JAN KNAPPERT was born in Holland in 1927. He holds three degrees in Oriental Languages and has studied at London, Ghent, Pretoria and Makerere. His doctorate from Leiden is in Swahili Literature. Since 1964 he has been a lecturer at the School of Oriental and African Studies, London. His publications are numerous: among them his collection, Myths and Legends of the Swahili and A Choice of Flowers, an anthology of Swahili love poetry, appear in African Writers Series, and a major historical critical anthology, Four Centuries of Swahili Verse.

These stories are rich in variety. There are interesting comparisons to be made between the style of telling and of the contents between the ten tribes represented; the Bakongo, who gave the country and river its name, tell stories of the palm groves of the lower Congo, while the Alur of the north-east tell mystical stories of people and the Lake which will be familiar to other Luo people in Uganda and Kenya. Peoples in West Africa and Zambia will also find echoes among their own stories.
