Dark,2001-01-31 This volume provides an overview of the whole range of long term analyses in international relations It evaluates and draws on theoretical approaches in both the humanities and social sciences in subjects such as sociology history anthropology and archaeology and recent progress in evolutionary theory and the mathematical study of complexity The resulting analysis reinterprets processes of global political change in the past and present and opens fresh areas of enquiry for international relations Land and Ancestors Frans Theuws,Nico Roymans,1999 This volume includes an interdisciplinary research programme involving archaeological anthropological and historical perspectives on different dimensions of the landscape Although directed towards a specific region the intensity of the archaeological fieldwork and the
