Lost And Found House:

The Lost and Found House Michael Cadnum, 1997 A young boy describes how he and his parents feel when they leave their old house and move to a new house in another town At the Lost and Found Edward Curtin, 2025-03-01 At the Lost and Found is a dazzling exploration of the most important issues of our time written in a style that defies categorization Open it at any chapter and you will be hooked by themes and sentences that are a moveable feast for head heart and spirit Each chapter is like a river journey that will twist and turn your mind down unexpected tributaries that you never thought to follow And when you reach the end you will realize you have been traveling one mighty river and all your meandering thoughts and reveries have transported you past places called Lost and Found where you stopped briefly to satisfy your immense hunger for understanding and meaning in a world gone mad Reading Edward Curtin is a feast of many complementary dishes served human family style His writing is truly unique fusing the political with the personal art with astute objective analyses and the tragic with the comic From a detailed critique of the Internet and cell phones one passes effortlessly to the linked bewitchment of CIA propaganda and its assassinations of President Kennedy and the Reverend Martin Luther King Jr There are highlights on pot shops and lowlifes Donld Rumsfeld and Allen Dulles meditations on time remembering and forgetting the endless evil of U S wars waged around the world nuclear war and Trident submarines Leftist betrayals the U S war against Russia through Ukraine capitalism and consumerism the Israeli genocide of Palestinians the corruption of the U S political system the connection between bread rebellion and the search for happiness Bob Dylan music basketball and much more This feast of complementary dishes is moving and memorable Like the mighty river journey it will bring you to a place of gratitude Unlike straightforward political analyses At the Lost and Found weaves politics through the personal and every person s search for understanding happiness and hope in a world on the edge of an abyss Slyly laced within it one will find the author s personal story lightly limned to suggest that Thoreau was right to remind us that it is always the first person that is speaking not some disembodied purely objective abstraction Curtin s writing follows in the tradition of other essayists who saw life whole such as James Baldwin John Berger and Albert Camus Add a touch of sly wit whimsy and storytelling and you have the ingredients that make At the Lost and Found a tour de force

It's the fight of their lives in this near-future sci-fi thriller. Ashley Winston's lost it all: her lover, her reputation, and her empire. All is lost. After five years of destruction and chaos, a brainwashed world careens towards annihilation. An unlikely cast of characters pulls it together with bootstrapped tech on borrowed time to beat back corporate giants and contain the mindless mob. It's the fight of their lives in this near-future sci-fi thriller. Ashley Winston's lost it all: her lover, her reputation, and her empire. Rival corporations have stolen and weaponized the Rainmakers, her father's airships. She can't resist a good fight, and for her and her ragtag crew, this is The Good Fight. How can they win against the infinite resources of an emerging teleportation corporate giant, the Port Authority? If Winston fails, this showdown in Wyoming will establish one iron-fisted powerhouse to rule them all. Laramie locals and Eat the Rich rebels join the fray. Already impossible odds just get worse when the fight draws unwarranted attention from the future. Relentless, no-quarter warriors descend by the dozen. These time-traveling hunters will stop at nothing to get the results they came for. Surviving all this in the shadow of a Lightning's Hand seems less likely with every chapter. You've found the read you need. Get it now. Lost and Found Hiraku Shimoda, 2020-05-11. Lost and Found offers a new understanding of modern Japanese regionalism by revealing the tense and volatile historical relationship between region and nation in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Aizu, a star-crossed region in present-day Fukushima prefecture, becomes a case study for how one locale was estranged from nationhood for its treasonous blunder in the Meiji Restoration yet eventually found a useful place within the imperial landscape. Local mythmakers, historians, memoirists, war veterans, and others harmonized their rebel homeland with imperial Japan so as to affirm ironically the ultimate integrity of the Japanese polity. What was once lost and then found again was not simply Aizu's sense of place and identity but the larger value of regionalism in a rapidly modernizing society. In this study, Hiraku Shimoda suggests that region, which is often regarded as a hard natural place that impedes national unity, is in fact a supple and contingent spatial category that can be made to reinforce nationalist sensibilities just as much as internal diversity. Lost and Found Emma L.E. Rees, 2013-06-28. He is my miracle, says Sarah Frost Mellor's protagonist of her lover Joe. Found by accident in the least likely of places, Sarah won the 2012 Cheshire Prize for Literature with her short story Udumbara in Lytham St Anne's, and it's in this modest seaside town that Lost and Found begins. Reading through the stories in this collection the reader will find many things surreal flotsam on a desolate beach a love letter mislaid for decades turns of phrase in a classroom relationships shaped in unusual settings But to find something means simultaneously to acknowledge the possibility of loss And loss figures largely in the anthology too from beloved relatives to despised spouses and from inconsequential objects to an individual s very sense of self life s losses are portrayed here in a variety of humorous dark and frequently surprising ways The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff s Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by the Bank of America Europe Card Services and is administered by the University of Chester The 2012 competition was for short stories and this collection contains 24 of the shortlisted entries including those of the eventual winner Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize>
