The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book, literature scholars and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books. Beginning with an analysis of the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide including Oprah's, the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre. Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society, literature and its marketing and popular culture. Contributors ask how readers discuss books, judge value and make choices. The collection addresses questions of authorship, authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre, including the postcolonial, exotic, disability and representations of the body, food, books and domesticity. In addition, book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview. Constitution Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, 1914 The Christian Endeavor Manual Francis Edward Clark, 1903 No More Fake Reading Berit Gordon, 2017-07-07 For middle and high school teachers, it's one of today's most vexing problems: How do you motivate students with varied interests and little appetite for classic literature to stop faking their way through texts and start advancing as skilled, engaged readers? Independent reading is an important part of the answer, but it's just that a part of the whole. In this groundbreaking book, Berit Gordon offers the complete solution: a blended model that combines the benefits of classic literature with the motivational power of choice reading. With the blended model, teachers lead close examinations of key passages from classic texts, guiding students to an understanding of important reading strategies they can transfer to their choice books. Teachers gain a platform for demonstrating the critical reading skills students so urgently require, and students thrive on reading what they want to read. In this research-backed book, Gordon leads you step by step to classroom success with the blended model, showing the basics of getting your classroom library up and running, how to build a blended curriculum for both fiction and non-fiction units, keeping relevant standards in mind, tips and resources to help with day to day planning, ideas for selecting class novel passages that provide essential cultural capital and bolster students' reading skills, strategies for bringing talk into your blended reading classroom, how to reach the crucial learning goal of transfer. A practical user friendly approach for assessing each student s progress No More Fake Reading gives you all the tools you need to put the blended model to work for your students and transform your classroom into a vibrant reading environment Berit Gordon coaches teachers as they nurture lifelong readers and writers Her path as an educator began in the classroom in the Dominican Republic before teaching in New York City public schools She also taught at the Teachers College of Columbia University in English Education She currently works as a literacy consultant in grades 3 12 and lives in Maplewood New Jersey with her husband and three children
