Aesthetics of Space in Nineteenth-Century British Literature, 1843-1907 Giles Whiteley, 2020-03-02 Uncovers the link between Ruskin and the tradition of the aesthetics of space Discusses a hitherto under researched tradition of city writing linking Ruskin to modernism Reads comparatively five important mid to late nineteenth century writers Marries close textual analysis with historically and geographically informed context Fills a gap in the critical literature on city writing between realism and early modernism Charting an aesthetic post realist tradition of writing this book considers the significant role played by John Ruskin's art criticism in later writing which dealt with the new kinds of spaces encountered in the nineteenth century With chapters devoted to the ways in which aesthetic and decadent writers such as Walter Pater and Oscar Wilde built upon and challenged Ruskin's ideas the book links the late Dickens to the early modernism of Henry James

The Aesthetics of Space in Nineteenth Century British Literature gives a vibrant vision of what an aesthetically sensitive treatment of these spaces looked like during the period      Recollections of Fred Leslie William Thomas Vincent, 1893
