Presence Of Transcendence Thinking Sacrament In A Postmodern Age:

The Presence of Transcendence Lieven Boeve, John Ries, 2001 In the postmodern age the question of the way in which we think sacrament has acquired particular prominence not least because it touches the core of all theology Sacrament cannot be reduced to metaphysical concepts It is instead enfleshment the incarnation of transcendence in a way that moves us in an unparalleled way The problem of sacramental presence and what it reveals about the Christian understanding of God the world and the believing subject is the subject of this volume The book is divided into four parts 1 Approaching Sacrament in a Postmodern Age Questions of Method 2 Yesterday Revisited Recovering the Past in the Face of the Challenges of the Postmodern Age 3 Today's Imperative Uncovering the Transformative Power of Sacrament in a Postmodern Age and 4 Tomorrow's Possibilities Discovering New Loci of Sacramental Presence in a Postmodern Age Sacramental Presence in a Postmodern Context Lieven Boeve, Lambert Leijssen, 2001 The second biannual congress of the Leuven Encounters in Systematic Theology LEST II Nov 3-6 1999 was dedicated to a fundamental theological reflection on the question of how to conceive of sacramental presence in a postmodern context This volume contains the main lectures presented at the conference as well as the formal responses to those lectures and a selection of supplementary papers These papers examine the Christian claim that God is present in human history in the light of the contemporary rethinking of the relationship between transcendence and immanence In addition to an extensive introductory paper by L Boeve contributions include among others M C Bingemer L M Chauvet G De Schrijver K Hart W Jeanrond F Kerr J Y Lacoste T Merrigan P Moyaert D Power I Verhack and G Ward Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-08-27 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the centre of Christian narrativity Conor Sweeney here explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto-theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism à la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishisation of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence The Scandal of Sacramentality Brannon Hancock, 2014-03-17 The sacrament par excellence the Eucharist has been upheld as the foundational sacrament of Christ's Body called Church yet it has confounded Christian thinking and practice throughout history Its symbolism points to the paradox of the incarnation death and resurrection of God in Jesus of Nazareth which St Paul describes as a stumbling block skandalon Yet the scandal of sacramentality not only illustrated by but enacted in the Eucharist has not been sufficiently accounted for in the ecclesiologies and sacramental theologies of the Christian tradition Despite what appears to be an increasingly post ecclesial world sacrament remains a persistent theme in contemporary culture often in places least expected Drawing upon the biblical image of the Word made flesh this interdisciplinary study examines the scandal of sacramentality along the twofold thematic of the scandal of language word and the scandal of the body flesh While sacred theology can think through this scandal only at significant risk to its own stability the fictional discourses of literature and the arts are free to explore this scandal in a manner that simultaneously augments and challenges traditional notions of sacrament and sacramentality and by extension what it means to describe the Church as a eucharistic community

Sacraments Philippe Bordeyne, Bruce T. Morrill, 2008 This volume is a first ever companion to the intellectually and pastorally stimulating work of Louis Marie Chauvet one of the most important systematic theologians of liturgy and sacraments in recent times In this trans Atlantic venture pairs of leading thinkers continue the development of sacramental liturgical theology along six lines of Chauvet's thought fundamental theology Scripture and sacrament ecclesiology liturgy and ethics theology and the social sciences and the theological anthropology of symbolism Embracing his constant attention to faith as actual practice in history these francophone and anglophone authors test numerous of Chauvet's insights in the face of new challenges for the church and world the ongoing mediation of the humanity of God revealed in the crucified and risen Christ Louis Marie Chauvet retired in 2008 from the faculty of theology at the Institut Catholique de Paris while continuing his work as pastor of Saint Leu la Foret in the Diocese of Pontoise just outside Paris He is author of Symbol and Sacrament A Sacramental Reinterpretation of Christian Existence and The Sacraments The Word of God at the Mercy of the Body both published by Liturgical Press Philippe Bordeyne is professor of theological ethics and dean of the faculty of theology at the Institut Catholique de Paris Bruce T Morrill SJ holds the Edward A Maloy Chair of Catholic Studies in the divinity school at Vanderbilt University where he is also Professor of Theological Studies In addition to numerous journal articles book chapters and reviews he has published several books most recently Encountering Christ in the Eucharist The Paschal Mystery in People Word and Sacrament Paulist Press 2012 His most recent book with Liturgical Press is Divine Worship and Human Healing Liturgical Theology at the Margins of Life and Death Pueblo Liturgical Press 2009

Fresh Expressions in the Sacramental Tradition Steven Croft, 2013-02-11 Mission Shaped Church the groundbreaking report published in 2004 has sold over 20 000 copies and has changed the way mission is done This title offers a resource for exploring and applying the insights from fresh style mission in the traditional wings of the church where various worship communities are being formed

Ecclesiology and Exclusion Dennis Michael Doyle, Timothy J. Furry, Pascal D. Bazzell, 2012 Ecclesiologists and other experts from around the world address various forms of exclusion in the Catholic Church These essays address the many forms of exclusion in churches around the world with a major focus on the Roman Catholic Church but also addressing exclusion in other churches Topics included are exclusion of marginal people exclusion and racial justice exclusion and gender exclusion and sacramental practices and exclusion and ecumenical reality Contributors include Paul Lakeland Gerard Mannion A E Orobator Bryan Massingale Phyllis Zagano Neil Ormerod Bradford Hinze Mary McClintock Fulkerson and Susan K Wood among others

Emmanuel Levinas' Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology Alain Mayama, 2010 Emmanuel Levinas Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology analyzes Levinas work in relation to two important liberation theologians Gustavo Guti rrez and Jon Sobrino whose scholarship like his needs to be brought into greater contemporary debate about the subject s encounter with the other More specifically this book argues that for Levinas Guti rrez and Sobrino commitment to the neighbor is the necessary context for understanding God They posit the human other as the possibility of the subject s subjectivity To be human is to act with love toward one s neighbor Thus the author articulates the possibility of reading Levinas philosophy as a revalidation of one of the truths of Christianity the concern for the humanity of every human person as expressed in Christian theology in general and liberation theology in particular In order to show the relevance of Levinas philosophy for Christian theology in general the author discusses three Christian scholars Enrique Dussel Jean Luc Marion and Michael Purcell Although they challenge some aspects of Levinas philosophy they nevertheless see its significance for Christian theological anthropology The discussion concludes by proposing Levinas philosophy and liberation theology s turn to the neighbor as significant for addressing contemporary socio political and ethnic conflicts in sub Saharan Africa

On the Side of the Angels Marie L. Baird, 2002 Contends that after the Holocaust spirituality requires that self transcendence be defined primarily as ethical responsibility Ch 4 pp 89 118 Ethical Responsibility and Holocaust Rescuers concludes that even though theories of rescue do not clearly establish an overt religious motivation many rescuers were influenced to act by a religious motivation based on ethical responsibility

Lyotard and Theology Lieven Boeve, 2014-04-24 Lieven Boeve contextualises Lyotard s writings and approach with reference to his theological thought By focusing on issues such as the nature of the differend within language the sublime experience and our inability to witness to the breakdowns of language and representation Lyotard s thought provokes theology to reconsider its own foundations Taking up issues such as a highly relevant critique of capitalism itself vital to today s understanding of Christian praxis in a global world Lyotard offers us a perspective by which to re evaluate Christianity beyond its being a hegemonic discourse as it moves toward being a discourse concerned with love Through exploring the Christian narrative as an open one Boeve aims to make use of new possibilities for theology through a renewed comprehension of Lyotard s significance for today

The Vision of Vatican II Ormond Rush, 2019-06-27 2020 Catholic Press Association first place award theology theological and philosophical studies This book is unique in the literature about Vatican II From the manifold issues debated at the council and formulated in its sixteen documents Ormond Rush proposes that the salient features of the vision of Vatican II can be captured in twenty four principles He concludes by proposing that these principles can function as criteria for assessing the reception of the conciliar vision over the last five decades and into the future There is no other book that attempts such a comprehensive synthesis of the council s vision for renewal and reform of the Catholic Church Metaphysics of Mystery Marijn de Jong,2020-02-06 How can we theologically reflect on universality in a world that increasingly focuses on particularities and differences Marijn de Jong argues that the question of universality calls for a reconceptualized form of metaphysical theology which he finds in the work of Karl Rahner and Edward Schillebeeckx Casting a new light on these theologians de Jong demonstrates that their methods contain a dialectical interrelation of hermeneutics and metaphysics an interrelation which seemingly has been lost in more recent hermeneutical theology Rahner and Schillebeeckx carefully balance particularity and universality without falling prey to relativist or absolutist ways of reasoning By analyzing fundamental themes such as experience and interpretation nature and grace faith and reason and intelligibility and mystery de Jong reveals the modest theological metaphysics that lies at the heart of their methods This critical retrieval demonstrates the enduring relevance of these thinkers and opens up new avenues of thought for theologians that do not want to shy away from the difficult question of the universality of God In Counterpoint Kristine Suna-Koro,2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another In this trailblazing volume Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D Sa S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology The Sacraments Joseph Martos,2009-08-01 What are the sacraments really For centuries the religious lives of Catholics and other Christians have revolved around church rituals with generally accepted individual and social effects What precisely are those effects and how are they produced Traditional theology used Greek philosophy to understand the sacraments and how they work But is there no other way to understand them In fact there are a number of ways and this book invites you to look at the sacraments through a variety of lenses psychology sociology anthropology history theology morality and spirituality As the introduction to this volume challenges If you read this book and especially if you engage in the interactive study to which it invites you your understanding of sacraments will be changed forever To help personalize your investigation the author has created a web site with thought provoking questions that encourage you to interact with the ideas being proposed in this volume To engage these topics more deeply see www TheSacraments org

Theology and Conversation Jacques Haers, P. De Mey, 2003 This collection of articles presents the main contributions to the third LEST Louvain Encounters in Systematic Theology conference held at the KU Leuven's Faculty of Theology November 2001 Its theme Theology and Conversation Towards a Relational Theology continues the explorations in contemporary theology as set out in the 1997 LEST I conference on The Myriad Christ BETL 152 and in the

1999 LEST II conference on Sacramental Presence in Postmodern Context BETL 160 In LEST III also the plurality and diversity of theological approaches play a major role and the question is raised whether the contemporary theological endeavour in a global world contains in itself the tools to respectfully and constructively approach this diversity The ideas of relation and conversation as found in the theologies of the Trinity and of creation as presupposed in ecclesial praxis and as articulated in reflections that take their bearings from spiritual experience provide a powerful means for renewed theological reflection capable of confronting plurality and diversity Being Holy in the World Nicholas J. Healy, D. C. Schindler, 2011 In Being holy in the world Nicholas Healy and D C Schindler presents the first book length study of David L Schindler s thought compiling essays by twelve scholars that examine Schindler s Trinitarian theology ecclesiology anthropology and metaphysics in the context of the encounter between Christianity and contemporary culture Page 4 of cover Religion and Human Rights Wilhelm Gräb, Lars Charbonnier, 2015-05-19 Current processes of globalization are challenging Human Rights and the attempts to institutionalize them in many ways The question of the connection between religion and human rights is a crucial point here The genealogy of the Human Rights is still a point of controversies in the academic discussion Nevertheless there is consensus that the Christian tradition especially the doctrine that each human being is an image of God played an important role within the emergence of the codification of the Human Rights in the period of enlightenment It is also obvious that the struggle against the politics of apartheid in South Africa was strongly supported by initiatives of churchy and other religious groups referring to the Human Rights Christian churches and other religious groups do still play an important role in the post apartheid South Africa They have a public voice concerning all the challenges with which the multiethnic and economically still deeply divided South African society is faced with The reflections on these questions in the collected lectures and essays of this volume derive from an academic discourse between German and South African scholars that took place within the German South African Year of Science 2012 13 Spiritual Capital Samuel D. Rima, 2017-07-05 Presenting a thorough comprehensive theory of spiritual capital based on solid academic research Spiritual Capital serves to reinforce and amplify the notion of a moral economic core that is beginning to feature in contemporary economic arguments In this rare major work wholly dedicated to the subject of spiritual capital Sam Rima explains the desperate need for revolutionary and transformational thinking in the area of economic policy and practice and makes the case for a new moral foundation to business and economics that directly addresses today s financial and business crisis Writing in an accessible style and drawing on examples from several continents Rima explains spiritual capital theory in terms of the resources needed for its creation how it is formed how it can be invested and what the return on investment can be The book provides practical tools for measuring a personal or organizational store of spiritual capital along with clear guidelines on how to engage in spiritual capital formation These will benefit business leaders interested in developing viable and sustainable enterprises capable of avoiding the disconnection between economic policy and social reality There are also recommendations here for policy makers regarding the macro application of spiritual capital theory This important contribution to Gower s Transformation and Innovation Series will appeal to business leaders and policy makers academicians and students in the fields of sociology theology and economics and anyone interested in social and economic justice issues social innovation and corporate social responsibility
