

PLANS FOR AN ORDERLY APOCALYPSE

The sirens sang when the heavens split
The day dawned dark when the town was taken
The streets were still and the people gone
And grass had grown where the stone was cracked

The skies blazed black with melting steel
Airmen in armor swung down on silk
Drowned submarines expired in sand
In flash of fission the Phoenix fell
The church door burst in a marble blast
Scorched angels flew from the flaming crypts
Stinking of feathers and singéd hair
I thought of a Prince and the pitchforked crew

But the King and Queen stayed late in bed
Matted in love and matters of state
The princess cried when her cradle cracked
Nurse was dead and nobody heard

In the pantry the cook and the butler kissed
Smelling of pie and turnips and tea
Down in the orchard, fragrant in apples
The rational gardener gasped his end

The Pullman Porter pulled his bell
'All out, all out, for Armageddon!'
Liberal laughter leered at his doom
And the Whites and the Reds trooped to their tombs
