Humanities and Sustainability from Glocal Perspectives Towards Future Earth Pankaj Kumar, Manish Kumar, Subhash Anand, Dinesh Kumar Tripathi, Naresh Kumar Verma, 2025-02-12 This book presents selected papers from the International Geographical Union IGU Thematic Conference 2022 which was held at the Central University of Haryana Mahendragarh India November 24 25 2022 The theme of the conference was Sustainability Future Earth and Humanities Opportunities and Challenges Focusing on the humanities the book shares advanced research and innovative approaches that illuminate significant discoveries concerning integrated glocal global local perspectives on sustainability The integration of humanities and glocal perspectives has become crucial to ensure a sustainable future for our planet To achieve a thriving future it is essential to bridge the gap between scientific knowledge and human values while acknowledging the interconnectedness of local and global dynamics The humanities contribute a distinct dimension to sustainability by offering cultural ethical and historical insights Glocal perspectives on the other hand underscore the interdependence of our planet's ecosystems and human societies They advocate for a dual focus on local contexts and global implications recognizing that environmental challenges such as climate change deforestation loss of biodiversity and pollution manifest differently in various regions due to diverse socio economic political and cultural factors The integration of the humanities and sustainability encourages a transformative shift towards more ethical and responsible behavior fostering a sense of stewardship for the environment The book includes a wide range of topics focusing extensively on the potential contributions of humanities towards the goal of long term sustainability The topics covered in this book encompass in depth analyses of various subjects such as environment and society social dynamics human development urban landscape dynamics rural urban inequality gender inequality gender environment relationships entrepreneurship public health COVID 19 management and its spatiotemporal aspects and geopolitics among others The book discusses both global and local perspectives on these important issues Consequently the knowledge and innovation presented in the book make a substantial academic contribution and facilitate to achieve sustainability both at local and global levels The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna,2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay Michael Ondaatje Lee Spinks,2013-07-19 Michael Ondaatje is the first comprehensive and fully up to date study of Ondaatje s entire oeuvre Starting from Ondaatje s beginnings as a poet this volume offers an intensive account of each of his major publications including The Collected Works of Billy the Kid Coming Through Slaughter In The Skin of a Lion and The English Patient drawing attention to the various contexts and intertexts that have informed his work The book contains a broad overview of Ondaatje s career for students and readers coming to his work for the first time It also offers an original reading of his writing which significantly revises conventional accounts of Ondaatje as a postmodern or postcolonial writer As the fullest account of Ondaatje s work to date Spinks s approach draws on a range of postcolonial theory and as well as being a landmark in Ondaatje scholarship makes a distinctive contribution to debates about postcolonial literature and the poetics of postmodernism Ragas from the Periphery Phinder Dulai,1995 A raga is a melodic composition in Indian classical music that imparts certain emotions Ragas From the Periphery is a collection that uses language as its instrument Phinder Dulai is first and foremost a South Asian writer and while issues of identity and cultural immersion are central to his work they are not all encompassing His poems are intimate landscapes in which themes of work family and community are always present Crossing cultures linguistically and metaphorically Ragas From the Periphery is an impressive debut collection David Malouf Don Randall,2013-07-19 Don Randall s comprehensive study situates Malouf within the field of contemporary international and postcolonial writing but without losing sight of the author s affiliation with Australian contexts The book presents an original reading of Malouf finding the unity of his work in the continuity of his ethical concerns for Malouf human lives find their value in transformations specifically in instances of self overcoming that encounters with difference or otherness provoke However the book is fully aware of and informed by the quite ample body of criticism on Malouf and thus provides readers with a broad based understanding of how Malouf s works have been received and assessed It is an effective companion volume for studies in postcolonial or Australian literature for any study project in which Malouf figures prominently LIFE AND WORK OF KAMALA MARKANDAYA AND SHASHI

DESHPANDE: A COMPARATIVE STUDY Sanjana Antil,2021-05-06 It is said that literature is a reflection of society the author as well as his her literature is the product of it It is also said that literature is the product of a given milieu and individual sensibility which constitute together a culture entity rooted in the changing traditional value system of people. The writer as a human being is a part and parcel of the society and so naturally he gets influenced by the atmosphere around him. Therefore the literature coming out through him becomes the manifestation of the cultural, social, spiritual and political scenario in the society. Kamala Markandaya is one of the leading women novelists of India. She has projected the theme of cultural clashes in different dimensions. She has produced several novels to her credit. Her novels find forceful expression of cultural clashes such as conflict between Tradition and modernity, clash between the rural and urban, East-West conflict and conflict between the two different attitudes of life from two diverse races. Kamala Markandaya has brought to the centre her protagonists who are invariably women and therefore conflicts raised by the novelist relate to women. All the characters in her novels experience troubles and turmoils in life but they rise above their desperation triumphantly because of their aspiration. It is a fact that Markandaya commands a wide reputation as a creator of readable novels; she has received a wide-ranging recognition and applause both in India and abroad. She has been a subject of serious discussion. But it is very surprising to note that an Indian woman novelist who has got a prominent position in India, writing in English, has not been able to draw the attention of critics and researchers to the extent she deserves. The articles in books and journals, by their very nature, remain confined to studying her novels as individual works. Book-length studies of Markandaya's novels are only a few. The proposed book will focus its attention on the conflict of nature in the novels of Kamala Markandaya through the discussion of the central characters. It will do its level best to fill in the gap and will attempt to study Markandaya's novels. Shashi Deshpande is one of the prominent writers who in the past two and a half decades established herself as a serious writer. She is undoubtedly an outstanding Indian English novelist who has boldly voiced the issues and sufferings of women in her works. She has projected this aspect of Indian women with more sensitivity and understanding as she was born and brought up in this soil. This work is to analyze about the works of Shashi Deshpande and sense her to be a Feminist or Humanist. The themes of sexuality and man-woman relationship initially introduced in her stories are discussed which became the subject of full-length novels. But they are found not merely the raw material for her novels. Her versatile treatment of women's issues reveals her sensitive nature as a woman writer and this quality affirms her works as an outstanding contribution to Indian literature in English, proving her to be a humanist.
