Naming Things:

The Business of Naming Things Michael Coffey, 2014-12-22 Riveting vibrant and unsparing Publishers Weekly starred and boxed review Superb Startlingly original Library Journal starred review Once I started reading these stories I couldn't stop They absorbed me thoroughly with their taut narratives and evocative language the language of a poet JAY PARINI author of Jesus The Human Face of God and The Last Station Sherwood Anderson would recognize this world of lonely longing characters whose surface lives Coffey tenderly plumbs These beautiful stories spare rich wise and compelling go to the heart FREDERIC TUTEN author of Self Portraits Fictions and Tintin in the New World Whether Coffey is writing about a sinning priest or a man who's made a career out of branding or about himself we can smell Coffey's protagonists and feel their breath on our cheek Like Chekhov he must be a notebook writer how else to explain the strange quirks and the perfect but unaccountable details that animate these intimate portraits EDMUND WHITE author of Inside a Pearl and A Boy's Own Story Among these eight stories a fan of writer and fellow adoptee Harold Brodkey gains an audience with him at his life's end two pals take a Joycean sojourn a man whose business is naming things meets a woman who may not be what she seems and a father discovers his son is a suspect in an assassination attempt on the president In each tale Michael Coffey's exquisite attention to character underlies the brutally honest perspectives of his disenchanting fathers damaged sons and orphans left feeling perpetually disconnected Michael Coffey is the author of three books of poems and 27 Men Out a book about baseball's perfect games He also co-edited The Irish in America a book about Irish immigration to America which was a companion volume to a PBS documentary series He divides his time between Manhattan and Bolton Landing New York The Business of Naming Things is his first work of fiction Naming Things Massimo Verdicchio, 2000 Interplay of Things Anthony B. Pinn, 2021-09-20 Drawing on literature along with the visual and performing arts Anthony B Pinn theorizes religion as a technology for interrogating human experiences understanding the ways in which things are always involved in processes of exchange and interplay Nietzsche's Postmoralism Richard Schacht, 2001 This important collection of essays originally published in 2000 the year of the centenary of Nietzsche's death offers a full assessment of his contribution to philosophy and represents a helpful guide to the current landscape of Nietzsche studies In Beyond Good and Evil Nietzsche calls on new philosophers to carry on the process of reinterpretation and revaluation that will constitute the philosophy of the future This reconsideration will be pursued in what Nietzsche describes as a postmoral manner The nine prominent interpreters in this collection examine different aspects of this postmoral agenda and show how Nietzsche's efforts to reorient philosophical thinking are of great importance to the way we understand ourselves our values our concepts of virtue and our morality today Doing Things Right in Matters of the Heart John Ensor, 2007-04-04 There is a radical biblical alternative to much of what is taught and practiced today regarding relationships Doing Things Right in Matters of the Heart presents a bold plan for escaping the swift currents of contemporary patterns of hooking up shacking up and breaking up It draws a compelling vision of complementarity between the sexes It instructs men on what to do and informs women on what to look for in their mutual pursuit of a healthy tender long term relationship
