Boller,1998 At once funny and poignant dramatic and illuminating this anecdotal history covers every First Lady from Martha Washington to Hillary Rodham Clinton A marvelously entertaining work Newsday Star-Spangled Men Nathan Miller,2008-06-30 Picking America s best presidents is easy George Washington Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D Roosevelt usually lead the list But choosing the nation s worst presidents requires more thought In Star Spangled Men respected presidential biographer Nathan Miller puts on display those leaders who were abject failures as chief executive With pointed humor and a deft hand he presents a rogues gallery of the men who dropped the presidential ball and sometimes their pants as well Miller includes Richard M Nixon who was forced to resign to escape impeachment Jimmy Carter who proved that the White House is not the place for on the job training and Warren G Harding who gave being in the closet new meaning as he carried on extramarital interludes in one near the Oval Office This current edition also includes a new assessment of Bill Clinton who has admitted lying to his family his aides his cabinet and the American people Presidential Maxims Raymond Roberson,2021-03-11 POTUS does the name give you a positive or negative reaction In a time where our country is extremely divided about the current Presidential role those reactions are mixed but it is certain that this role has shaped our past is still relevant to our day and will affect our future With his power limited by the checks and balances of the federal branches and his duty as commander in chief aside a President s influence can be felt most keenly in the attitudes his demeanor fosters among his nation s citizens it is that influence that drives this book s focus Forty five men in our history have defined this role and their contributions establish a pattern of leadership that we can benefit from now and reap rewards from their influence as individuals to bring change to our communities and ultimately to our country Leadership traits are identified herein for the first nineteen Presidents with birthdays from January to June chronologically their life experiences summarized with brevity to show learned behaviors that can foster a successful life along with quotations that reflect their personal philosophies For instance the well respected George Washington said of his personal standard I hope I shall always possess firmness and virtue enough to maintain what I consider the most enviable
