Natural Man A Record From Borneo:

Natural Man: a Record from Borneo, Etc. [With Plates, Including a Portrait, and a Map.]. Charles Hose, 1926 Natural Man Charles Hose, 1926 Natural Man Charles Hose, 1977-06-01 Natural Man. A Record from Borneo ... With Illustrations and a Map, Etc Charles HOSE, 1926 Natural Man; a Record from Borneo. With a Preface by Professor G. Elliot Smith Charles Hose, The Kayans Richard Ibuh, 2014 The Kayan culture is one that is rich with cultural diversity and it is important to appreciate and preserve it for future generations The Kayan people are categorized as part of the Dayak communities of Borneo and this book focuses on the Sarawak tribe with special reference to the Kayan Uma Pu clan In addition to learning about the Kayans through an assortment of beautiful pictures you will learn about tribal customs beliefs and more Get insights on how Kayans expanded their living area over time communication occurs even without an alphabet villagers resolve household and community disputes beliefs and omens play a critical role in their society The Kayans have survived so long because they cooperate and stick together even though they are scattered over a large area While they have often been displaced they will enjoy a much brighter future if the world seeks to understand their culture heritage and accomplishments Nature's Geography Karl S. Zimmerer, Kenneth R. Young, 1998 Developing countries in Africa Asia and Latin America are increasingly influenced by human induced environmental changes It is crucial that sustainable development be based on insights into these expanding processes conservation as well as deterioration Nature's Geography offers a new perspective on the geographical nature of these changes The book reveals how human environment relations must be understood at multiple scales and time frames Editors Karl S Zimmerer and Kenneth R Young have forged an exciting group of case studies from distinguished geographers focusing on high mountains tropical forests and lowlands as well as humid and arid semiarid landscapes Each chapter analyzes the implications for meshing environmental protection and sound resource use with development The case studies evaluate three topics spatial habitat fragmentation and forest dynamics disturbances in mountain ecosystems and the major activities of settled areas chiefly farming livestock raising and forestry Included are analyses of interactions involving wildlife such as primates and wild pandas assessment of fire impacts and road building long term forest management as well as recent techniques and the role of environmental variation and ecosystem properties in agriculture and rangeland Nature's Geography demonstrates the vital importance of advancing a new approach to geography This definitive study of landscape change and environmental dynamics will have wide appeal for those interested in geography ecology environmental studies conservation biology and development studies Museum Development and Cultural Representation Jonathan Sweet, Meghan Kelly, 2018-09-19 Museum Development and Cultural Representation critically examines the development of a museum and cultural heritage centre in the indigenous Kelabit Highlands in Sarawak Malaysia Building on their direct involvement in the development of the project the authors appraise the process in retrospect through a thematic analysis Themes covered include the project's local and international contexts

community involvement and agency the balance of tourism and authenticity and the role of non local partners Through their analysis the authors unpack the complexities of cultural representation and identity in heritage design practice and investigates the relationship between capacity building and agency in cultural heritage management Situating the project within international trends in museology Museum Development and Cultural Representation offers a valuable case example of a heritage making process in an indigenous community It will be of interest to scholars and students studying cultural representation as well as communities and museum professionals looking to develop similar projects The Statesman's Year-Book S.
