Nauman Palermo Schwarzkogler Spaces:

Spaces, 1994 Bruce Nauman Bruce Nauman, 2002-05-29 From the beginning I was trying to see if I could make art that did that Art that was just there all at once Like getting hit in the face with a baseball bat Or better yet like getting hit in the back of the neck You never see it coming it just knocks you down I like that idea very much the kind of intensity that doesn't give you any trace of whether you're going to like it or not Bruce Nauman Bruce Nauman's art is about heightened awareness awareness of spaces we usually don't notice the one under the chair out of which he made a sculpture and sounds we don't listen for the one in the coffin awareness of emotions we suppress or dread It's hard to feel indifferent to work like his Michael Kimmelman New York Times One of America's most important artists Bruce Nauman has worked in a dazzling variety of media since the mid 1960s sculpture photography performance installation sound holography film and video What has been a constant throughout his career however is his persistence in exploring both art as an investigation of the self and the power of language to define that self The latest volume in the acclaimed Art Performance series is the first book to combine the key critical writings on Nauman with the artist's own writings and interviews with him as well as images of his work Bruce Nauman offers a multifaceted portrait of an artist whose determination to experiment with style and form has created a body of work as eclectic and perhaps more influential than that of any other living American artist Elusive Signs Bruce Nauman, Joseph D. Ketner, Janet Kraynak, Gregory Volk, 2006-03-03 Images of nearly all Bruce Nauman's signs and room installation using neon and fluorescent light from Window or Wall Sign 1967 to the monumental One Hundred Live and Die 1984 accompanied by interpretive essays Intrigued and inspired by the neon beer signs on shopfronts in his San Francisco neighborhood Bruce Nauman created his first neon piece Window or Wall Sign in 1967 He wanted he said to achieve an art that would kind of disappear that was supposed to not quite look like art Light offered Nauman a medium both elusive and effervescent but one that could also aggressively convey a message Over the first three decades of his career Nauman used the medium of light to explore the twists and turns of perception logic and meaning with the earnest playfulness that characterizes all his art Elusive Signs focuses on the discrete body of Nauman's work that uses neon and fluorescent light in signs and room installations and includes images of nearly all Nauman's work with light After Window or Wall Sign Nauman embarked on a series of neons that grappled with the semiotics of body and identity and with My Name as Though it Were Written on the Surface of the Moon 1968 he forces the viewer to contemplate the role of naming in forming identity Language signs and symbols plays an important role in Nauman's art His later neon works emphasize the neon as a sign presenting provocative twists of language and offering harsh and humorous sociopolitical commentary in such pieces as Run from Fear Fun from Rear 1972 This series culminates in the monumental billboard size One Hundred Live and Die 1984 which employs overwhelming scale to bombard the viewer with sardonic aphorisms In incisive essays that accompany the images of Nauman's work Joseph Ketner II of the Milwaukee Art Museum which originated the exhibit this book accompanies and critics Janet Kraynak and Gregory Volk analyze the works in light both as a body of work and as an access point to Nauman's entire career Distributed for the Milwaukee Art Museum Being & Time Albright-Knox Art Gallery, 1996

New Art Examiner, 1993 The independent voice of the visual arts Elective Affinities Denise Wendel-Poray, 2018
How can different portraits be connected How can they communicate with each other Which positions reinforce each other in their attraction And which contradict each other Curated by Denise Wendel Poray and Huber Klocker the exhibition Elective Affinities poses these questions through a selection of portraits by a group of innovative technically brilliant artists The title is borrowed from Goethe's 1809 novel which also features a series of portraits of individuals brought together through divergent forms of attraction The question of determinacy and choice in the artistic process is a compelling one that the exhibition at Sammlung Friedrichshof explores Featured artists Ellen Berkenblit Lea Draeger Sofia Goscinski Sandro Kopp Bjarne Melgaard Bjorn Melhus Jonathan Meese Otto Muehl Sabine Pigalle Iris Schomaker Spencer Sweeney Erwin Wurm Exhibition Sammlung Friedrichshof Zúrn Dorf Austria 06 05 25 11 2018 Art Now Gallery Guide, 1994-06 Flash Art, 1997 Chicago Tribune Index, 1994 Art, design, photo, 1973
