Gauguin's Intimate Journals Paul Gauguin, 1997-01-01 These journals are an illuminating self portrait of a unique personality They bring sharply into focus for me his goodness his humor his insurgent spirit his clarity of vision his inordinate hatred of hypocrisy and sham Emil Gauguin the artist's son in the Preface One of the great innovative figures in modern art Gauguin was a complex driven individual who in 1883 gave up his job as a stockbroker in order to be free to paint every day As time passed he determined to sacrifice everything for his artistic vocation Finally in pursuit of a place to paint natural men and women living lives unstained by the sham and hypocrisy of civilization he took up residence in the South Seas first in Tahiti and later in the Marquesas Islands Completed during the artist's final sojourn in the Marquesas these revealing journals reprinted from rare limited edition throw much light on the painter's inner life and his thoughts about a great many topics We learn of Gauguin's first stay in Paris in 1876 and his initial encounter with Impressionism his tumultuous relationship with van Gogh when they lived and painted together in Arles his pithy evaluations of Degas Cezanne Manet and other artists his opinion of art dealers and critics poor and much more Also here are illuminating glimpses of Gauguin's life in the islands his delight in the simple carefree lives of the natives and the physical charms of Polynesian women counterbalanced by his struggles with poverty hatred of the missionaries and despair over the failures of French colonial justice Witty wide ranging and aphoristic these writings are not only entertaining in themselves they are crucial for anyone seeking to understand Gauguin and his work The text is enhanced with 27 full page illustrations by Gauguin Dover 1997 unabridged republication of Paul Gauguin's Intimate Journals Boni and Liveright New York 1921
