Navajo Talking Picture Randolph Lewis, 2012-07-01 Navajo Talking Picture released in 1985 is one of the earliest and most controversial works of Native cinema It is a documentary by Los Angeles filmmaker Arlene Bowman who travels to the Navajo reservation to record the traditional ways of her grandmother in order to understand her own cultural heritage For reasons that have often confused viewers the filmmaker persists despite her traditional grandmother's forceful objections to the apparent invasion of her privacy What emerges is a strange and thought provoking work that abruptly calls into question the issue of insider versus outsider and other assumptions that have obscured the complexities of Native art Randolph Lewis offers an insightful introduction and analysis of Navajo Talking Picture in which he shows that it is not simply the first Navajo produced film but also a path breaking work in the history of indigenous media in the United States Placing the film in a number of revealing contexts including the long history of Navajo people working in Hollywood the ethics of documentary filmmaking and the often problematic reception of Native art Lewis explores the tensions and mysteries hidden in this unsettling but fascinating film

Jacobo's Rainbow David Hirshberg, 2021-05-04 Winner National Indie Excellence Award 2021 Best Regional Fiction Southwest Finalist National Indie Excellence Award 2021 Literary Fiction Finalist National Indie Excellence Award 2021 Best Fiction Cover Design Winner Independent Press Award 2021 Literary Fiction Jacobo's Rainbow is an historical literary novel set primarily in the nineteen sixties during the convulsive period of the student protest movements and the Vietnam War. It focuses on the issue of being an outsider, the other, an altogether common circumstance that resonates with readers in today's America. Written from a Jewish perspective, it speaks to universal truths that affect us all. On the occasion of the 15th anniversary of a transformative event in Jacobo's life, the day he is sent to jail, he writes about what happened behind the scenes of the Free Speech Movement, which provides the backdrop for a riveting story centered on his emergence into a world he never could have imagined. His recording of those earlier events is the proximate cause of his being arrested. Jacobo is allowed to leave jail under the condition of being drafted, engages in gruesome fighting in Vietnam, and returns to continue his work of chronicling America in the throes of significant societal changes. Jacobo's Rainbow is a story of triumph over adversity, hypocrisy, loss, lies, murder, concealment, prejudice, that is told with vivid descriptions, perceptive insights, humor, and sensitivity, which enables the reader to identify with the characters who come to life in a realistic fashion to illustrate who we are, how we behave, and what causes us to change. It can be read on three levels: 1. The story of what it was like to have lived through and been a participant in the Free Speech Movement and the Vietnam War. The Sixties. 2. A metaphor for what is going on college campuses today in terms of the shutting down of speech and the rise of anti-Semitism. 3. What life is like for the outsider.

Desert Dreams Mary Elizabeth Burgess, 2014-04-29. Willy falls in love with Native life first through an Elderhostel program teaching Navajos how to read and write. Reluctantly, she returns home to visit her three children: Dusty, Stephanie, and Mike. Her pastor informs her of the need for teachers with a different tribe. There, she meets Jim and Alice, pastor and nurse, supportive and jolly workhorses like herself. Her grandson Kelly arrives to paint several Indians' portraits, which eventually sell well enough for him to open his own gallery. When Navajo men and women leave to help fight forest fires, perhaps it is foreordained that some of them will sacrifice their lives. Though he doesn't die, Billy, son of Miriam Whitehawk, who has already lost Blossoming Dove to an epidemic, is helped through painful burn treatments by Tess, a young Teach for America black woman whom he soon marries. Willy consoles Jim when Alice is killed in a snowstorm driving tiny Little Moon to a hospital for delivery of her baby. Natives cheering them on, especially Navajo Joe Willy and Jim, marry. They answer a call from their synod to go to the Cherokees in North Carolina, then the Shoshones in Wyoming, where Red Thunder aims to call tribal Nations together to heal Mother Earth, as he had previously done in Colorado at a convocation. Willy's expertise as a writer and public relations speaker helps Red Thunder and his wife Shelly of the Light call a convocation of many Nations at Ringing Rock in Pennsylvania. Reluctantly, Red Thunder agrees to hold the convocation on Independence Day, in spite of the fact that we're not independent because that date will draw larger crowds. Staying with Willy and Jim, Red Thunder and Shelly are drawn to fireworks at the town's football field that evening. After many months of no rain, on the way home, a shower cools them. Thank you, Great Eagle, Jesus, Buddha, and Mary. Red Thunder exalts. Indeed.
