

Organizing and Staffing

Successful project management, regardless of the organizational structure, is only as good as the individuals and leaders who are managing the key functions. Project management is not a one-person operation; it requires a group of individuals dedicated to the achievement of a specific goal. Project management includes:

- A project manager
- An assistant project manager
- A project (home) office
- A project team

staffing

- What are the requirements for an individual to become a successful project manager?

• On the surface, these questions may not seem especially complex. But when we apply them to a
