Narratives Of Transmission:

Narratives of Transmission Bernard Duyfhuizen, 1992 By examining the various narrational filters through which a story must pass Narratives of Transmission Bernard Duyfhuizen, 1992 By examining the various narrational filters through which a story must pass Narratives of Transmission uncovers the interpretively rich problematics of narrative textuality Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource Story and Discourse Seymour Chatman, 2019-06-30 For the specialist in the study of narrative structure this is a solid and very perceptive exploration of the issues salient to the telling of a story whatever the medium Chatman whose approach here is at once dualist and structuralist divides his subject into the what of the narrative Story and the way Discourse Chatman's command of his material is impressive Library Journal Vicarious Narratives Jeanne M. Britton, 2019 Studies the experiences of sympathy that literary characters share with each other and argues that between 1750 and 1850 key works of British and French fiction generated a specific version of sympathy by manipulating traditional narrative forms and new publication practices in response to the Enlightenment Double Narratives in the Old Testament Aulikki Nahkola, 2011-11-21 A study of the importance of variant forms of Old Testament narratives in prompting the development of the criticism of the Bible The recognition of the recurrence of stories in variant forms in the Old Testament has been seminal to the birth and development of biblical criticism The author assesses the role of the double narrative phenomenon in the evolution of Old Testament methodology from its earliest documentary theories to its most recent literary ones with the help of current literary folklore and textual studies Orphan Narratives Valérie Loichot, 2007 In Orphan Narratives Valérie Loichot investigates the fiction and poetry of four writers who emerged from the postslavery plantation world of the Americas William Faulkner USA Édouard Glissant Martinique Toni Morrison USA and Saint John Perse Guadeloupe to show how these descendants from slaves and from slaveholders wrote both in relation and in resistance to the violence of plantation slavery She uses the term orphan narrative to capture the ways in which this violence severed the child the text and history from a traceable origin Black or white male or female Antillean or American these writers share a common inheritance and transnational connection through which their texts maintain familial temporal and narrative patterns without having any central authority figure The author specifically cites Saint John Perse's Loges 1911 Faulkner's Light in August 1932 Morrison

s Song of Solomon 1977 and Glissant s La Case du commandeur 1981 as postslavery texts Where the actual family is dismembered these narrative accounts invent new familial links Reciprocally biological family ties endure despite the literal and discursive violence inflicted upon them Breaking new ground in trans American studies by juxtaposing texts from the francophone Lesser Antilles and the U S South Orphan Narratives will be a valuable addition to Caribbean American and postcolonial studies not to mention its appeal to scholars and students of Faulkner Glissant Morrison and Saint John Perse

Discursive Processes of Intergenerational Transmission of Recent History M. Achugar, 2016-04-12 Debates about how to remember politically contested or painful pasts exist throughout the world As with the case of the Holocaust in Europe and Apartheid in South Africa South American countries are struggling with the legacy of state terrorism left by the 1970s dictatorships Coming to terms with the past entails understanding the role different social actors played in those events as well as what those event mean for us today Young people in these situations have to learn about painful historical events over which there is no national consensus This book explores discursive processes of intergenerational transmission of recent history through the case of the Uruguayan dictatorship The main themes of the book are the discursive construction of social memory and intergenerational transmission of contested pasts through recontextualization resemiotization and intertextuality Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story Bettina Jansen, 2018-08-16 Narratives of Community in the Black British Short Story offers the first systematic study of black British short story writing tracing its development from the 1950s to the present with a particular focus on contemporary short stories by Hanif Kureishi Jackie Kay Suhayl Saadi Zadie Smith and Hari Kunzru By combining a postcolonial framework of analysis with Jean Luc Nancy s deconstructive philosophy of community the book charts key tendencies in black British short fiction and explores how black British writers use the short story form to combat deeply entrenched notions of community and experiment with non essentialist alternatives across differences of ethnicity culture religion and nationality Handbook of Narratology Peter Hühn, Jan Christoph Meister, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2014-10-10 This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in narratology and is now available in a second completely revised and expanded edition Detailed individual studies by internationally renowned narratologists elucidate central terms of narratology present a critical account of the major research positions and their historical development and indicate directions for future research
