Sandino's Nation Stephen Henighan, 2014-04-01 Ernesto Cardenal and Sergio Ramirez are two of the most influential Latin American intellectuals of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Addressing Nicaragua s struggle for self definition from divergent ethnic religious generational political and class backgrounds they constructed distinct yet compatible visions of national history anchored in a reappraisal of the early twentieth century insurgent leader Augusto Cesar Sandino During the Sandinista Revolution of 1979 90 Cardenal appointed Nicaragua s minister of culture became one of the most provocative and internationally recognized figures of liberation theology while Ramirez a member of the revolutionary junta and later elected vice president of Nicaragua emerged as an authoritative figure for third world nationalism But before all else the two were groundbreaking creative writers Through a close reading of the works by Nicaragua s best known and most prolific modern authors Sandino s Nation studies the construction of Nicaraguan national identity during three distinct periods of the country s recent history before during and after the 1979 90 revolution Stephen Henighan offers rigorous textual analyses of poems memoirs essays and novels interwoven with a sharply narrated history of Nicaragua The only comprehensive study of the careers of Cardenal and Ramirez Sandino s Nation is essential to understanding transformations to both Nicaragua and the role of the writer in Latin America

Modern Nicaraguan Poetry Steven F. White, 1993 This work demonstrates that twentieth century Nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of France and the United States Ever since Ruben Dario established Hispanic America s literary independence from Spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in Nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of French and North American authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly Nicaraguan literary identity. This process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in Nicaraguan poetry: certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from French literary forebears; others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to North American soil. This division is a provisional experimental means of grouping Nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities. Presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the Nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations, common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues. This rigorous but flexible approach to modern Nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward God and the end of the world into a timeless Nicaraguan landscape invaded by U S Marines, beyond a contemporary urban portrait of Los Angeles through the horrifying European battlefields of World War I and the trenches of Nicaragua's revolution against the Somoza dictatorship. The English speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent Nicaraguan poets whose works are the subject of this book, but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of Nicaraguans Alfonso Cortés, Salomón de la Selva, José Coronel Urtecho, Pablo Antonio Cuadra, Joaquín Pasos, Carlos Martínez Rivas, and Ernesto Cardenal is worthy of serious study. Furthermore, the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by Baudelaire, Rimbaud, Mallarmé and Supervielle, or in an American context by poets such as Whitman, Pound, Eliot and Masters. A relatively small country with a rich, diverse tradition in poetry, Nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater recognition.

Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3, 2015-04-22. Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous, most distinctive and most influential poems. Ernesto Cardenal en soledad de amor herido. Martín Jiménez Serrano, 2023-05-04. En 1993 a la edad de 68 años Ernesto Cardenal plasmó en Telescopio en la noche oscura una experiencia interior que comenzó en 1956 a o en que la n joven nicaragense padeció una convulsión espiritual tan profunda que lo condujo a olvidarse de sus amores humanos para entregarse al Amor divino. En esta investigación el autor desentraña los símbolos de la Noche y de la Nada en los 92 poemas breves que conforman ese poemario de un intenso lirismo. Pero Jiménez Serrano va más allá al indagar en toda la poesía cardenaliana la noche como leitmotiv metáfora de la Noche Mística del contemplativo de Solentiname. A este indicio metafórico se suma el telescopio símbolo con el que el poeta acentúa la situación desolada de su alma ante la aparente ausencia del Amado en su vida. Todavía más en el poemario también aparece la Nada como símbolo del auténtico Dios sin imagen. Este discurso anagórico del poeta afianza la posibilidad de una poesía mística en Hispanoamérica. Y este libro es decisivo en el estudio de la experiencia mística en la poesía cardenaliana.
