Murphy, 1995-02-01 The book first establishes a theoretical framework for conceptualizing environmental analysis It then develops a conception of environmental literature with an emphasis on works by women arguing for the need to reconceptualize woman nature and nature culture associations and critiquing the problems of male poetic sex typing of the planet Murphy also elaborates on specific works and authors with an emphasis on literary texts by Hampl Harjo Snyder and Le Guin Additionally he treats issues of canon and pedagogy as well as the possibility of agency in a postmodern era Ranging across diverse fields and incorporating cultural studies post structuralist literary theory and ecofeminist philosophy Literature Nature and Other both defines and critiques the current terrains of literary ecocriticism and nature writing environmental literature Literary examples are drawn from fiction poetry and prose including postmodern metanarratives and works by Native Americans and Chicanas Tropical Nature, and Other Essays Alfred Russel Wallace, 2016-05-25 This early work by Alfred Russel Wallace was originally published in 1878 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography Tropical Nature and Other Essays is a collection of essays including Wallace's observations on equatorial vegetation animal life and sexual Alfred Russel Wallace was born on 8th January 1823 in the village of Llanbadoc in Monmouthshire Wales Wallace was inspired by the travelling naturalists of the day and decided to begin his exploration career collecting specimens in the Amazon rainforest He explored the Rio Negra for four years making notes on the peoples and languages he encountered as well as the geography flora and fauna While travelling Wallace refined his thoughts about evolution and in 1858 he outlined his theory of natural selection in an article he sent to Charles Darwin Wallace made a huge contribution to the natural sciences and he will continue to be remembered as one of the key figures in the development of evolutionary theory

Joseph Butler: Fifteen Sermons and other writings on ethics David McNaughton, 2017-02-10 Joseph Butler's Fifteen Sermons 1729 is a classic work of moral philosophy which remains widely influential The topics Butler discusses include the role of conscience in human nature self love and egoism compassion resentment and forgiveness and love of our neighbour and of God The text of the enlarged and corrected second edition is here presented together with a selection of Butler's other ethical writings A Dissertation of the Nature of Virtue A Sermon Preached Before the House of Lords and relevant extracts from his correspondence with Samuel Clarke While this is a readers edition that avoids cluttering Butler's text with textual variants and intrusive footnotes it comes complete with scholarly apparatus intended to aid the reader in studying Butler's work in depth. David McNaughton contributes a substantial historical and philosophical introduction that highlights the continuing importance of these works. In addition, there are extensive notes at the end of the volume including significant textual variants and full details of Butler's sources and references as well as short summaries of Butler's predecessors and a selective bibliography. This will be the definitive resource for anyone interested in Butler's moral philosophy.

John Muir: Nature Writings (LOA #92) John Muir, 1997-04-22 Known as the Father of the National Parks, John Muir wrote about the American West with unmatched passion and eloquence as seen in this stunning one-volume collection. In a lifetime of exploration, writing, and passionate political activism, John Muir became America's most eloquent spokesman for the mystery and majesty of the wilderness. A crucial figure in the creation of our national parks system and a far-seeing prophet of environmental awareness who founded the Sierra Club in 1892, he was also a master of natural description who evoked with unique power and intimacy the untrammelled landscapes of the American West. Nature Writings collects Muir's most significant and best-loved works in a single volume, including The Story of My Boyhood and Youth (1913), My First Summer in the Sierra (1911), The Mountains of California (1894), and Stickeen (1909). Rounding out the volume is a rich selection of essays including Yosemite Glaciers, God's First Temples, Snow Storm on Mount Shasta, The American Forests, and Save the Redwoods, that highlight various aspects of his career, his exploration of the Grand Canyon and of what became Yosemite and Yellowstone national parks, his successful crusades to preserve the wilderness, his early walking tour to Florida and the Alaska journey of 1879. LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing. The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date, authoritative editions that average 1,000 pages in length, feature cloth covers, sewn bindings, and ribbon markers, and are printed on premium acid-free paper that will last for centuries.

Marxism and Human Nature Sean Sayers, Nature Writing Don Scheese, 2002 First published in 2003, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. Women Writing Nature Barbara

Cook,2007-12-14 Since Silent Spring was published in 1962 the number of texts about the natural world written by women has grown exponentially The essays in Women Writing Nature A Feminist View argue that women writing in the 20th century are utilizing the historical connection of women and the natural world in diverse ways For centuries women have been associated with nature but many feminists have sought to distance themselves from the natural world because of dominant cultural representations which reflect women as controlled by powerful natural forces and confined to domestic spaces However in the spirit of Rachel Carson some writers have begun to invoke nature for feminist purposes or have used nature as an agent of resistance This collection considers women's writings about the natural world in light of recent and current feminist and ecofeminist theory and finds a variety of approaches and perspectives both by the scholars and by the authors discussed culminating with the voices of two women activist and scientist Joan Maloof and Irish poet Rosemarie Rowley who both write about the natural world from a feminist perspective

The Poetical Works and Other Writings of John

Keats John Keats,1883 Making Nature Whole William R. Jordan,George M. Lubick,2011-07-26 Making Nature Whole is a seminal volume that presents an in depth history of the field of ecological restoration as it has developed in the United States over the last three decades The authors draw from both published and unpublished sources including archival materials and oral histories from early practitioners to explore the development of the field and its importance to environmental management as well as to the larger environmental movement and our understanding of the world Considering antecedents as varied as monastic gardens the Scientific Revolution and the emerging nature awareness of nineteenth century Romantics and Transcendentalists Jordan and Lubick offer unique insight into the field's philosophical and theoretical underpinnings They examine specifically the more recent history including the story of those who first attempted to recreate natural ecosystems early in the 20th century as well as those who over the past few decades have realized the value of this approach not only as a critical element in conservation but also as a context for negotiating the ever changing relationship between humans and the natural environment Making Nature Whole is a landmark contribution providing context and history regarding a distinctive form of land management and giving readers a fascinating overview of the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding where ecological restoration came from or where it might be going

Ecological Footprints in Literature: An Excursion into Selected Nature Writings and Nature Novels Dr. Archana R. Kadiyan,2022-08-22 The book provides a comprehensive view of the environmental discourses that are found in the literary representations of the natural world The book presents an in depth analysis of the symbolic manifestations of the outer world in various genres of literature such as nature novels and nature or ecological writings It deeply captures the mutual interactions that occur between the human and the non human world that tend to influence each other's actions and processes By exploring the ecocritical leanings and tracing all the phases of Anthropocene the book takes its readers for a deep excursion into the beautiful dynamic natural and overtly spiritual world of Nature as exhibited in the writings such as

Thoreau's Walden Khushwant Singh's Nature Watch and Starhawk's The Earth Path which is contrasted against the eco-catastrophic world of Rachel Carson's Silent Spring An insightful and analytical journey into the world of more unique portrayals of the ecological world that tend to strike a balance between two distinct worlds the real and the imaginative the spiritual and the material as well as the natural and the man-made as reflected in the nature novels George Eliot's Mill on the Floss Khushwant Singh's I Shall not Hear the Nightingale Starhawk's Fifth Sacred Thing and Ernest Callenbach's Ecotopia A Novel The book thus with its underpinning wisdom will be an interesting and more enlightening read for the critics academicians and researchers

Autonomous Nature Carolyn Merchant, 2015-08-27 Autonomous Nature investigates the history of nature as an active often unruly force in tension with nature as a rational logical order from ancient times to the Scientific Revolution of the seventeenth century Along with subsequent advances in mechanics hydrodynamics thermodynamics and electromagnetism nature came to be perceived as an orderly rational physical world that could be engineered controlled and managed Autonomous Nature focuses on the history of unpredictability why it was a problem for the ancient world through the Scientific Revolution and why it is a problem for today The work is set in the context of vignettes about unpredictable events such as the eruption of Mt Vesuvius the Bubonic Plague the Lisbon Earthquake and efforts to understand and predict the weather and natural disasters This book is an ideal text for courses on the environment environmental history history of science or the philosophy of science

Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1907

The Return of Nature John Bellamy Foster, 2020-06-16 Winner 2020 Isaac and Tamara Deutscher Memorial Prize A fascinating reinterpretation of the radical and socialist origins of ecology Twenty years ago John Bellamy Foster's Marx's Ecology Materialism and Nature introduced a new understanding of Karl Marx's revolutionary ecological materialism More than simply a study of Marx it commenced an intellectual and social history encompassing thinkers from Epicurus to Darwin who developed materialist and ecological ideas Now with The Return of Nature Socialism and Ecology Foster continues this narrative In so doing he uncovers a long history of the efforts to unite questions of social justice and environmental sustainability and helps us comprehend and counter today's unprecedented planetary emergencies The Return of Nature begins with the deaths of Darwin 1882 and Marx 1883 and moves on until the rise of the ecological age in the 1960s and 1970s Foster explores how socialist analysts and materialist scientists of various stamps first in Britain then the United States from William Morris and Frederick Engels to Joseph Needham Rachel Carson and Stephen J Gould sought to develop a dialectical naturalism rooted in a critique of capitalism In the process he delivers a far reaching and fascinating reinterpretation of the radical and socialist origins of ecology Ultimately what this book asks for is nothing short of revolution a long ecological revolution aimed at making peace with the planet while meeting collective human needs
