Jacques De Caso, Patricia B. Sanders

Rodin The Hand Of Genius:

Rodin Hélène Pinet,1992 You were born for art All the hardships of poverty He is beyond all measure True greatness lies in simplification The fame that he achieved Documents Rodin Helene Pinet,1992 "Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen,2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789 1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster,Sylvain Bellenger,Patrick Shaw Cable,Cleveland Museum of Art,2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Aleister Crowley and Western Esotericism Henrik Bogdan,Martin P. Starr,2012-09-05 Henrik Bogdan and Martin P Starr offer the first comprehensive examination of one of the twentieth century's most distinctive occult iconoclasts Aleister Crowley 1875 1947 one of the most influential thinkers in contemporary western esotericism Camille Claudel Angelo Caranfa,1999 This book attempts to separate Camille's art from that of Rodin and to show its connections to the artistic and spiritual ideas of her brother the poet Paul Claudel Like her brother Camille communicates in her art the silence of things This silence however is not an inarticulate void a nothingness an unlimited potentiality as it is for Rodin but it is communicative actual originative and meaningful

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1901 The Touchstone Mary Fanton Roberts,1917 Rodin Muriel Ciolkowska,1912 The Studio ,1918 The wandering Jew. [Transl.]. Providing a comprehensive interdisciplinary assessment and with a particular focus on expressions of tension and anxiety about modernity this collection examines visual culture in nineteenth century Europe as it attempted to redefine itself in the face of social change and new technologies Contributing scholars from the fields of history art literature and the history of science investigate the role of visual representation and the dominance of the image by looking at changing ideas expressed in representations of science technology politics and culture in advertising art periodicals and novels They investigate how during the period new emphasis was placed on the visual with emerging forms of mass communication photography lithography newspapers advertising and cinema while older forms as varied as poetry the novel painting interior decoration and architecture became transformed The volume includes investigations into new innovations and scientific development such as the steam engine transportation and engineering the microscope spirit photography and the orrery as well as how this new technology is reproduced in illustrated periodicals The essays also look at more traditional forms of creative expression to show that the same concerns and anxieties about science technology and the changing perceptions of the natural world can be seen in the art of Armand Guillaumin Auguste Rodin Gustave Caillebotte and Camille Pissarro in colonial nineteenth century novels in design manuals in museums and in the decorations of domestic interior spaces Visions of the Industrial Age 1830 1914 offers a thorough exploration of both the nature of modernity and the nature of the visual

Bulletin of the Museum of Art Rhode Island School of Design. Museum of Art,1919 "Sculptors and Design Reform in France, 1848 to 1895 " Claire Jones,2017-07-05

Challenging distinctions between fine and decorative art this book begins with a critique of the Rodin scholarship to establish how the selective study of his oeuvre has limited our understanding of French nineteenth century sculpture The book s central argument is that we need to include the decorative in the study of sculpture in order to present a more accurate and comprehensive account of the practice and profession of sculpture in this period Drawing on new archival sources sculptors and objects this is the first sustained study of how and why French sculptors collaborated with state and private luxury goods manufacturers between 1848 and 1895 Organised chronologically the book identifies three historically situated frameworks through which sculptors attempted to validate themselves and their work in relation to industry industrial art decorative art and objet d art Detailed readings are offered of sculptors who operated within and outside the Salon including S n Ch t Carrier Belleuse and Rodin and of diverse objects and materials from S es vases to pewter plates by Desbois and furniture by Barbedienne and Carabin By contesting the false separation of art from industry Claire Jones's study restores the importance of the sculptor manufacturer relationship and of the decorative to the history of sculpture The Art Journal ,1900 Vol for 1867 includes Illustrated catalogue of the Paris Universal Exhibition The Cosmopolitan ,1911 Cosmopolitan ,1911 The Art of God Christopher Irvine,2005

Rodin's Sculpture Jacques De Caso,Patricia B. Sanders,1977 The Rodin collection left by Mrs Alma de Bretteville Spreckels to the California Palace of the Legion of Honor is the most salient and nearly the earliest example of America's admirable passion for an artist whose personality and works dominated the decades of 1880 to 1910 In an essay which follows this introduction Patricia B Sanders has chronicled the history of Mrs Spreckels collecting enterprise Her choice was remarkable Before Rodin's death in 1917 and over the following years until the 1940s she acquired first from Rodin and later from those nearest him bronzes plasters and marbles among them not only many of the most important Rodins but also many of the best The Spreckels collection is second only to the Musée Rodin in Paris as a center of Rodin art and sculptures

The Wandering Jew Eugène Sue,2013-08-01 Written in 1845 just 3 years before revolutions swept Europe The Wandering Jew is a classic French novel that became an international bestseller Originally serialized in a French newspaper the novel created an instant controversy with it
