

INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL SCIENCE

PHILOSOPHY OF LAW

Philosophy is a way of thinking that tends to be reflective and law in this case tends to be interpreted as a rule in human life. The term philosophy of law is a translation of the word philosophy of law according to Mochtar Kusumaatmadja, namely translating philosophy of law as the equivalent of the word philosophy of law rather than legal philosophy. with legal philosophy. This is based on the argument that law is not just statutes and law is not official matters.

According to Plato, philosophy is the science or teaching of reality or eternal reality while legal philosophy is the science or teaching of legal reality. Likewise with the opinion of Aristotle who said that philosophy is the science or teaching of truth by covering metaphysics, logic, rhetoric, ethics, economics, politics and aesthetics. Philosophy in the sense of Aristotle is also comprehensive and involves many connections with other branches of philosophy. According to Poedjawijatna, philosophy is the science of everything that investigates the deepest explanations or causes.

William Zevenbergen stated that philosophy of law is the philosophy imposed or applied to law. In other words, legal philosophy is a characteristic of thinking. Philosophy is applied to law, meaning that the legal process is a special philosophy, meaning that it is part of general philosophy. Gustav Radbruch defines legal philosophy as meaning three aspects, namely:

1. Aspects of justice, in the form of equal rights for all people before the court.

From Violence to Peace Alex

Deagon, 2017-08-24 This book contributes to the literature on jurisprudence and theology by arguing for the role of a theoretically robust Christian theology in a legal community dominated by secular and liberal ideology It is not a doctrinal or empirical analysis but a theoretical exposition of the way in which modern law has contingently drifted from its theological origins As a result the legal system and the ideal of individual and communal relationship it envisages is characterised by antagonism and alienation or more broadly violence The book contends that the way to restore a legal community of peace is to return to a Christian theology which is informed by Trinitarian thinking or the notion of unity in diversity and reunites faith with reason Returning reason to its ground in being allows peaceful persuasion by the revelation of God s perfect being through the Trinity and Incarnation which models and enables the peaceful coexistence of difference through self sacrificing love This in turn produces the law of love to love your neighbour as yourself Since love does no wrong to a neighbour a legal community operating by the law of love can fulfil the obligations of law by going beyond merely what is required by law and love individuals as part of a community China Law Review ,1929
