The Past, Present, and Future of the Business School Edward W. Miles,2016-09-30 This book examines the criticism that modern business schools face and how these obstacles have evolved throughout history Through historical resource and professional school contexts it sheds light on the operating environment of the business school and the challenges endemic to various university based professional schools exploring the likelihood that potential interventions will result in success or failure Business schools are often accused of inhibiting the practice of business by producing research that is irrelevant and does not address real concerns facing managers This book investigates these accusations by outlining the historical values on which academic institutions are based the resources and funding available today and comparisons to other professional schools which undergo a similar level of scrutiny This extensive coverage will help academics administrators faculty and policy makers with the tools to understand better the ill will towards business schools in today s university structure and ultimately to deliver on the benefits they provide to stakeholders

The Scandal of Continuity in Middle East Anthropology

Judith Scheele,Andrew Shryock,2019-09-12 Despite a rich history of ethnographic research in Middle Eastern societies the region is frequently portrayed as marginal to anthropology The contributors to this volume reject this view and show how the Middle East is in fact vital to the discipline and how Middle Eastern anthropologists have developed theoretical and methodological tools that address and challenge the region s political ethical and intellectual concerns The contributors to this volume are students of Paul Dresch an anthropologist known for his incisive work on Yemeni tribalism and customary law As they expand upon his ideas and insights these essays ask questions that have long preoccupied anthropologists such as how do place point of view and style combine to create viable bodies of knowledge how is scholarship shaped by the historical context in which it is located and why have duration and form become so problematic in the study of Middle Eastern societies Special attention is given to understanding local terms contested knowledge claims what remains unseen and unsaid in social life and to cultural patterns and practices that persist over long stretches of time seeming to predate and outlast events Ranging from Morocco to India these essays offer critical but sensitive approaches to cultural difference and the distinctiveness of the anthropological project in the Middle East     Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events
