Narrative Discourse An Essay In Method:

Narrative Discourse Gérard Genette, 1980 Genette uses Proust's Remembrance of Things Past as a work to identify and name the basic constituents and techniques of narrative Genette illustrates the examples by referring to other literary works His systemic theory of narrative deals with the structure of fiction including fictional devices that go unnoticed and whose implications fulfill the Western narrative tradition Narrative Discourse Gérard Genette, 1987 Narrative Discourse Gérard Genette, 1980 Om litteratur fortællerteknik med udgangspunkt i Marcel Proust's P sporet efter den tabte tid

Narrative Discourse Gérard Genette, 1980-01 Deals particularly with Proust Narrative discourse : an essay in method, 1981 Paratexts Gérard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gérard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory Entangled Voices Frederick J. Ruf, 1997-01-02 In this book Ruf tries to understand how the concepts of voice and genre function in texts especially religious texts To this end he joins literary theorists in the discussion about narrative Ruf rejects the idea of genre as a fixed historical form that serves as a template for readers and writers instead he suggests that we imagine different genres whether narrative lyric or dramatic as the expression of different voices Each voice he asserts possesses different key qualities embodiment sociality contextuality and opacity in the dramatic voice intimacy limitation urgency in lyric and a magisterial quality of comprehensiveness and cohesiveness in narrative These voices are models for our selves composing an unruly and unstable multiplicity of selves Ruf applies his theory of voice and genre to five texts Dineson's Out of Africa Donne's Holy Sonnets Primo Levi's The Periodic Table Robert Wilson's Einstein on the Beach and Coleridge's Biographia Literaria Through these literary works he discerns the detailed ways in which a text constructs a voice and in the process a self More importantly Ruf demonstrates that this process is a religious one fulfilling the function that religions traditionally assume that of defining the self and its world Truth, Beauty, and Goodness in Biblical Narratives Krzysztof Sonek, 2009 The book proposes a hermeneutical theory which uses modern approaches to literary texts for the exegesis of biblical narratives This theory is then applied to the exegesis of Genesis 21:1-21 and involves the evaluation of the New Criticism rhetorical criticism structuralism and narrative analysis reader response criticism the historical critical method as well as deconstruction To satisfy the postulate of pluralism in interpretation the theory draws upon a variety of ancient and modern sources such as Aristotle T S Eliot Hans Urs von Balthasar and Paul Ricoeur The Lyotard Reader and Guide Jean-François Lyotard, 2006

The Lyotard Reader and Guide is a one stop companion to Lyotard's thought It covers the full range of his works from his three main books Discours figure Libidinal Economy and The Differend and up to his influential essays in The Inhuman and Postmodern Fables The readings are organized into sections on philosophy politics art and literature Several have never before been translated into English Detailed introductions to each section by two leading Lyotard scholars explain the philosopher's key ideas and provide crucial social political aesthetic and philosophical context As a sourcebook and guide this is the most up to date and comprehensive volume on Lyotard It is indispensable to students and scholars in philosophy literature the arts and politics A Theory of Narrative Drawing Simon Grennan, 2017-06-29 This book offers an original new conception of visual story telling proposing that drawing depictive drawing and narrative drawing are produced in an encompassing dialogic system of embodied social behavior It refigures the existing descriptions of visual story telling that pause with theorizations of perception and the articulation of form The book identifies and examines key issues in the field including the relationships between vision visualization and imagination the theoretical remediation of linguistic and narratological concepts the systematization of discourse the production of the subject idea and institution and the significance of resources of the body in depiction representation and narrative It then tests this new conception in practice two original visual demonstrations clarify the particular dialectic relationships between subjects and media in an examination of drawing style and genre social consensus and self conscious constraint The book's originality derives from its clear articulation of a wide range of sources in proposing a conception of narrative drawing and the extrapolation of this new conception in two new visual demonstrations
