Railways Of Asia And The Far East His Railways Of The World 5:

India's Railway History John Hurd II, Ian J. Kerr, 2012-08-03 This handbook provides an indispensable reference guide to most aspects of the history of India's railways. The secondary literature is surveyed, primary sources identified, statistical and cartographic data discussed, and a massive bibliography made available. Challenge of Japan Before World War II Nazi Choucri, Robert C. North, Susumu Yamakage, 2013-08-21 First published in 1993. This book examines the relationships between the economic, political, and strategic expansion of a country and its tendency towards conflict and war. The authors use the example of Japan to demonstrate that it is uneven economic development and the search for basic resources and markets that often set the stage for war and international conflict. Thus the pursuit of legitimate national goals, for example the expansion of a nation's industrial base, may put it into competitively potentially conflicting relationships with countries with similar objectives. The names of the authors will attract all International Relations scholars who will know Choucri and North's Nations in Conflict and will have been awaiting the outcome of their fifteen years of research on Japan. The book is also invaluable reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Japan and other Asian area studies, political economy, and political science. The Far Eastern Review, 1913. NCERT MCQs India & World Geography Class 6-12 (Old + New) for UPSC, State PSC and Other Competitive Exams Vivek Sharma, Rajpriya, 2022-04-25 The Civil Services Examination CSE is considered to be the mother of all written examinations and before starting the preparation for the paper and being the toughest exam, it automatically consists of a vast and a detailed syllabus. Railway Lizzie Oliver, 2017-12-14 Prisoners of the Sumatra Railway is the first book to detail the experiences of British former prisoners of war POWs who were forced to construct a railway across Sumatra during the Japanese occupation. It is also the first study to be undertaken of the life writing of POWs held captive by the Japanese during the Second World War and the transgenerational responses in Britain to this period of captivity. This book brings to light previously unpublished materials including Exceptionally rare and detailed diaries, notebooks and letters from the railway. Memoirs from Sumatra including detailed recollections and post war statements written by key personnel on the railway such as Medical Officers and interpreters. Remarkable original artwork created by POWs on Sumatra. Contemporaneous photographs taken inside the camps. Employing theories of life writing, memory and war representation including transgenerational transmission. Lizzie Oliver focuses particularly on what these documents can tell us about how former POWs tried to share, preserve and make sense of their experiences. It is a wholly original study that is of great value to Second World War scholars and anyone interested in 20th century Southeast Asian history or war and memory. Railway Conductors' Monthly, 1924 The Subject Index to Periodicals, 1928 Sustainable Rail Transport 4 Marin Marinov, Janene Piip, 2021-12-16 This book offers a timely collection of articles on innovative research and developments in the vast field of rail transport including rail operations, management, economics, vehicles, interior design and sustainable infrastructure. It addresses academics and professionals specializing in railway transport, analysis, innovation, systems design and new technology. Continuing on the tradition of the previous volumes, the book reports on innovative solutions for energy saving, noise reduction and baggage handling. It elaborates on the implementation of digital technologies and discusses sustainable rail operations along transport corridors. The concept of hyperloop is also discussed as a possible transport mode of the future. All the contributions were selected through an internal competition and a double-blind peer review process organized by the RailUniNet members.
