Nanjing 1937 A Love Story:

Nanjing 1937 Zhaoyan Ye, 2002 Centers on the life of Ding Wenyu a privileged womanizing narcissistic professor of languages and traces the course of the affair that transforms him from outlandish rake to devoted lover Jacket Nanjing 1937 Ye Zhaoyan, 2003 Ding Wenyu is a spoilt university professor in a sterile marriage caught in a cycle of drinking and debauchery He falls in love with Yuyuan and publicly professes his love for her to great ridicule from others As Japanese troops invade Nanjing Yuyuan's marriage crumbles and she turns to Ding A History of Pain Michael Berry, 2011 This work probes the restaging representation and reimagining of historical violence and atrocity in contemporary Chinese fiction film and popular culture It examines five historical moments including the Musha Incident 1930 and the February 28 Incident 1947 China at War Hans van de Ven, 2018-02-12 China's mid twentieth century wars pose extraordinary interpretive challenges The issue is not just that the Chinese fought for such a long time from the Marco Polo Bridge Incident of July 1937 until the close of the Korean War in 1953 across such vast territory As Hans van de Ven explains the greatest puzzles lie in understanding China's simultaneous external and internal wars Much is at stake politically in how this story is told Today in its official history and public commemorations the People's Republic asserts Chinese unity against Japan during World War II But this overwrites the era's stark divisions between Communists and Nationalists increasingly erasing the civil war from memory Van de Ven argues that the war with Japan the civil war and its aftermath were in fact of a piece a singular process of conflict and political change Reintegrating the Communist uprising with the Sino Japanese War he shows how the Communists took advantage of wartime to increase their appeal how fissures between the Nationalists and Communists affected anti Japanese resistance and how the fractious coalition fostered conditions for revolution In the process the Chinese invented an influential paradigm of war wherein the Clausewitzian model of total war between well defined interstate enemies gave way to murky campaigns of national liberation involving diverse domestic and outside belligerents This history disappears when the realities of China's mid century conflicts are stripped from public view China at War recovers them

Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2021-11-15 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2008-12-08

Through analyses of a wide range of Chinese literary and visual texts from the beginning of the twentieth century through the contemporary period the thirteen essays in this volume challenge the view that canonical and popular culture are self evident and diametrically opposed categories and instead argue that the two cultural sensibilities are inextricably bound up with one another An international line up of contributors present detailed analyses of literary works and other cultural products that have previously been neglected by scholars while also examining more familiar authors and works from provocative new angles The essays include investigations into the cultural industries and contexts that produce the canonical and popular the position of contemporary popular works at the interstices of nostalgia and amnesia and also the ways in which cultural texts are inflected with gendered and erotic sensibilities while at the same time also functioning as objects of desire in its own right As the only volume of its kind to cover the entire span of the 20th century and also to consider the interplay of popular and canonical literature in modern China with comparable rigor Rethinking Chinese Popular Culture is an important resource for students and scholars of Chinese literature and culture Mapping Modern Beijing Weijie Song, 2018

Mapping Modern Beijing investigates the five methods of representing Beijing a warped hometown a city of snapshots and manners an aesthetic city an imperial capital in comparative and cross cultural perspective and a displaced city on the Sinophone and diasporic postmemory by authors travelling across mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Sinophone and non Chinese communities The metamorphosis of Beijing s everyday spaces and the structural transformation of private and public emotions unfold Manchu writer Lao She s Beijing complex about a warped native city Zhang Henshui s popular snapshots of fleeting shocks and everlasting sorrows illustrate his affective mapping of urban transition and human manners in Republican Beijing Female poet and architect Lin Huiyin captures an aesthetic and picturesque city vis vis the political and ideological urban planning The imagined imperial capital constructed in bilingual transcultural and comparative works by Lin Yutang Princess Der Ling and Victor Segalen highlights the pleasures and pitfalls of collecting local knowledge and presenting Orientalist and Cosmopolitan visions In the shadow of World Wars and Cold War a multilayered displaced Beijing appears in the Sinophone postmemory by diasporic Beijing native Liang Shiqiu Taiwan sojourners Zhong Lihe and Lin Haiyin and migr martial arts novelist Jin Yong in Hong Kong Weijie Song situates Beijing in a larger context of modern Chinese language urban imaginations and charts the emotional topography of the city against the backdrop of the downfall of the Manchu Empire the rise of modern nation state the 1949 great divide and the formation of Cold War and globalizing world Drawing from literary canons to exotic narratives from modernist poetry to chivalric fantasy from popular culture to urban planning Song explores the complex nexus of urban spaces archives of emotions and literary topography of Beijing in its long journey from imperial capital to Republican city and to socialist metropolis A

Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2015-08-07 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship

Wronged by Empire Manjari Chatterjee Miller, 2013-08-21 Although India and China have very different experiences of colonialism they respond to that history in a similar way by treating it as a collective trauma As a result they have a strong sense of victimization that affects their foreign policy decisions even today Wronged by Empire breaks new ground by blending this historical phenomenon colonialism with mixed methods including archival research newspaper data mining and a new statistical method of content analysis to explain the foreign policy choices of India and China two countries that are continuously discussed but very rarely rigorously compared By reference to their colonial past Manjari Chatterjee Miller explains their puzzling behavior today More broadly she argues that the transformative historical experience of a large category of actors ex colonies who have previously been neglected in the study of international relations can be used as a method to categorize states in the international system In the process Miller offers a more inclusive way to analyze states than do traditional theories of international relations
