Presentations Of Gender:

Presentations of Gender Robert J. Stoller, 1985 Gender Revolution Pamela Aronson, Matthew R. Fleming, 2023-10-12 Gender Revolution carefully examines the profound transformations happening in both public and private arenas of gender relations. It also draws critical attention to the simultaneous and potent challenges that have risen in response. The authors look to large scale phenomena in this contemporary study and address how electoral politics and the MeToo movement are reshaping everyday life. This gender revolution has led to a culture in which women and increasing numbers of men refuse to accept traditional gender norms and gender inequalities. People of all genders no longer tolerate abuses of power in politics or in their interpersonal relationships. Despite vigorous resistance, women are seizing power and refusing to back down in ways both large and small. The authors note on the one hand that people of all genders in support of these transformations are voting for progressive candidates, engaging on social media, and making their interpersonal relationships more equal. On the other hand, they document considerable backlash and contestation as some people are resisting these changes and creating adversarial gender divisions. Probing across these issues, the book develops an analysis of gendered social and cultural change that reveals how movement ideas diffuse into broader culture. Gender Revolution presents a vibrant and essential study for a moment marked by significant changes to attitudes, beliefs, and views surrounding gender and gender relations, and will appeal to readers interested in the scholarly study of gender, society, politics, media, law, and culture.

Gender Visibility and Erasure Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, 2022-08-15 Gender Visibility and Erasure offers a unique way of focusing on gender by identifying the multiple contexts in which issues of visibility, invisibility, and erasure manifest, considering who is seen and who is ignored, who has voice and who is silenced, who has agency and who is controlled.

Transgender History & Geography: Crossdressing in Context Bolich, Ph. D. G. G. Bolich, 2007-09-28 The third in a landmark five volume study of transgender realities with a focus on crossdressing, this fascinating volume offers a tour through history and around the world. Within these pages are found the most famous crossdressers of history and information as to what it means to be a transgender person in the various countries of the world today.

Invisible Families Mignon Moore, 2011-07-30 Mignon Moore's title says it all. Invisible Families Scholarship on lesbian and gay issues has been slow to recognize the importance of children and family among those in same sex relationships, and has paid scant attention to racial minorities. Nor have students of African American life given much attention to Black lesbians and gay men. We are left with the unfortunate impression to paraphrase the authors of But Some of Us Are Brave that all the lesbians and gays are White and all the Blacks are heterosexual. This book stands as a significant corrective to these multiple myopias, offering a nuanced account of the kinds of pressures Black women raising children with female partners encounter and revealing the creativity and resilience they bring to the struggle. Ellen Lewin, University of Iowa, author of Gay Fatherhood: Narratives of Family and Citizenship in America. Invisible Families shakes up longstanding theoretical conceptualizations of racial identity family formation and motherhood contesting basic assumptions about black families Tightly conceptualized and highly engaging Kerry Ann Rockquemore author of Raising Biracial Children The Presentation Skills Workshop Sherron Bienvenu,2000 This workshop supplies all the hands on instruction and practical tools needed to design and lead effective training sessions It supplies many tools such as lesson plans overheads learning exercises worksheets and examples

Self-(re)presentation now Nancy Thumim,2020-05-18 Questions of presentation and representation of individuals groups and communities have become key sites of struggle as evidenced by the battles in both physical and digital spaces battles which have also thrown the roles of digital affordances systems industries and structures into relief This book shows that questions about the re presentation of the self in digital culture are now key to how the field of media and communication must engage with the political and demonstrates the wide range of scholarship focusing on presentation and representation of the self in recent times The contributors show that questions of self presentation and representation in digital culture are the focus of lively debate critique and investigation and that this is taking place from a number of theoretical perspectives and locations across the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of Popular Communication

Non-binary and Genderqueer Genders Motmans Joz,Timo Nieder,Walter Bouman,2020-07-15 Some people have a gender which is neither male nor female and may identify as both male and female at one time as different genders at different times as no gender at all or dispute the very idea of only two genders The most often heard umbrella terms for such genders are non binary or genderqueer genders This book looks to bring together those currently exploring and researching this non binary phenomenon Gender identities outside of the binary of female and male are increasingly being recognized in social legal medical and psychological discourses together with the emerging presence and advocacy of people who identify as non binary or genderqueer Population based studies show a small percentage but a sizable proportion in terms of numbers of people who identify as non binary While such genders have always been in existence worldwide they remain marginalized and as such at risk of victimization and of minority stress as a result of social non acceptance and discrimination Non binary and Genderqueer Genders explores these gender identities in relation to health well being and or other experiences in an effort to contribute to improving clinical standards and continued cultural change towards acceptance for this group of people This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Transgenderism renamed International Journal of Transgender Health in 2020 Textbook of Psychoanalysis, Third Edition Glen O. Gabbard, M.D.,Bonnie E. Litowitz, Ph.D.,Paul Williams, Ph.D.,2024-07-05

Pop Culture and Power Dawn H. Currie, Deirdre M. Kelly, 2022-03-01 Literacy education has historically characterized mass media as manipulative towards young people who as a result are in need of close reading skills By contrast Pop Culture and Power treats literacy as a dynamic practice shaped by its social and cultural context It develops a framework to analyse power in its various manifestations arguing that power works through popular culture not as everyday media Pop Culture and Power thus explores media engagement as an opportunity to promote social change Seeing pop culture as a teaching opportunity rather than as a threat Dawn H Currie and Deirdre M Kelly worked with K 12 educators to investigate how pop culture can support teaching for social justice Currie and Kelly began the research for this project with a teacher education seminar in media analysis where participants designed classroom activities using board games popular film music videos and advertisements These activities were later piloted in participants classrooms enabling the authors to identify and address practical issues encountered by student learners Case studies describe the design implementation and retrospective assessment of activities engaging learners in media analysis and production Following the case studies the authors consider how their approach can foster ethical practices when engaging in the digital environment Pop Culture and Power offers theoretically informed yet practical tools that can help educators prepare youth for engagement in our increasingly complex world of mediated meaning making

BOOK JACKET Designing Graphic Presentations from First Principles Michael Schiff,1998

Abstract This dissertation outlines a first principles approach to automatically designing graphic presentations of information The components of this approach include a conceptual framework for discussing how presentations encode information algorithms for determining whether a method of presentation will be capable of presenting a given type of information and design principles for ensuring the interpretability and perceptual effectiveness of a method of presentation Compared with previous approaches to automatically designing presentations the approach outlined in this dissertation is more fine grained and more general It begins with an extremely general notion of how graphic presentations can encode information then develops this into a useful framework by making a number of explicit assumptions about the types of presentations that people can use This framework serves as a basis for analyzing the space of possible graphical languages i e the space of systematic methods of presenting data The logical adequacy of different graphical languages for different types of information and criteria and methods for composing graphical languages for different data are also explored In addition to this logical emphasis this dissertation also emphasizes the influence of psychological issues on the design of presentations It explores factors influencing the interpretability of presentations i e how easily viewers will grasp how information is encoded and outlines some general design principles for creating interpretable presentations It also explores perceptual issues in presentation including perceptual organization dimensional structure of visual stimuli and the effectiveness of perceptual operations and outlines design principles for guaranteeing the perceptual effectiveness of presentations The last emphasis of this dissertation is on operationalizing the framework and principles i e on using them to create graphical languages in a relatively efficient manner The implementation AUTOGRAPH demonstrates the flexibility and viability of a first principles approach The Heart of Africa Simon Stewart,Karen Sliwa,Ana Mocumbi,Albertino Damasceno,Mpiko
