Preserving Archives & Manuscripts Mary Lynn Ritzenthaler, 2010 Rev ed of Preserving archives and manuscripts 1993 Preserving Archives and Manuscripts Mary Lynn Ritzenthaler, Society of American Archivists, 1993 Archives and Manuscripts James M. O'Toole,1990 Advancing Preservation for Archives and Manuscripts Elizabeth Joffrion, Michele Valerie Cloonan, 2023-03-31 Divided into three parts the book covers preservation frameworks the nuts and bolts of implementing and managing a preservation program and the ethical and moral implications of preservation practices Holding both the history of archival preservation and the current digital preservation landscape in mind Elizabeth Joffrion and Mich le V Cloonan have developed holistic principles and context for archival preservation that incorporate analog and digital approaches They consider how More Product Less Process can inform preservation strategies examine sustainable practices that are sensitive to the impact of human activity on the environment offer effective programmatic approaches to risk management advocate for inclusive and community focused preservation and highlight the similarities and differences in preservation practices among libraries archives and museums Whether you re new to the profession or experienced in preservation management you will find a valuable framework for thinking about how preservation is practiced today and how it may be carried out in the future to steward your collections and serve your communities Readers will also discover that Advancing Preservation for Archives and Manuscripts complements and augments Mary Lynn Ritzenthaler's classic manual Preserving Archives and Manuscripts Preserving Archives Helen Forde, Jonathan Rhys-Lewis, 2013-03-23 A brand new and fully updated edition of this seminal work on archival preservation Access to archival material the documentary heritage of people all over the world that gives them their identity and ensures their rights is dependent on the survival of fragile materials paper parchment photographic materials audiovisual materials and most recently magnetic optical and increasingly digital formats The primary importance of such survival is widely acknowledged but sometimes overlooked in a rush to provide ever better means of access But without the basic material no services can be offered Preservation is at the heart of archival activity Archivists in all types of organizations face questions on how to plan a preservation strategy in less than perfect circumstances or deal with a sudden emergency This book considers the causes of threats to the basic material outlines the preservation options available and offers flexible solutions applicable in a variety of situations It offers a wide range of case studies and examples from international specialists This revised edition includes additional material on digital preservation and green building as well as a new chapter on the management and training of volunteers reflecting a key concern for many archival institutions Key topics are Understanding archival materials and their characteristics Managing digital preservation Archive buildings and their characteristics Safeguarding the building and its contents Managing archival storage Managing risks and avoiding disaster Creating and using surrogates Exhibiting archives Handling the records Managing a pest control programme Training and the use of volunteers Putting preservation into practice Readership

Archivists librarians curators and enthusiasts trained and untrained in museums local studies centres and voluntary societies in need of good clear advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administrating writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts
