examines how and why South Asians were excluded from immigration through legislation that took effect in Canada and the United States in the early twentieth century This book is an important study of how white North Americans saw first wave South Asian immigrants as separate from and inferior to other groups in the evolving racial hierarchy on the west coast of North America LLT ,2001 Their Own History Betty Margaret Griffin,Susan Lockhart,United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union. CAW Seniors Club,2002 Encyclopedia of British Columbia Daniel Francis,2000 The BC publishing event of the decade 30 000 copies in print America, History and Life ,2005 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian,Marian Butler,2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company,1978 The Future of Journalism Bob Franklin,2013-09-13 The future of journalism is hotly contested and highly uncertain reflecting developments in media technologies shifting business strategies for online news changing media organisational and regulatory structures the fragmentation of audiences and a growing public concern about some aspects of tabloid journalism practices and reporting as well as broader political sociological and cultural changes These developments have combined to impoverish the flow of existing revenues available to fund journalism impact radically on traditional journalism professional practices while simultaneously generating an increasingly frenzied search for sustainable and equivalent funding and from a wide range of sources to nurture and deliver quality journalism in the future This book brings together journalists and distinguished academic specialists from around the globe to present the findings from their research and to discuss the future of journalism the shifting quality of its products its wide ranging sources of finance as well as the economic and democratic consequences of the significant changes confronting Journalism The Future of Journalism details the challenges facing the press in contemporary societies and provides essential reading for everyone interested in the role of journalism in shaping and sustaining literate civil and democratic societies This book consists of special issues from Journalism Studies and Journalism Practice Flora of Southern British Columbia and Vancouver Island Joseph Kaye Henry,1915 Grade level 10 11 12 i s t Report of the Farmers' Institutes of British Columbia Farmers' Institutes of British Columbia,1903 Welcome to Resisterville Kathleen Rodgers,2014-04-25 Between 1965 and 1975 thousands of American migrants traded their established lives for a new beginning in the West Kootenay region of British Columbia Some were non violent resisters who opposed the war in Vietnam But a larger group was inspired by the ideals of the 1960s counterculture and the New Left and hoping to flee the restrictive demands of their parents world and the pressures of city life they set out to build a peaceful egalitarian society in the Canadian wilderness Even today their success is evident as values like equality sustainability and creativity still define community life This fascinating history draws on interviews and archival records to explore the root causes of this bold migration and its role in creating a region that continues to be a hotbed of social and environmental experimentation

Welcome to Resisterville is both an important look at an untold chapter in Canadian history and a compelling story of enduring idealism The Art of Collectivity Jennifer Beth Spiegel, Benjamin Ortiz Choukroun, 2019-09-12 Amidst epidemics of youth alienation and cultural polarization community based artistic practices are sprouting up around the world as antidotes to policies of austerity and social exclusion Rejecting the radical individualism of the neoliberal era many artistic projects promote collectivity and togetherness in navigating challenges and constructing shared futures The Art of Collectivity is about how one such creative social program deployed this approach in service of a post neoliberal vision Focusing on a national social circus initiative launched by a newly elected Ecuadorean government to help actualize its citizens revolution the book explores the intersection between global cultural politics participatory arts collective health and social transformation The authors include scholars and practitioners of community arts humanities social sciences and health sciences from the Global North and Global South Sensitive to hierarchical binaries such as research practice north south and art science they work together to provide a multifaceted analysis of the way cultural politics shape policy pedagogy and aesthetic sensibilities as well as their socio cultural and health related effects The largest study of social circus to date combining detailed quantitative qualitative and arts based research The Art of Collectivity is a timely contribution to the study of cultural policies critical pedagogies collective art making and community development Common Ground in a Liquid City Matt Hern, 2010-01-01 An unapologetic defense of city life in a time of environmental crisis
