Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

The French Writers' War, 1940-1953 Gisèle Sapiro, 2014-04-23 The French Writers' War 1940-1953 is a remarkably thorough account of French writers and literary institutions from the beginning of the German Occupation through France's passage of amnesty laws in the early 1950s. To understand how the Occupation affected French literary production as a whole, Gisèle Sapiro uses Pierre Bourdieu's notion of the literary field. Sapiro surveyed the career trajectories and literary and political positions of 185 writers. She found that writers' stances in relation to the Vichy regime are best explained in terms of institutional and structural factors rather than ideology. Examining four major French literary institutions from the conservative French Academy to the Comité national des écrivains, a group formed in 1941 to resist the Occupation, she chronicles the institutions' histories before turning to the ways that they influenced writers' political positions. Sapiro shows how significant institutions and individuals within France's literary field exacerbated their loss of independence or found ways of resisting during the war and Occupation as well as how they were perceived after Liberation.

Entre l'Histoire et les histoires il y a les contes. Ceux de la mémoire collective. Ceux de la veille qui se dégustent en famille. Ceux qui ne sont pas réservés aux enfants mais ce qu'il reste d'enfance dans l'adulte. Avec la musique et les histoires les contes de Jean Coutarel ont constitué pendant quarante-cinq ans la matière de son récit, la gloire de la Provence. La version orale de ces contes s'est polie, peaufinée, perfectionnée au cours de centaines de représentations en public. En les racontant le tambourinaire les offre la perspective pour qu'ils continuent leur chemin. Ainsi va le conte passant de bouche en bouche toujours renouvelé. Bien ancré dans son terroir comme les vieux arbres aux racines profondes qui poussent haut leurs branches vers le ciel. C'est ce rôle de passeur de mémoire qui a incité Jean Coutarel vous confier ces textes inédits.
