Namibia Under South African Rule Mobility Containment 1915 46:

Namibia Under South African Rule Patricia Hayes, 1998 Tracing developments in Namibia from 1915 to 1946 this text explores the country as it was under South African rule Re-Viewing Resistance in Namibian History Jeremy Silvester, 2015-07-13 Re-Viewing Resistance in Namibian History brings together the work of experienced academics and a new wave of young Namibian historians architects of the past They are working on a range of public history and heritage projects from late nineteenth century resistance to the use of songs from the role of gender in SWAPO's camps to memorialisation and from international solidarity to aspects of the history of Kavango and Caprivi In a culturally and politically diverse democracy such as Namibia there are bound to be different perspectives on the past and history will be as plural as the history tellers The chapters in this book reflect this diversity and combine to create a remarkable collection of divergent voices providing alternative perspectives on the past The book writes forgotten people into history provides a reading of the past that reflects the tensions and competing identities that pervaded the struggle and deals with heritage that hurts A Symbol of a People's Determination. The Windhoek Old Location Henning Melber, 2025-10-01 The story of Windhoek's Old Location is one of African replacement and at the same time of creating home against all odds under the enforced restricted living conditions of Apartheid Being adjacent to the White centre of town urban planning replaced the Old Location with the newly established township Katutura in the late 1950s Many residents refused to be re located Escalating protest resulted in deadly clashes on 10th December 1959 when the colonial police opened fire on unarmed residents At least 13 were killed and more than 40 recorded as wounded After years of forced removal the Old Location was officially closed in 1968 This book contributes to a commemorative culture of a crucial place and space during a formative time in Namibia's history It offers a partial reconstruction of a social history of the Old Location Personal memories of former residents as far as they are accessible contrast the colonial archives The captivating photographs by the German photographer Dieter Hinrichs who documented social events and everyday life in the Location between 1959 and 1960 are essential Many are published here for the first time They speak louder than words Lyrical Nationalism in Post-Apartheid Namibia Wendi A. Haugh, 2014-06-25 When Namibia gained its independence from South Africa in 1990 the new government began dismantling the divisive apartheid state and building a unified nation state What does this new nation look like from the perspective of ordinary citizens In Lyrical Nationalism in Post Apartheid Namibia Wendi Haugh provides an ethnographic portrayal of the nation as imagined by people living in the former ethnic homeland of Ovamboland with a particular focus on the lyrics of songs composed and performed by Catholic youth The author argues that these youth draw on conflicting ideologies hierarchical and egalitarian nationalist and cosmopolitan from multiple sources to construct a multi faceted sense of national identity She reveals how their vision of the nation framed as neutrally national is deeply rooted in specific local histories and cultures The Oxford Handbook of Historical Ecology and Applied Archaeology

Christian Isendahl, Daryl Stump, 2019-01-10 The Oxford Handbook of Historical Ecology and Applied Archaeology presents theoretical discussions methodological outlines and case studies describing the field of overlap between historical ecology and the emerging sub discipline of applied archaeology to highlight how modern environments and landscapes have been shaped by humans Historical ecology is based on the recognition that humans are not only capable of modifying their environments but that all environments on earth have already been directly or indirectly modified This includes anthropogenic climate change widespread deforestations and species extinctions but also very local alterations the effects of which may last a few years or may have legacies lasting centuries or more With contributions from anthropologists archaeologists human geographers and historians this volume focuses not just on defining human impacts in the past but on the ways that understanding these changes can help inform contemporary practices and development policies Some chapters present examples of how ancient or current societies have modified their environments in sustainable ways while others highlight practices that had unintended long term consequences The possibilities of learning from these practices are discussed as is the potential of using the long history of human resource exploitation as a method for building or testing models of future change The volume offers overviews for students researchers and professionals with an interest in conservation or development projects who want to understand what practical insights can be drawn from history and who seek to apply their work to contemporary issues Administration and Taxation in Former Portuguese Africa Philip J.

Havik, Alexander Keese, Maciel Santos, 2015-06-18 This book addresses a notable gap in the knowledge of Portuguese colonial administration and the policies implemented in the main territories of its third African empire Angola Mozambique and Guinea In recent years the question of colonial taxation has become a topic in the academic debate on colonial empires and has led to a comparative long term focus on its impact in African societies Given that former Portuguese colonies in Africa have been largely absent from this debate this book
