Prisoner Litigation The Paradox Of The Jailhouse Lawyer:

Prisoner Litigation Jim Thomas, 1988 a brilliant investigation Thomas book not only is an excellent descriptive and interpretive analysis but it will surely provide the basis of further research on JHLs and jailhouse lawyering It presently stands as the definitive statement on the subject CONTEMPORARY SOCIOLOGY Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth, 2004-12-15 Click Additional Materials for downloadable samples The two volume Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities aims to provide a critical overview of penal institutions within a historical and contemporary framework The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the world a fact that has caused lawmakers advocates and legal professionals to rethink punishment policies as well as develop new policies on prisoner education and rehabilitation Issues of race gender and class are fully integrated throughout in order to demonstrate the complexity of the implementation and intended results of incarceration The Encyclopedia contains biographies articles describing important legal statutes and detailed and authoritative descriptions of the major prisons in the United States Comparative data and examples are employed to analyze the American system within an international context The Encyclopedia's 400 entries are all written by recognized authorities The appendix contains a comprehensive listing of every federal prison in the U S complete with facility details and service information Key Themes Juvenile Justice Labor Prison Architecture Prison Populations Prison Reform Privatization Race Gender Class Security and Classification Sentencing Policy and Laws Staff Theories of Punishment Treatment Programs Editorial Board Stephanie Bush Baskette National Council on Crime and Delinquency NCCD Jeanne Flavin Fordham University Esther Heffernan Edgewood College Jim Thomas Northern Illinois University Building the Prison State Heather Schoenfeld, 2024-05-31 The United States incarcerates more people per capita than any other industrialized nation in the world about 1 in 100 adults or more than 2 million people while national spending on prisons has catapulted 400 percent Given the vast racial disparities in incarceration the prison system also reinforces race and class divisions How and why did we become the world's leading jailer And what can we as a society do about it Reframing the story of mass incarceration Heather Schoenfeld illustrates how the unfinished task of full equality for African Americans led to a series of policy choices that expanded the government's power to punish even as they were designed to protect individuals from arbitrary state violence Examining civil rights protests prison condition lawsuits sentencing reforms the War on Drugs and the rise of conservative Tea Party politics Schoenfeld explains why politicians veered from skepticism of prisons to an embrace of incarceration as the appropriate response to crime To reduce the number of people behind bars Schoenfeld argues that we must transform the political incentives for imprisonment and develop a new ideological basis for punishment Encyclopedia of American Prisons , The Oxford History of the Prison Norval Morris, David J. Rothman, 1998 Ranging from ancient times to the present a survey of the evolution of the prison explores its relationship to the history of Western criminal law and offers a look at the social world of prisoners over the centuries

Discretion, Community, and Correctional Ethics John Kleinig, Margaret Leland Smith, 2001 Is it possible to develop and instill a professional ethic for prison personnel that in partnership with formal regulatory constraints will mediate relations among officers staff and inmates or are the failures of imprisonment as an ethically constrained institution so deeply etched into its structure that no professional ethic is possible The contributors to this volume struggle with this central question and its broader and narrower ramifications

Postmodern Criminology Dragan Milovanovic, 2019-03-11 Originally published in 1997 The use of postmodern criminology's conceptual tools offers the potential for the development of a better understanding of the various configurations of repressive forces and directions for social change This excellent text introduces the reader to the core ideas concerning subjectivity as it is related to discourses and how the discursive construction of social reality takes place It discusses some of the key themes dealing with both theoretical integrative work applications and recent developments in studying postmodern criminology It is intended for students as well as those who are more familiar with the subject This book is composed of twelve essays organized into three parts this important work contributes to the big discussion among criminologists about the postmodern aspects of crime

Routledge Library Editions: Criminology Various Authors, 2021-02-25 Reissuing seven works originally published between 1940 and 1997 this collection spans the time in which Criminology has been a recognised academic discipline It offers a set of excellent works on diverse aspects of the field from nineteenth century criminality to burglary in the 1980s The set includes a Dictionary and several works looking at the social and psychological side of crime

Inner Lives Paula Johnson, 2004-03-01 An intimate collection of African American women's voices on their lives in prison The rate of women entering prison has increased nearly 400 percent since 1980 with African American women constituting the largest percentage of this population However despite their extremely disproportional representation in correctional institutions little attention has been paid to their experiences within the criminal justice system Inner Lives provides readers the rare opportunity to intimately connect with African American women prisoners By presenting the women's stories in their own voices Paula C Johnson captures the reality of those who are in the system and those who are working to help them Johnson

offers a nuanced and compelling portrait of this fastest growing prison population by blending legal history ethnography sociology and criminology These striking and vivid narratives are accompanied by equally compelling arguments by Johnson on how to reform our nation s laws and social policies in order to eradicate existing inequalities Her thorough and insightful analysis of the historical and legal background of contemporary criminal law doctrine sentencing theories and correctional policies sets the stage for understanding the current system
