Barri Flowers, From award winning criminologist R Barri Flowers and the bestselling author of Murder at the Pencil Factory and The Sex Slave Murders comes a powerful new historical true crime short Murder of the Banker's Daughter The Killing of Marion Parker On December 15

1927 12 year old Marion Parker daughter of a prominent banker was brazenly abducted from her junior high school in Los Angeles California in a bizarre ransom scheme Two days later the girl s dismembered remains were left behind by a brutal killer destroying a family and unnerving the entire city This caused pandemonium as the perpetrator managed to evade immediate capture leading to a manhunt by authorities unlike any in recent memory The horror of the crime was reminiscent of one 14 years earlier involving 13 year old Mary Phagan who was murdered at a pencil factory in Atlanta and 5 years later when the 20 month old son of famed aviator Charles Lindbergh was abducted from the family s New Jersey home and brutally slain The killer of Marion Parker was identified as former bank messenger William Edward Hickman a 19 year old with a score to settle and an appetite for killing The career criminal s capture trial and ultimate fate captured the public s imagination while putting attention on the age old vulnerability of children in this country targeted by child predators and the often tragic consequences that rings true to this day Included with the story are bonus excerpts of R Barri Flowers bestselling true crime shorts Murder at the Pencil Factory and Mass Murder in the Sky as well as an excerpt of the author s international bestselling true crime book The Sex Slave Murders

Everyday Murders Hugh Anthony Levine, 2009-08-07 Excerpt from Chapter One All Tanenbaum said was And then what happened Eddie He appeared to enter some weirdly hypnotic catatonic trance his already breathy voice became monotonal his eyes glazed over his face drained of expression and he went on and on and on She said Wait until your mother hears this this is going to break her heart And I said Please don't tell my mother Sherrald please don't tell my mother Sherrald please don't tell my mother And while Eddie Hurdle continued to mouth that refrain please don't tell my mother both of his hands gripped an imaginary knife and repeatedly metronomically plunged it down and raised it up and plunged it down and raised it up over and over and over again The three observers Davin Tanenbaum and the stenotypist sat in stunned silence as Eddie Hurdle reenacted his crime Other sins only speak murder shrieks out wrote playwright John Webster in 1623 and our fascination with murder and murder trials has continued unabated to the present Murder is after all the most dramatically unlawful thing a person can do to another It runs counter to the very fundamentals of human society breaching what social philosophers have termed the social contract Society speaks with its firmest voice in addressing the conduct of its members who kill another and murder prosecutions have the direst of consequences of any court proceeding as they may occasion the loss of a violator's liberty for life or even the loss of his or her life itself But most murder cases while fascinating in the motives or personalities of the killers or the circumstances of the killings and the ensuing trials receive little attention and recede into ordinariness Only rarely does a murder case become a cause célèbre notorious enough to capture wide attention the O J Simpson Scott Peterson Claus von Bülow type cases prove the exception rather than the rule For the most part the public's perception of garden variety murder trials quickly becomes only memory's ashes strewn sparsely on the fields of public awareness Brought to life by the prosecutor who tried the six everyday murders narrated here three in Manhattan and three in San Francisco these true stories prove redolent with drama

encapsulating raw human emotions that often impel man to murder greed lust jealousy hatred as well as mere folly and actually are quite extraordinary in their own context Sit at the prosecution s table with masterful prosecutor Hugh Anthony Levine as he represents the People of the State of New York or the People of the State of California in the trials of some everyday murders
