Narrative Taste and Social Perspectives George H. Szanto, 1987-06-18 Narrative Taste and Social Perspectives George H. Szanto, 1987 Popular culture and working-class taste in Britain, 1930-39 Robert James, 2013-07-19 This book examines the relationship between class and culture in 1930s Britain Focusing on the reading and cinema going tastes of the working classes Robert James landmark study combines rigorous historical analysis with a close textual reading of visual and written sources to appraise the role of popular leisure in this fascinating decade Drawing on a wealth of original research this lively and accessible book adds immeasurably to our knowledge of working class leisure pursuits in this contentious period It is a key intervention in the field providing both an imaginative approach to the subject and an abundance of new material to analyse thus making it an undergraduate and postgraduate must have It will be a particularly welcome addition for anyone interested in the fields of cultural and social history as well as film cultural and literary studies Genre and Hollywood Steve Neale, 2005-06-20 Genre and Hollywood provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of genre In this important new book Steve Neale discusses all the major concepts theories and accounts of Hollywood and genre as well as the key genres which theorists have written about from horror to the Western He also puts forward new arguments about the importance of genre in understanding Hollywood cinema Neale takes issue with much genre criticism and genre theory which has provided only a partial and misleading account of Hollywood s output He calls for broader and more flexible conceptions of genre and genres for more attention to be paid to the discourses and practices of Hollywood itself for the nature and range of Hollywood s films to be looked at in more detail and for any assessment of the social and cultural significance of Hollywood s genres to take account of industrial factors In detailed revisionist accounts of two major genres film noir and melodrama Neale argues that genre remains an important and productive means of thinking about both New and old Hollywood its history its audiences and its films The Condesa of M. George Szanto, 2005-01-01 The Condesa of M is a plot twisting tale within a tale that explores Mexico s darker religious underworld Second Sight George Szanto, 2004-01-01 Second Sight is both a compelling mystery and a powerful work of literary fiction that exposes the realms of Mexican wealth and politics Whatever Lola Wants George H. Szanto, 2014 Ted tells stories Perched high on a cloud he peers down at the Earth and the mortals who inhabit it listening to their memories Lola once a famous Hollywood bombshell now a god listens to his stories Ted s words capture her heart just as she captured the hearts of her fans Down below three families experience joy tragedy hope and loss Milton and Theresa are activists conservationists parents lovers fighters Cochran is a self styled ecological leader haunted by sadness and fear And Carney is a disaster recovery specialist who can quench an oil platform fire but finds love hard to hold on to Through their attractions and battles their futures become bound as Cochran s vision for a new utopia a massive construction project threaten to rupture everything This is a story about stories those we tell others and those that fill us up It is also about the stories we tell ourselves and the ways they make us who we are admired artists depised monsters adored immortals From cover The Action and Adventure Cinema Yvonne Tasker,2004-08-19 This exciting collection addresses action and adventure from the silent to the contemporary period exploring diverse questions of aesthetics industry and ideology Action has established itself as one of the leading commercial genres of the New Hollywood cinema generating extensive debate in the process Contributors consider how action might best be defined how it has developed historically and how it works formally The critical reception and standing of action and adventure cinema is considered in relation to questions of national culture violence and the art of cinema Themes explored include genre and definitions early action sensation and melodrama authorship and action national and transnational action adventure traditions action aesthetics spectacle and narrative stars and bodies class gender race and ethnicity Attempting to evaluate the significance of this type of filmmaking for both popular cinema and film studies the book underlines the central place of action and adventure within film history The Underside of Stones George Szanto,2004-01-01 In the first book of Szanto s trilogy a Canadian lives a year in a Mexican village and finds his life and beliefs progressively subverted and reconstituted American Culture and the Media Anne Cassebaum,Rosemary Haskell,1997 The book is based on the author s belief that reading and writing skills are best taught together and in the context of high interest subject matter In section I the mass media form a familiar and reassuring yet rich and complex subject for exploration and analysis Section II the rhetoric and brief handbook gives advice and information for students to use as they work on their papers Fifty thematically unified high interest readings in section I Pref
