Danto, 2007 Now in its third edition Narration and Knowledge is a classic work exploring the nature of historical knowledge and its reliance on narrative Analytical philosopher Arthur C Danto introduces the concept of narrative sentences in which an event is described with reference to later events for example the Thirty Years War began in 1618 and discusses why such sentences cannot be understood until the later event happens no one could have said in 1618 that the Thirty Years War began today Danto compares narrative and scientific explanation and explores the legitimacy of historical laws He also argues that history is an autonomous and humanist discipline incapable of being reduced to scientific descriptions Lydia Goehr's new introduction illustrates Danto's main arguments by questioning her very role first as an introducer of a book that has not yet been read by readers and second as an interpreter of a book written forty years ago Frank Ankersmit's conclusion revisits the initial impact of the publication of Narration and Knowledge and considers its enduring legacy therefore can be employed as a means of moral improvement McGregor applies this narrative ethics to the criminology of inhumanity including both crimes against humanity and terrorism Expanding on the methodology of narrative criminology he demonstrates that narrative representations can be employed to evaluate responsibility for inhumanity to understand the psychology of inhumanity and to undermine inhumanity and are thus a means to the end of opposing injustice He concludes that the cultivation of narrative sensibility is an important tool for both moral improvement and political justice The
