London in his twenties his first solo show was in 1944 at the Lefevre Gallery Around this time Stephen Spender introduced him to Virginia Woolf at night he was taking Pauline Tennant to the Gargoyle Club owned by her father and frequented by Dylan Thomas he was also meeting Sonia Orwell Cecil Beaton Auden Patrick Leigh Fermor and the Aly Khan and his muse was a married femme fatale 13 years older Lorna Wishart But it was Francis Bacon who would become his most important influence and the painters Frank Auerbach and David Hockney close friends This is an extremely intimate lively and rich portrait of the artist full of gossip and stories recounted by Freud to Feaver about people encounters and work Freud's art was his life my work is purely autobiographical and he usually painted only family friends lovers children though there were exceptions like the famous small portrait of the Queen With his later portraits the subjects were often nude names were never given and sittings could take up to 16 months each session lasting five hours but subjects were rarely bored as Freud was a great raconteur and mimic This book is a major achievement a tour de force that reveals the details of the life and innermost thoughts of the greatest portrait painter of our time Volume I has 41 black and white integrated images and 2 eight page color inserts

Irene Rice Pereira Karen A. Bearor, 2011-07-06 Artist Irene Rice Pereira was a significant figure in the New York art world of the 1930s and 1940s who shared an interest in Jungianism with the better known Abstract Expressionists and with various women artists and writers seeking archetypal imagery Yet her artistic philosophy and innovative imagery elude easy classification with her artistic contemporaries In consequence her work is rarely included in studies of the period and is almost unknown to the general public This first intellectual history of the artist and her work seeks to change that Karen A Bearor thoroughly re-creates the artistic and philosophical milieu that nourished Pereira's work She examines the options available to Pereira as a woman artist in the first half of the twentieth century and explores how she used those options to contribute to the development of modernism in the United States Bearor traces Pereira's interest in the ideas of major thinkers of the period among them Spengler Jung Einstein Cassirer and Dewey and shows how Pereira incorporated their ideas into her art And she demonstrates how Pereira's quest to understand something of the nature of ultimate reality led her from an early utopianism to a later interest in spiritualism and the occult This lively intellectual history amplifies our knowledge of a time of creative ferment in American art and society It will appeal to a wide range of readers interested in the modernist period

The Orchestration of the Arts — A Creative Symbiosis of Existential Powers M. Kronegger, 2013-03-09 Regardless of the subject matter our studies are always searching for a sense of the universal in the specific Drawing etchings and paintings are a way of communicating ideas and emotions The key word here is to communicate Whether the audience sees the work as laborious or poetic depends on the creative genius of the artist Some painters use the play of light passing through a landscape or washing over a figure to create an evocative moment that will be both timeless and transitory The essential role of art remains what it has always been a way of human expression This is the role that our participants concentrate on as they discuss art as the expression of the spirit a creative act through which the artist makes manifest what is within him Spirit suggests the unity of feeling and thought Avoiding broad generalities our participants address specific areas in orchestration with music architecture literature and phenomenology Profs Souiller Scholz Etlin Sweetser Josephs show us at what point art is an intimate profound expression and the magic of a civilization as a whole springing from its evolving thoughts and embodying ideals such as the Renaissance the Baroque Modernism and at what point it reflects the transformation of a particular society and its mode of life

This book is the first to explore in detail the encounter between Albert Flocon and Gaston Bachelard in postwar Paris Bachelard was a philosopher and historian of science who was also involved in literary studies and poetics Flocon was a student of the Bauhaus in Dessau Germany who specialized in copper engraving Both deeply ingrained in the surrealist avant garde movements each acted at the frontiers of their respective matters in exploring uncharted territory Bachelard experienced the sciences of his time as constantly undergoing radical changes and he wanted to create a historical epistemology that would live up to this experience He saw the elementary gesture of the copper engraver the hand of the engraver as meeting the challenge of resistant and resilient matter in an exemplary fashion Flocon was fascinated by Bachelard's unconventional approach to the sciences and his poetics Together their relationship interrogated and celebrated the interplay of hand and matter as it occurs in poetic writing in the art of engraving and in scientific experimentation In the form of a double biography Hans Jörg Rheinberger succeeds in writing a lucid intellectual history and at the same time presents a fascinating illustrated reading of Flocon's copper engravings Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library.
