European Artworks and Literature c 1400 1750 focuses on coins as material artefacts and agents of meaning in early modern arts The precious metals double sided form and emblematic character of coins had deep resonance in European culture and cultural encounters Coins embodied Europe's power and the labour increasingly located in colonised regions of extracting gold and silver Their efficacy depended on faith in their inherent value and the authority perceived to be imprinted into them guaranteed through the institution of the Mint Yet they could speak eloquently of illusion debasement and counterfeiting A substantial introduction precedes essays by interdisciplinary scholars on five themes power and authority in the Mint currency and the anxieties of global trade coins and persons coins in and out of circulation credit and risk An Afterword on a contemporary artist demonstrates the continuing expressive and symbolic power of numismatic forms

Pretty Dutch Ank Trumpie, Sarah Bosmans, 2007 Taking Shape Martina Droth, Penelope Curtis, 2009 This exhibition challenges the reasons why sculpture is usually considered alone in the gallery and the decorative arts are considered as part of a period setting It suggests that by breaking away from these conventional categories we can see how sculpture is also part of a spatial conversation and how furniture and fittings can be appreciated as unique works With five original essays and forty complete catalogue entries this publication both documents an exhibition and goes beyond it opening our eyes to the fluidity of formal language in the long eighteenth century and to the ways in which objects can change according to whether they are seen together or apart as mobile or fixed as two or three dimensional as ideal or as functional Book Jacket
