Private History Of Awe:

A Private History of Awe Scott Russell Sanders, 2007-05-15 An original and searching memoir from one of America's finest essayists Phillip Lopate When Scott Russell Sanders was four his father held him in his arms during a thunderstorm and he felt awe the tingle of a power that surges through bone and rain and everything He says The search for communion with this power has run like a bright thread through all my days A Private History of Awe is an account of this search told as a series of awe inspiring episodes his early memory of watching a fire with his father his attraction to the solemn cadences of the Bible despite his frustration with Sunday school religion his discovery of books and the body his mounting opposition to the Vietnam War and all forms of violence his decision to leave behind the university life of Oxford and Harvard and return to Indiana where three generations of his family have put down roots In many ways this is the story of a generation's passage through the 1960s from innocence to experience from euphoria to disillusionment But Sanders has found a language that captures the transcendence of ordinary lives while never reducing them to formula In his hands the pattern of American boyhood that was made classic by writers from Mark Twain to Tobias Wolff is given a powerful new charge Reimagining

Environmental History Christian Knoeller, 2017-10-11 Christian Knoeller presents a radical reinterpretation of environmental history set in the heartland of America In an excellent model of narrative based scholarship this book dynamically reimagines American environmentalism across generations of writers artists and scientists Knoeller starts out with Audubon and cites Thoreau's journals in the 1850s as he assesses an early 17th century account of New England's natural resources by William Wood showing the epic decline in game and bird populations in Concord This reading of environmental history is replicated throughout with a gallery of novelists poets essayists and other commentators as they explore ecological memory and environmental destruction In apt discussions of Matthiessen Lopez Wendell Berry William Stafford and many others Knoeller offers vibrant insights into literary history He also cites his own memoir of perpetual development on his family's farm in Indiana enriching the scholarship and making an urgent plea for the healing aesthetics of the imagination Reading across centuries and genres Knoeller gives us a vibrant new appraisal of Midwestern North American interior literary traditions and makes clear how vital environmental writing is to this region To date no one has written such an eloquent and comprehensive cross genre analysis of Midwestern environmental literature Earth Works

Scott Russell Sanders, 2012-02-01 In the hands of award winning writer Scott Russell Sanders the essay becomes an inquisitive and revelatory form of art In 30 of his finest essays nine never before collected Sanders examines his Midwestern background his father's drinking his opposition to war his literary inheritance and his feeling for wildness He also tackles such vital issues as the disruption of Earth's climate the impact of technology the mystique of money the ideology of consumerism and the meaning of sustainability Throughout he asks perennial questions What is a good life How do family and culture shape a person's character How should we treat one another and the Earth What is our role in the cosmos

Readers and writers alike will find wisdom and inspiration in Sanders's luminous and thought provoking prose Vital Signs Gregg Levoy, 2015-12-29 Explores what inspires passion and what defeats it How we lose it and how we get it back And ultimately examines the endless yet endlessly fruitful tug of war between freedom and domestication the wild in us and the tame our natural selves and our conditioned selves

History as Apocalypse Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1985-06-30 History as Apocalypse is a reenactment of the history of the Western consciousness from the Homeric and Biblical revolutions through Finnegans Wake This occurs through a historical literary and theological analysis of the Christian epic tradition While attention is focused primarily upon Dante Milton Blake and Joyce the Classical and Biblical foundations of the Christian epic are explored with the intention of discovering an organic unity in the evolution of the Western consciousness Our primary epics are identified as revolutionary breakthroughs not only as transformations of consciousness but also records of social revolutions The Christian epic is both a consequence and a primary embodiment of the decisive historical revolutions revolutions culminating with the ending of our historical evolution

Endurance Sport and the American Philosophical Tradition Douglas Hochstetler, 2020-01-15 Endurance Sport and the American Philosophical Tradition edited by Douglas R Hochstetler analyzes the relationship between endurance sports such as running cycling and swimming and themes from the American philosophical tradition The contributors enter into dialogue with writers such as Ralph Waldo Emerson William James Henry David Thoreau and John Dewey as well as more recent scholars such as John McDermott and bell hooks Examining American philosophical themes informs issues in endurance sport and the experiential nature of endurance sport helps address philosophical issues and explain philosophical themes in American philosophy The chapters bear witness to the fact that philosophy is not limited to abstract notions such as justice truth happiness and so forth but intersects with and has a bearing on our human endeavors of work and play Furthermore the themes centrally related to the American philosophical tradition align closely with the challenges and experiences present and faced by runners cyclists swimmers and endurance athletes in general

Beauty, Truth, Life, and Love J. Brent Bill, 2019-11-05 Do you long to live the abundant life that Jesus promised his followers If so then you will want to weave the threads of beauty truth life and love into the tapestry of your life When these essentials are each present in some measure in our relationships ministries vocations and life choices then we are more likely to find ourselves living a good and abundant life with God

Satellite Simmons Buntin, 2025-03-04 How do we find a way to exist equitably in the world without exhausting our natural and cultural resources Exploring how to create belonging among both human and nonhuman animals is our essential work Parents have the added responsibility of conveying this charge to their children in a way that centers hope and empowerment over guilt and fear In Satellite Simmons Buntin delves into the idea of belonging in place time family and community in sixteen essays written over nearly two decades The pieces range throughout the desert Southwest on both sides of the U S Mexico border and as far afield as Mount Saint Helens eastern Montana northern Vermont Sweden and even the moon if a telescope atop Kitt Peak counts Buntin examines the beauty and challenges of raising a family and creating more sustainable communities in the Sonoran Desert and more broadly in any of America's diverse cultural and ecological landscapes How should community be defined How do we protect heritage in an age of globalization How do we find renewal following personal and place based trauma What forms may grace take and how can parents pass that dignity on to their children Fortunately it is a responsibility both shared and rewarding funny and phenomenal for at every turn there is a new discovery a new insight a new integration between ourselves and the world that culminates when we succeed in a vibrant sense of place Buntin searches for a balance between the built and natural environments and the beings that inhabit them in a way that enables us not only to survive but to thrive together Whirwinds and Small Voices Amy McConkey Robbins, Clarence McConkey, 2008

, 2007 Hijacking History Liane Tanguay, 2013-01-01 In Hijacking History Liane Tanguay unravels the ideology behind an American enterprise unprecedented in scope ambition and brazen claim to global supremacy the War on Terror She argues that the fears anxieties and even the hopes encoded in American popular culture account for the public's passive acceptance of the Bush administration's wars overseas and violation of many of the rights privileges and freedoms they claimed to defend In her analysis Tanguay critically examines the neoconservative contention that the current system of liberal democratic capitalism represents the peak of human evolution a claim that creates the impression of a post historical age Establishing a continuity between the post historical imaginary and the attacks of 9 11 the book examines the links between shifting justifications for the war renewed militarism and capitalist globalization Reviewing a wide range of media including Hollywood films network television and presidential rhetoric Tanguay calls for a revival of politics in popular culture and rejects the politics of fear as disseminated by mass media A timely retrospective on the War on Terror Hijacking History examines popular representations of US military action and dissects both the logic and the aesthetics by which the dominant discourses strive to justify war while revealing how some of those forces can ultimately contribute to an ideology of resistance Serious Leisure and Nature L. Davidson, R. Stebbins, 2011-03-01 Leisure activities undertaken in nature are immensely popular This book examines the new serious leisure concept of nature challenge activity NCA exploring how NCA unfolds in an aesthetically appealing natural environment with implications for consumption and environmental sustainability

The Missouri Review, 2005 Ibadan Market Women and Politics, 1900-1995 Mutiat Titilope Oladejo, 2015-12-16 Ibadan market women were active in political mobilization and they engaged in eclectic political actions during the decolonization process Their leaders significantly swayed the electorate both in and beyond the market places This study examines the historical development of the roles of Ibadan market women in politics between 1900 and 1995 with a view to establishing their contributions By a thorough historical analysis Ibadan Divisional and Provincial papers and newspapers of the nationalists era 1945 1960 Nigerian Tribune and Southern Nigerian Defender from the National Archives Ibadan were consulted for information on the activities of Ibadan market women Secondary data were obtained from the Women Research and Documentation Centre and other resource centres Simultaneously Ibadan market women were involved in party politics of the National Council for Nigeria and Cameroons NCNC Action Group AG and traditional power politics
