Private Chronicles A Study Of English Diaries:

Private Chronicles Robert A. Fothergill, 1974 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01
This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms A Day at a Time Margo Culley, 1985 Gathers diary selections describes the historical background of each writer and discusses the changing function and content of diaries On Life-writing Zachary Leader, 2015 On Life Writing offers a sampling of approaches to the study of life writing The collection brings together eminent scholars and writers to reflect on specific examples of life writing to reflect broader themes within the genre A Critical Edition of John Beadle's a Journall or Diary of a Thankfull Christian John Beadle, 2019-03-19 Published in 1996 The Book the author produced A Journall or Diary of a Thankfull Christian is essentially a manual a how to book about how to write a spiritual diary moreover it is the only one of its kind written in seventeenth century England Women's Diaries as Narrative in the Nineteenth-Century Novel Catherine Delafield, 2016-12-05 Using private diary writing as her model Catherine Delafield investigates the cultural significance of nineteenth century women s writing and reading practices Beginning with an examination of non fictional diaries and the practice of diary writing she assesses the interaction between the fictional diary and other forms of literary production such as epistolary narrative the periodical the factual document and sensation fiction The discrepancies between the private diary and its use as a narrative device are explored through the writings of Frances Burney Elizabeth Gaskell Anne Bront Dinah Craik Wilkie Collins and Bram Stoker The ideological function of the diary Delafield suggests produces a conflict in fictional narrative between that diary s received use as a domestic and spiritual record and its authority as a life writing opportunity for women

Delafield considers women as writers readers and subjects and contextualizes her analysis within nineteenth century reading practice She demonstrates ways in which women could become performers of their own story through a narrative method which was authorized by their femininity and at the same time allowed them to challenge the myth of domestic womanhood

The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys, 2018-04-20 How sharing the mundane details of daily life did not start with Facebook Twitter and YouTube but with pocket diaries photo albums and baby books Social critiques argue that social media have made us narcissistic that Facebook Twitter Instagram and YouTube are all vehicles for self promotion In The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys offers a different view She shows that sharing the mundane details of our lives what we ate for lunch where we went on vacation who dropped in for a visit didn't begin with mobile devices and social media People have used media to catalog and share their lives for several centuries Pocket diaries photo albums and baby books are the predigital precursors of today's digital and mobile platforms for posting text and images The ability to take selfies has not turned us into needy narcissists it's part of a longer story about how people account for everyday life Humphreys refers to diaries in which eighteenth century daily life is documented with the brevity and precision of a tweet and cites a nineteenth century travel diary in which a young woman complains that her breakfast didn't agree with her Diaries Humphreys explains were often written to be shared with family and friends Pocket diaries were as mobile as smartphones allowing the diarist to record life in real time Humphreys calls this chronicling in both digital and nondigital forms media accounting The sense of self that emerges from media accounting is not the purely statistics driven quantified self but the more well rounded qualified self We come to understand ourselves in a new way through the representations of ourselves that we create to be consumed

Anaïs Nin Clara Oropeza, 2018-08-06 Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own traces Nin's literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction By digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction this book demonstrates that Nin constructed a mythic method of her own revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche Clara Oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for Nin is a genre that with its traces of trickster archetype among others reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer The cogent analysis of Nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories further illuminates Nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated By extending research on diary writing and anchoring Nin's literary style within modernist traditions this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised who participated and how it was defined Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature literary theory mythological studies and depth psychology By considering the ecocritical aspects of Nin's writing this book forges a new paradigm for not only Nin's work but for critical discussions of self life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form This impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies literary studies cultural studies mythological studies and women s studies Victorian Britain Sally Mitchell,2011 First published in 1988 this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies The signed articles which cover persons events institutions topics groups and artefacts in Great Britain between 1837 and 1901 have been written by authorities in the field and contain bibliographies to provide guidelines for further research The work is intended for undergraduates and the general reader and also as a starting point for graduates who wish to explore new fields
