Narratives Of Enlightenment Cosmopolitan History From Voltaire To Gibbon:

Narratives of Enlightenment Karen O'Brien, 1997-06-05 Narratives of Enlightenment is an interdisciplinary study of cosmopolitan approaches to the past. It reappraises the work of five of the most important narrative historians of the century: Voltaire, David Hume, William Robertson, Edward Gibbon, and the historian of the American Revolution David Ramsay, in the context of political and national debates in France, Scotland, England, and America, and it investigates the nature and degree of their intellectual investment in the idea of a common European civilisation. Karen O'Brien combines the methodologies of literary criticism and intellectual history to explore debates about Enlightenments and the political uses of narrative. Where previous studies have emphasised the growth of nationalism in eighteenth-century literature, she reveals the development of cosmopolitan ways of thinking beyond national cultural issues.

The Lost History of Cosmopolitanism Leigh T.I. Penman, 2020-11-26 The Lost History of Cosmopolitanism challenges our most basic assumptions about the history of an ideal at the heart of modernity. Beginning in antiquity and continuing through to today, Leigh T.I. Penman examines how European thinkers have understood words like kosmopolites, cosmopolite, cosmopolitan, and its cognates. The debates over their meanings show that there has never been a single stable cosmopolitan concept but rather a range of concepts, sacred and secular, inclusive and exclusive, all described with the cosmopolitan vocabulary. While most scholarly attention in the history of cosmopolitanism has focussed on Greek and Roman antiquity or the Enlightenments of the 18th century, this book shows that the crucial period in the evolution of modern cosmopolitanism was early modernity. Between 1500 and 1800, philosophers, theologians, cartographers, jurists, politicians, alchemists, and heretics all used this vocabulary, shedding ancient associations and adding new ones at will. The chaos of discourses prompted thinkers to reflect on the nature of the cosmopolitan ideal and to conceive of an abstract cosmopolitanism for the first time. This meticulously researched book provides the first intellectual history of an overlooked period in the evolution of a core ideal. As such, The Lost History of Cosmopolitanism is an essential work for anyone seeking a contextualised understanding of cosmopolitanism today.

Macaulay and the Enlightenment Nathaniel Wolloch, 2022 A new intellectual biography of Thomas Babington Macaulay showing how nineteenth-century British liberal culture retained and transformed the ideas of the Enlightenment in a rapidly changing world. Macaulay and the Enlightenment sheds new light on both familiar and unfamiliar aspects of the life and ideas of this most famous of nineteenth-century British historians. Thomas Babington Macaulay (1800-1859) was a prominent representative of mainstream British liberalism in the first half of the nineteenth century He was also a Member of Parliament and government minister and famously spent several years as a member of the governing council in India where he promoted legal and educational reforms One of the book's key contributions is the investigation of Enlightenment influences on the more well known aspects of Macaulay's thought history politics social and economic issues religion revolution and colonialism The book also offers new revelations about Macaulay's attitude towards women and provides insight into his views on art nature and animals In this study Macaulay emerges as a more subversive at times even radical figure than previously assumed The book thus emphasizes the transformation of Enlightenment ideas into early nineteenth century liberalism Publisher description Ideas for the Philosophy of the History of Mankind Johann Gottfried Herder, 2024-02-27 One of the most important works of the Enlightenment in the first new unabridged English translation in more than two centuries Published in four volumes between 1784 and 1791 Herder's Ideas for the Philosophy of the History of Mankind is one of the most important works of the Enlightenment a bold original and encyclopedic synthesis of and contribution to the era's philosophical debates over nature history culture and the very meaning of human experience This is the first new unabridged English translation of the Ideas in more than two centuries Gregory Martin Moore's lively modern English text extensive introduction and commentary bring this neglected masterpiece back to life The Ideas which engages with many of the leading thinkers of the eighteenth century such as Montesquieu Kant Gibbon Ferguson Buffon and Rousseau is many things at once an inquiry into the unity and purpose of history a reflection on human nature and the place of humans in the cosmic order an examination of what was beginning to be called culture and a narrative of cultural progress across time among different peoples Along the way Herder considers a dizzying variety of topics including the formation of the earth and solar system species change race the immortality of the soul the establishment of society and the pursuit of happiness Above all the Ideas is an anthropology what Alexander Pope had termed an essay on man pervaded by an appropriately humane spirit A fresh and much needed modern translation of the complete Ideas this volume reintroduces English readers to a classic of Enlightenment thought Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of Nature Avihu Zakai, 2010-07-22 Rationalism, Pluralism, and Freedom Jacob T. Levy, 2015 This book offers an original account of the history of liberal thought one grounded in an institutional history of medieval pluralism and the early modern rationalizing state and explores the deep tensions that liberal political thought rests upon Tensions of Social History Alessandro Stanziani, 2022-12-15 This book seeks to overcome the tension between western and non western categories and tools in the study of global history showing how most western approaches to the social sciences and history have developed through transnational and colonial interactions Offering a transnational and global history of the main tools we have to understand the world and its transformations over the last three centuries Tensions of Social History explores the construction of archives and historical memory the making of statistics and their use in politics the identification of social actors and the emergence of key social theories Providing key insights into how to write history and develop social sciences in the global era while avoiding eurocentrism and cultural exceptionalism this ambitious book shows how global history is made of encounters rather than confrontations between civilizations Travel, Travel Writing, and British Political Economy Brian P. Cooper, 2021-11-10 The book draws on the history of economics literary theory and the history of science to explore how European travelers like Alexander von Humboldt and their readers circa 1750 1850 adapted the work of British political economists such as Adam Smith to help organize their observations and in turn how political economists used travelers observations in their own analyses Cooper examines journals letters books art and critical reviews to cast in sharp relief questions raised about political economy by contemporaries over the status of facts and evidence whether its principles admitted of universal application and the determination of wealth value and happiness in different societies Travelers citing T R Malthus s population principle blurred the gendered boundaries between domestic economy and British political economy as embodied in the idealized subjects domestic woman and economic man The book opens new realms in the histories of science in its analyses of debates about gender in social scientific observation Maria Edgeworth Maria Graham and Harriet Martineau observe a role associated with women and methodically interpret what they observe an act reserved in theory by men Cities and the Grand Tour Rosemary Sweet, 2012-10-04 A fascinating study of how British travellers experienced described and represented the cities they visited on the Grand Tour
