Expanding Empires Wendy F. Kasinec, Michael A. Polushin, 2002 This new volume examines the processes of cultural exchange as they occurred in empire building looking at Early Mesopotamia Africa Greece Japan India the Arab world and empires in other parts of the globe The articles draw upon a variety of disciplines from the social sciences and the humanities a feature not often found in other readers Unlike other books on world civilizations this text strives to develop a consistent theme as it focuses on the manner in which imperial authority and cultural interaction worked through different bureaucracies in various empires The articles also help students understand the cross cultural interactions and historical events that have laid the foundation for our modern global society This book also contains useful maps and supplements consisting of images to assist students in visualizing and understanding the textual material This new text is ideal for courses in world history prior to 1650

Nubian Pharaohs and Meroitic Kings NECIA DESIREE HARKLESS, 2006-08-30 NUBIAN PHARAOHS AND MEROITIC KINGS THE KINGDOM OF KUSH Necia Desiree Harkless has completed her odyssey of 24 years initiated by a poem that emerged in the odd moments of early morning and her studies as a Donovan Scholar at the University of Kentucky with Dr William Y Adams the leading Nubiologist of the world The awesome result is her attempt to map the cultural social political history of Nubia as a single people as actors on the world stage as they act out their destinies in the cradle of civilization The underlying purpose of her book is to reconstruct the collective efforts of the past and present Nubian campaigns and their collaborative scholarship so that the African American as well as all Americans can begin to understand the contributions of the civilization of Africa and Asia as a continuous historical entity The history of the Kingdom of Kush begins with its earliest kingdom of Kerma in 2500 BC It continues with the conquest of Egypt by the Nubian Pharaohs in 750 BC reluctantly recognized as the Twenty fifth Dynasty of Egyptian Pharaohs They ruled as black pharaohs from their Kingdom at Napatan until they were forced one hundred years later to retreat to Napata by the Assyrians who assumed control of the Egyptians It was at Meroe the last empire of the Kush that forty generations of Meroitic kings and queens continued the Kingdom of Kush reaching monumental and dynastic heights Their symbiotic relationship with Egypt was over allowing them to develop their own indigenous culture with a language and script of their own Their architecture arts politics material and spiritual culture in the minds of many scholars surpassed that of Egypt Over two hundred pyramids have been investigated It is an epic that will be long remembered The dawn of Christianity in the Kingdom of Kush has been found in the treasure cove of the Frescoes of Faras

The New Latino Studies Reader Ramon A. Gutierrez, Tomas Almaguer, 2016-08-23 The New Latino Studies Reader is designed as a contemporary updated multifaceted collection of writings that bring to force the exciting necessary scholarship of the last decades Its aim is to introduce a new generation of students to a wide ranging set of essays that helps them gain a truer understanding of what it s like to be a Latino in the United States With the reader students explore the sociohistorical formation of Latinos as a distinct panethnic group in the United States delving into issues of class formation social stratification racial gender and sexual identities and politics and cultural production And while other readers now in print may discuss Mexican Americans Puerto Ricans Cubans and Central Americans as distinct groups with unique experiences this text explores both the commonalities and the differences that structure the experiences of Latino Americans Timely thorough and thought provoking The New Latino Studies Reader provides a genuine view of the Latino experience as a whole

Displacement and Refugee Issues in South Asia Bulbul Siddiqi, 2024-09-13 The number of forcibly displaced people globally has been on the rise in recent years The refugee crises in the Middle East Africa Europe and South and East Asia are the most notable Due to such crises the refugee population has been a key challenge for humanity It has also put a strain on many refugee hosting countries as most of the displaced populations are hosted in low and middle income countries rather than wealthier countries Force displacement creates challenges for the refugees and the host societies Displacement and Refugee Issues in South Asia Uncovering the Contested Realities brings out the cases of forcibly displacement from five South Asian countries Rohingya in Bangladesh India and Nepal Tamils in Sri Lanka and the Afghan refugees in Afghanistan and Europe Bulbul Siddiqi and contributors reveal that the refugee population in various South Asian countries have been living with vulnerabilities and uncertainty due to ineffective repatriation and the lack of dignified living conditions in host countries It requires urgent support and initiatives from global and regional powers and international humanitarian organizations to ensure that the dignified lives of these vulnerable populations in different countries

Right Thinking and Sacred Oratory in Counter-Reformation Rome Frederick J. McGinness,2014-07-14 At the end of the sixteenth century when painters writers and scientists from all over Europe flocked to Rome for creative inspiration the city was also becoming the center of a vibrant and assertive Roman Catholic culture Closely identified with Rome the Counter Reformation church sought to strengthen itself by building on Rome s symbolic value and broadcasting its cultural message loudly and skillfully to the European world In a book that captures the texture and flavor of this rhetorical strategy Frederick McGinness explores the new emphasis placed on preaching by Roman church leaders Looking at the development of a sacred oratory designed to move the heart he traces the formation of a long lasting Catholic worldview and reveals the ingenuity of the Counter Reformation in the transformation of Renaissance humanism McGinness not only describes the theory of sermon writing but also reconstructs the circumstances social and physical in which sermons were delivered The author considers how sermons blended spirituality with pious legends for example stories of the early martyrs and evocative metaphors to fashion a respublica christiana of loyal Catholics Preachers projected a right view of history social relationships and ecclesiastical organization while depicting a spiritual topography upon which Catholics could chart a path to salvation At the center of this topography was Rome a vast stage set for religious pageantry which McGinness brings to life as he follows the homiletic representations of the city from a bastion of Christian militancy to a haven of harmony light and tranquility Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Property, Territory, Globalization William D. Coleman, 2011-05-10 In a world of flux and globalization when old territories are dissolving and new nations and political unions are coming together who controls ideas information and creativity Who patrols the new frontiers This volume opens a window to the dark side of globalization and the struggles for autonomy it has generated The chapters focus on property regimes in crisis as sites where globalization autonomy and the political economy of international capitalism intersect Sites of friction indigenous land claims BC forest disputes conflicts between farmers and the patent owners of genetically modified seeds demonstrate not only how property laws and intellectual property rights are supporting the expansion of private property regimes but also how local activists are using a politics of place to resist these forces The work of Palestinian poets whose attachment to the land is explored in a powerful Coda at the end of the book shows that a politics of place can help local actors build new bases of autonomy to withstand the forces of globalization

The Penguin History of New Zealand Michael King, 2003-10-13 This bestselling book the triumphant fruit of careful research wide reading and judicious assessment is the unchallenged contemporary reference on the history of New Zealand New Zealand was the last country in the world to be discovered and settled by humankind It was also the first to introduce full democracy Between those events and in the century that followed the movements and conflicts of human history have been played out more intensively and more rapidly in New Zealand than anywhere else on Earth The Penguin History of New Zealand tells that story in all its colour and drama The narrative that emerges is an inclusive one about men and women Maori and Pakeha It shows that British motives in colonising New Zealand were essentially humane and that Maori far from being passive victims of a fatal impact coped heroically with colonisation and survived by selectively accepting and adapting what Western technology and culture had to offer Also available as an eBook PLATINUM PREMIER NEW ZEALAND BESTSELLER READERS CHOICE AWARD 2004 MONTANA NEW ZEALAND BOOK AWARDS NIELSEN BOOKDATA NEW ZEALAND BOOKSELLERS CHOICE AWARD BEST OF THE BEST 2011

New Frontiers of Land Control Nancy Peluso, Christian Lund, 2013-09-13 Questions about land control have invigorated thinkers in agrarian studies and economic history since the nineteenth century Exclusion alienation expropriation dispossession and violence animate histories of land use property rights and territories More recently agrarian environments have been transformed by processes of de agrarianization urbanization migration and new forms of primitive accumulation Even the classic agrarian question of how the social relations of agriculture will be influenced by capitalism has been reformulated at critical historical moments reviving or producing new debates around the importance of land control The authors in this volume focus on new frontiers of land control and their active creation These frontiers are sites where established power relationships are challenged by new enclosures and property regimes producing new social and environmental dynamics in their stead Contributors examine labor and production processes engaged by new configurations of actors new agrarian and environmental subjects and the networks connecting them and new legal and violent means of challenging established or imminent land controls Overall we find that land control still matters though in changed degrees and manners Land control will continue to inspire struggles for a long time This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Master of Adventure ,2005-01-01 So just how was Tarzan created Eager to know the inside story about the legendary John Carter and the amazing cities and peoples of Barsoom Perhaps your taste is more suited to David Innes and the fantastic lost world at the Earth s core Or maybe wrong way Napier and the bizarre civilizations of cloud enshrouded Venus are more to your liking These pages contain all that you will ever want to know about the wondrous worlds and unforgettable characters penned by the master storyteller Edgar Rice Burroughs Richard A Lupoff the respected critic and writer who helped spark a Burroughs revival in the 1960s reveals fascinating details about the stories written by the creator of Tarzan Featured here are outlines of all of Burroughs s major novels with descriptions of how they were each written and their respective sources of inspiration This Bison Books edition includes a new foreword by fantasy writer Michael Moorcock a new introduction by the author a final chapter by Phillip R Burger as well as corrected text and an updated bibliography

Testimonio Francisco Arturo Rosales,2000-08-31 Beginning with the early 1800s and extending to the modern era Rosales collects illuminating documents that shed light on the Mexican American quest for life liberty and justice Documents include petitions correspondence government reports political proclamations newspaper items congressional testimony memoirs and even international treaties Constructing Citizenship Catherine A. Nolan-Ferrell,2012-05-01 During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries people living in the coffee producing region of the Sierra Madre mountains along the Pacific Coast of Mexico and Guatemala paid little attention to national borders The Mexican Revolution particularly during the 1930s reconstruction phase ruptured economic and social continuity because access to revolutionary reforms depended on claiming Mexican national identity Impoverished often indigenous rural workers on both sides of the border used shifting ideas of citizenship and cultural belonging to gain power and protect their economic and social interests With this book Catherine Nolan Ferrell builds on recent theoretical approaches to state formation and transnationalism to explore the ways that governments elites and marginalized laborers claimed and contested national borders By investigating how various groups along the Mexico Guatemala border negotiated nationality Constructing Citizenship offers insights into the complex development of transnational communities the links between identity and citizenship and the challenges of integrating disparate groups into a cohesive nation Entwined with a labor history of rural workers Nolan Ferrell also shows how labor struggles were a way for poor Mexicans and migrant Guatemalans to assert claims to national political power and social inclusion Combining oral histories with documentary research from local regional and national archives to provide a complete picture of how rural laborers along Mexico s southern border experienced the years before during and after the Mexican Revolution this book will appeal not only to Mexicanists but also to scholars interested in transnational identity border studies social justice and labor history
