Dynasties Intertwined Matt King, 2022-06-15 Dynasties Intertwined traces the turbulent relationship between the Zirids of Ifriqiya and the Normans of Sicily during the eleventh and twelfth centuries. In doing so it reveals the complex web of economic, political, cultural, and military connections that linked the two dynasties to each other and to other polities across the medieval Mediterranean. Furthermore, despite the contemporary interfaith holy wars happening around the Zirids and Normans, their relationship was never governed by an overarching ideology like jihad or crusade. Instead, both dynasties pursued policies that they thought would expand their power and wealth, either through collaboration or conflict. The relationship between the Zirids and Normans ultimately came to a violent end in the 1140s when a devastating drought crippled Ifriqiya. The Normans seized this opportunity to conquer lands across the Ifriqiyian coast, bringing an end to the Zirid dynasty and forming the Norman kingdom of Africa, which persisted until the Almohad conquest of Mahdia in 1160. Previous scholarship on medieval North Africa during the reign of the Zirids has depicted the region as one of instability and political anarchy that rendered local lords powerless in the face of foreign conquest. Matt King shows that to the contrary, the Zirids and other local lords in Ifriqiya were integral parts of the far-reaching political and economic networks across the Mediterranean. Despite the eventual collapse of the Zirid dynasty at the hands of the Normans, Dynasties Intertwined makes clear that its emirs were active and consequential Mediterranean players for much of the eleventh and twelfth centuries with political agency independent of their Christian neighbors across the Strait of Sicily. The Island of Avalon: Volume 2 Francis Lot, 2015-06-16 Much of the legendary material concerning King Arthur and Joseph of Arimathea's association with Glastonbury is derived from the interpolations into William of Malmesbury's investigation into the Antiquity of Glastonbury De Antiquitate Glastonie Ecclesie. However, it is William of Malmesbury's mention of the Island of Ineswitrin donated to Glastonbury in 601 AD by a king of Devon and this same island's association to the Isle of Ictis discovered by Pytheas from which tin was sold to the Phoenicians which links the island to Burgh Island in Devon. Melkin's prophecy indicates that Joseph of Arimathea is buried on Avalon. It is the geometric decryption of Melkin's prophecy which shows us that Joseph of Arimathea, known as a tin merchant in Cornish legend, is still buried on Burgh Island along with the enigmatic duo fassula.

Britannica James Louis Garvin, Franklin Henry Hooper, Warren Earle Cox, 1929 The Analysis of Motives Allan Gardner Smith, 2021-11-01 Who Killed Buster? Edward Bufala, 2009-01-23 If you are reading this now you have the book I have written in your hands If you choose to read this book you will actually be reading two stories both stories are true Remember that old cliché that the truth is sometimes stranger than fiction Well this just happens to be stranger than fiction You can't make this stuff up Part one of my story is about Buster's life And it was a rough start almost from day one which was November 2 1942 It was if he was angry from his very first day on this earth Starting with his eviction from 1 grade to his unsuccessful one day attendance at a Catholic school to his one year stay at Philadelphia Children's Hospital for Rheumatic Fever which left him with heart damage I'd say that was a rough start wouldn't you Some may have described Buster as an angry troubled young boy That couldn't be farther from the truth I decided later on that Buster wasn't angry at all He was just always trying to prove that he could be anything that he wanted to be The fact was that he knew what he wanted to be at a very young age he knew how he planned to get there and he was determined to achieve his goals at any cost and no one was going to stop him I talk about Buster's family and friends and how they may have influenced or had an impact on his life decisions which ultimately led to his untimely death on October 8th 1976 Part two of my book is the bizarre part of his story If you don't find part one interesting enough I suggest that you skip to part two I guarantee you'll find it more interesting There are several rumors as to why someone thought Buster had to die we just don't know which is true or if there could be another reason that we don't know about His young widowed wife Carol has spun many tales over the past years and truthfully we don't know what is true and what is a product of her imagination She has told us about who the killers are and how the killers themselves end up murdered She tells us how crooked the Las Vegas detectives investigating the murder are and how they try to implicate her own family This goes on for over 30 years and we still don't know the truth After reading this story you can decide for yourself what is true and what is not if you choose to The problem is unless you were there you will have the same problem that I have to this day I don't know why he had to die and I don't know who did it *The Way We Live Now ...
